CORRESPONDING BODIES.

General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church—Rev. W. J. Baird.(8)

General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church—Rev. William V. V. Mabon, D. D.(2)

Associate Reformed Synod of New York—
General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America—Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D (4)
General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now sitting in Philadelphia—Rev. R. W. Patterson, D. D. (7); Elder William H. Brown.(7)

The Rev. S. S. Sheddan, Rev. Joseph F. Jennison, and J. N. Brown, ruling elder, were appointed a Committee on Elections—to whom persons present with informal commissions, or without commissions, were referred.

On motion of E. P. Humphrey, D. D., the first half hour of the afternoon sessions was set apart for devotional exercises.

The Assembly then adjourned after prayer by Dr. William Blackwood.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly, according to appointment, spent the first half hour in devotional exercises, under the direction of the Moderator.

The Committee on Elections reported the following, and recommended that they be enrolled, which was ordered to be done.

Ministers—Wilson Phraner, John Andrews, W. Speer, Isaiah Faries, L. L. Conrad, John B. Blayney, L. G. Hay. Ruling Elders—W. P. Williams, A. B. Conger, William Munro, Matthew Scott, Robert Kerr, Samuel Sharp, T. H. Nevin.

Dr. Humphrey moved, that in all elections of this Assembly, a majority of the whole number of votes cast be required.

This motion was carried.

The Assembly then proceeded to the election of officers. The Rev. John H. Morrison, of the Presbytery of Lodiana and Synod of Northern India, was elected Moderator, and the Rev. J. H. M. Knox, D. D., of the Second Presbytery of Philadelphia, was elected Temporary Clerk.

On motion of Mr. Matthew Newkirk, it was ordered that the daily sessions of the Assembly extend from 9 until 12 o'clock in the forenoon, and from 3 until 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dr. C. C. Beatty moved to spend the last half hour of each afternoon in devotional exercises.

Dr. A. Nevin moved to amend by substituting the first half hour.

Rev. Mr. De Lancey moved to refer the whole subject to the Committee on Devotional Exercises, which was done.

Mr. De Lancey then moved to spend the first half hour of to-morrow's forenoon session in devotional exercises, under direction of the Moderator, which was carried.

On motion of Dr. Humphrey it was Resolved, That it be the order of the day for to-morrow (Friday) at 10 o'clock A. M. to receive the reports of the Boards and Theological Seminaries; and that it be the order of the day for Saturday next to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Extension; for Monday next, to hear that on the Disabled Ministers' Fund; for Tuesday, on the Board of Education; for Wednesday, on the Board of Domestic Missions; for Thursday, on the Board of Foreign Missions; for Friday, on the Board of Publication,—each day at 10 o'clock A. M.

Dr. A. Nevin moved the following:

Resolved, That nominations for vacancies in our Boards be made in the meetings of the Assembly, and that such nominations being printed, the election shall take place two days after the nominations have been made.

Pending the disposal of this resolution, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Moderator, until to-morrow at 9 A. M.

FRIDAY Morning, May 22.

The Assembly met and spent a half hour in devotional exercises.

The minutes of yesterday were read, corrected and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners, whose names were ordered to be enrolled, viz.

Ministers—J. L. Lower, William H. Kirk, George F. Goodhue, John Fleming, James A. Quarles, John C. Hanna, William R. Work, D. M. Stewart, H. C. Reed, John Thomas, H. B. Burr, John Wiseman, J. S. Elder, Joseph M. Ogden, D. D. Ruling Elders—John M. Hood, A. Stirling, Jr., John M. Sherrerd, Isaac Tate, Robert N. Brown, Henry B. Myer, R. S. Alexander, Benjamin Simington, E. W. Martin, W. L. Wood, George Hench, John C. House, James Clark, A. G. Brown, William Redick, John Major, G. W. Lewis, J. W. Robinson, Samuel Vannuys, A. W. Page.

Also, Rev. Wm. V. V. Mabon, D. D.; Delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch church.

Rev. Mr. Sheddan, from the Committee on Elections, reported the following Commissioners present with informal Commissions, and recommended that they be enrolled, satisfactory evidence of their appointment having been presented, viz. Ruling Elder Robert Miller from the Presbytery of Transylvania, Rev. George Carpenter, from the Presbytery of Columbus, Rev. Jas. Cleland and Ruling Elder Robert Rodgers, both of the Presbytery of Ogdensburg.

The recommendation was adopted.

The order of the day was taken up, and reports received from the several Boards and Theological Seminaries, which were duly referred.

On motion it was

Resolved, That after the roll is corrected to-day, it be printed, under the direction of the Stated Clerk, for the use of the members.

The Assembly took up the unfinished business of yesterday afternoon, the consideration of Dr. Nevin's resolution.

On motion, the resolution was laid upon the table.

Dr. A. Nevin offered his resignation as a member of the Board of Publication.

It was moved that the resignation be accepted, but, on leave granted, it was subsequently withdrawn.

It was

Resolved, That it be made the first order of the day for to-morrow to fix the place of meeting for the Assembly of next year.

Judicial Case No. 4, referred from the last Assembly (See Minutes of 1862, page 633,) was referred to the Judicial Committee.

The Treasurer of the Assembly, Mr. George H. Van Gelder, presented his report, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Dr. Beatty presented to the Assembly a letter from Governor David Tod, of the State of Ohio, having reference to a minute passed by the last Assembly, and to certain books of its Board of Publication voted by that Assembly to be sent to the State Library.

The letter was read.

Dr. Beatty also presented to the Assembly a correspondence had, in consequence of its action last year, with the Moderator of the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, and the Moderator of the Assembly which met last May in the city of Cincinnati, together with the action of the former of said bodies.

Also a letter from the Rev. Robert Watts, relating to his visit, under the appointment of the last Assembly, to the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

All of which papers were referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

Judicial Cases No. 2, No. 3, and No. 5, referred to this Assembly by that of last year (See Minutes of 1862, pages 611, 608, and 611,) were, on motion of Dr. Humphrey, referred to the Judicial Committee.

Rev. W. Speer reported a memorial from the Presbytery of Chippewa to the General Assembly.

On motion, it was read and referred, with any similar papers to be presented, to a special Committee of three ministers and two ruling elders.

Dr. Loyal Young offered the following:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to inquire into the state of the churches of West Virginia, connected with the Presbyteries of Lexington and Greenbrier, and other churches in similar circumstances, and to report some action to be taken by this Assembly in behalf of said churches.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Moderator announced the following as the Special Committee on the memorial from the Presbytery of Chippewa, viz. Rev. R. W. Condit, D. D., Rev. Wm. Speer, Rev. Loyal Young, D. D., Ruling Elders H. K. Clarke and M. Newkirk.

Dr. Beatty moved to reconsider the vote on Dr. Young's resolution, with a view to refer it to a Special Committee. The motion was lost.

A letter was received from George H. Stuart, Esq., Chairman of the United States Christian Commission, which, on motion, was read and referred to the Committee on Devotional Exercises.

The Assembly then adjourned, with prayer by the Rev. R. Frame.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. E. E. Rankin.

Dr. Blackwood, from the Committee on Correspondence, reported the following:

The Committee on Correspondence with Foreign Bodies, beg leave to submit the following nominations for confirmation by the General Assembly, viz.

To the General Synod of the Protestant Reformed Dutch Church, the Rev. George Junkin, D. D., principal, and the Rev. Gardiner Spring Plumley, alternate.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, the Rev. R. C. Grundy, D. D., and John D. Thorpe, ruling elder.

And further, the Committee recommend that it be made the second order of the day for the morning of Tuesday next, to hear the Rev. William V. V. Mabon, D. D., the delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church.

The report was adopted, and the nominees were appointed.

The Rev. R. Frame, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, reported arrangements for supplying the pulpits of this city and vicinity.

The Committee also recommended that the last half hour of each afternoon session be devoted to devotional exercises under the direction of the Moderator.

The report was adopted.

Dr. Beatty moved further to postpone the matter of forming a new Synod from portions of the Synods of New Jersey and Philadelphia, which was referred to this Assembly from last year.

Dr. Hickok moved as an amendment, the indefinite postponement of the whole subject; and the resolution, thus amended, was carried.

H. K. Clarke moved that the matter of a Church Commentary, referred from last year, be postponed to next year.

Carried.

The Rev. Dr. Goodale presented a resolution from the Presbytery of Albany, having reference to the publication of a Hymn and Tune Book.

The resolution, with accompanying letters, was referred to the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication.

Dr. Beatty moved to make it the first order of the day for Monday afternoon next, to hear and consider the report of the Special Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to examine the affairs of the Board of Publication. Carried.

Dr. Beatty moved to make it the first order of the day for Tuesday afternoon next, to consider the report of the Committee on the Revised Book of Discipline. Carried.

The Stated Clerk presented copies of the Revised Book of Discipline, which were distributed among the members of the Assembly.

On motion, the Synodical Records were called for, and referred to the appropriate Committees.

On motion of the Rev. E. E. Rankin, the vote fixing the time for selecting the next place of meeting was reconsidered, and the Assembly proceeded at once to choose the place.

The vote resulted as follows:

For Pittsburgh,	6 votes.	For Washington,	15 votes.
For Boston,	136 "	For Newark, N. J.	74 "

The city of Boston was therefore declared to be chosen.

The Assembly spent a half hour in devotional exercises, and then adjourned.

SATURDAY Morning, May 23.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The following telegram was received by the Moderator of the Assembly:

PHILADELPHIA, May 22, 1863.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly in session at Peoria, Ill.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now in session at Philadelphia have unanimously appointed Delegates to represent them in your honorable body.

By order of the Assembly,

HENRY DARLING, Clerk.

This communication was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Rev. J. Wood, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that the Committee had given leave to the following commissioners until Monday afternoon, viz.—the Rev. Alexander Caldwell, Rev. J. P. McMillan, and Rev. H. V. D. Nevius; and ruling elders Robert Carter and John S. Purdy.

The report was approved.

The Rev. S. S. Sheddan offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That it be made the second order of the day for Wednesday forenoon next, to receive, both from Standing Committees and from individual members of the Assembly, nominations to fill vacancies in the several Boards and Theological Seminaries, and that all nominations, when closed, be printed by the Stated Clerk, for the use of the members in voting; and further, that it be the second order of the day for Friday forenoon next, to go into the election to fill vacancies in the Boards and Seminaries.

Dr. A. Nevin moved that a Committee be appointed to revise and improve the Hymn Book now in use in the Church, but gave way for the introduction of other business.

The following additional Commissioners were reported by the Committee on Commissions, as present, viz., Ruling Elders William C. Lawson, William R. Post, James Boggs, and the Rev. Edward P. Shields.

Dr. Beatty, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 1, from the Rev. Messrs. Warden and Day, in regard to a union of the Old and New-school Presbyterian Churches.

The Committee recommended that the overture be referred to the Special Committee appointed by this Assembly on that subject—which was done.

Overture No. 2, from the Presbytery of Platte, requesting that the General Assembly order a meeting of the Synod of Upper Missouri, in the church of Liberty, Clay county, Missouri, on the eighth day of October next, at seven o'clock P. M.

The Committee recommended that the request be granted, and that the Synod of Upper Missouri be directed to meet at the time and place named.

On motion, the overture was recommitted to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, for conference with the Commissioners from the Synod of Upper Missouri.

Overture No. 3, being a request from the church and congregation at Morrisville, Pennsylvania, to be detached from the Second Presbytery of Philadelphia, in the Synod of Philadelphia, and attached to the Presbytery of New Brunswick, in the Synod of New Jersey.

It appearing that all parties have been consulted, and are agreed, it is recommended that the request be granted.

The recommendation was adopted.

Dr. Humphrey, from the Judicial Committee, reported,

Judicial case No. 1, being a complaint of Dr. R. J. Breckinridge and others, against the action of the Synod of Kentucky, respecting the right of suffrage in the election of a pastor. The complaint was found to be in order, and ready for trial. The Committee recommended the following order of proceeding: 1. The reading of the papers from the Presbytery of Louisville and Synod of Kentucky; 2. The hearing of the complainants; 3. Hearing the members of the Synod of Kentucky; 4. The judgment of the Assembly.

The report was accepted and adopted, and it was made the second order of the day for this morning to proceed with the trial of the case.

Judicial Case No. 2, being an appeal of Mr. C. J. Abbott against the Synod of Missouri. Mr. Abbott, in a letter to a member of the General Assembly, states that he is prevented by sickness from attending and prosecuting his appeal, and asks for the reference of his case to the Assembly of 1864.

The Committee recommended that his request be granted.

The report was placed on the docket.

Judicial Case No. 4, being an appeal of Mr. John Turbitt against the Synod of Illinois, the Committee report that Mr. Turbitt, in a letter addressed to the Moderator of the Assembly, declines to prosecute his appeal, and they recommend that his appeal be dismissed.

The report was adopted.

The Committee on Correspondence reported, by Dr. Blackwood, its Chairman, the following nominations of delegates to represent this Assembly in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now in session in Philadelphia, viz. The Rev. Septimus Tustin, D. D., principal, and Rev. John Hall, D. D., alternate, and Ruling Elders George Sharswood, principal, and John M. Harper, alternate.

The Committee further suggested that the Permanent Clerk intimate to the Moderator of the Assembly in Philadelphia, the action of this body.

The report was adopted.

The Rev. R. A. De Lancey moved that the Permanent Clerk be directed to telegraph to the delegates just appointed by this Assembly, and inform them of their appointment. Carried.

The order of the day was taken up, and the Rev. J. M. Lowrie, D. D., Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Board of Church Extension, made a report as follows:

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension respectfully present the following report:

1. We recommend that the Assembly approve of the minutes of the Board as kept by the Secretary, and that the Report also be approved and published as usual.

2. We call attention to the fact that more than two-thirds of our churches are still entirely delinquent in contributing to the funds of this Board—that the small amounts given—less than ten churches reaching the sum of $100—indicate that the merits of the case are too little laid before our churches; and that the increased cost of building makes larger contributions more important than before. We recommend, therefore, that the Presbyteries be directed to inquire at their fall meetings what churches have taken the collection enjoined by the Assembly for July on behalf of the Board of Church Extension, and to urge a more general attention hereafter to the wants of this Board.

3. The Committee are gratified to learn that the Board of Church Extension, in view of the difficulties of the times, has made special efforts to conduct their work economically; and express the assurance that if the churches knew how carefully their contributions are applied to the purposes of the Board, and how needy are many of the recipients of their benefactions, this knowledge would result in a great increase of the Board's funds.

4. The Committee would further call attention to the efforts, so remarkably simultaneous, often so liberal, and so generally successful, which have lately been made all over the land for the payment of church debts; would express their gratitude to God for his special favour upon these efforts; would recognise that prayer has had a most special and delightful agency in leading to these results; and would express the hope that other churches labouring under such a disadvantage as a church debt, may be encouraged to endeavour to throw off the encumbrance. This would certainly tend to the comfort of all these churches, and prepare them to give more efficient aid to others in less favoured circumstances than themselves. At what less should the Presbyterian Church aim than a house of worship for every organized church in the land, and no house indebted to the community around it, for anything else but love.

The report was accepted.

On motion, the Rev. H. I. Coe, Secretary of the Board of Church Extension, was invited to address the Assembly, which he did.

The Rev. George P. Hays moved to adopt the report of the Committee, and that it be referred to the Board of Church Extension for publication in connection with its annual report.

Carried.

The Assembly took up the second order of the day, viz. Judicial Case No. 1. The Moderator read the call to the members of the Assembly to remember their high character as judges in a court of Jesus Christ.

The papers in the case were then read, after which the complainants were heard.

The Assembly then adjourned to three o'clock in the afternoon, after prayer by the Rev. E. P. Benedict.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Rev. L. L. Conrad.

On motion of Dr. Humphrey, the Committee on Foreign Correspondence was requested to nominate a delegate to attend the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, now in session at Alton, Illinois, it being understood that Dr. R. J. Breckinridge, the delegate last year appointed, cannot attend.

Whereupon Dr. Blackwood, from that Committee, nominated the Rev. John G. Bergen, D. D., and he was appointed by the Assembly's vote to attend the meeting of said body.

The Rev. R. Frame, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, made an additional report, as follows:

This Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the United States Christian Commission, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly highly approves of the work of charity and benevolence in which that institution is engaged, and recommend it to the patronage of our churches and people.

Resolved, 2. That it is recommended to our churches, in making contributions for the purchase of books and tracts for the benefit of our brave soldiers and sailors, that they forward the amount contributed to our Board of Publication, with the explicit request that the Board supply the Christian Commission with books and tracts for the benefit of the army and navy to the amount contributed for that purpose.

Resolved, 3. That a public meeting be held on Thursday evening next.

The unfinished business of the morning was taken up, viz., Judicial Case No. 1. The complainants were further heard. The Commissioners present from the Synod of Kentucky were then successively called, and were heard in defence of the action of the Synod.

On motion, the rule fixing the hour for the afternoon adjournment at 6 P. M. was temporarily suspended, and the Assembly proceeded to spend a half hour in devotional exercises, at the close of which it adjourned to Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

MONDAY MORNING, May 25.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the Rev. A. De Witt, of the Presbytery of New Castle, had presented his commission, and that his name had been enrolled.

The Rev. Dr. Beatty, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported back

Overture No. 2. After conference with members present from the Synod of Upper Missouri, the Committee renewed their former recommendation, that the request of the Presbytery of Platte be granted.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 4, being a memorial from the session and members of the Second Presbyterian church of Nashville, Tennessee, requesting to be transferred from the Presbytery of Nashville to the care of the Presbytery of Transylvania.

The Committee recommended that the request be granted—which was done.

Overture No. 5, being a request from the Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, that the General Assembly take measures to prevent in ordinary cases the licensure of candidates until the completion of the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly.

The Committee recommend, in view of the great importance of a thorough course of theological study, that the Presbyteries exercise great care and prudence in regard to the licensing of candidates, and that, in ordinary cases, this be postponed until the completion of the theological course, that their undivided attention may be given to the prosecution of their studies while in the Seminary. The recommendation was adopted.

Judicial case No. 1, was again taken up as unfinished business.

The Rev. J. P. McMillan was heard in further defence of the Synod of Kentucky. The complainants waived the privilege of a reply.

The Clerk began to call the roll of Assembly for the opinions of the members, when

The Moderator announced that the time had come for taking up the order of the day. It was moved to postpone the order, so as to finish the judicial case before the house.

The motion to postpone was laid upon the table.

The Rev. Dr. Humphrey, Chairman of the Judicial Committee, reported case No. 5, being a complaint of William B. Guild, against the Synod of New Jersey, and stated that the complainant requested the appointment of a member to take charge of his interests in the case. The Committee recommended the appointment of Rev. S. S. Sheddan, and he was appointed.

The Assembly then took up the order of the day; and the Rev. A. T. Rankin, Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Disabled Ministers' Fund, presented their report.

Rev. Joseph H. Jones, D. D., the Secretary for this cause, was invited to address the Assembly, which he did.

The resolutions were then voted on seriatim.

On the fourth resolution, Mr. George Junkin, Jr., moved as an amendment that the last part be so amended as to read, "with a requirement that it be read, or such parts of it as he may deem expedient, to his congregation." After discussion, he had, on motion, leave to withdraw the amendment, which was done.

On the third resolution, Mr. H. K. Clarke moved to strike out the last sentence, after the word "expenditures." The motion was lost, and the report and resolutions were severally adopted without amendment.

The whole paper was then adopted as follows:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly have heard, with deep interest, the Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Disabled Ministers in Need; and the Destitute Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers.

Resolved, 2. That they learn with great satisfaction the rapid progress of this good cause, as evinced in the increasing number and amount of the collections.

Resolved, 3. That in view of the success and favourable acceptance of the plan recommended by the Assembly of 1849, and sanctioned by several subsequent Assemblies, this Assembly reaffirm said action, and recommend that annual collections be solicited in all the churches for current expenditures; and also, that large donations and bequests be solicited, to form gradually a Permanent Fund, the interest of which shall be pledged in aid of the objects indicated.

Resolved, 4. That the report be appended to the Minutes of this Assembly, and be printed by the Board of Publication, a copy of which shall be sent to each pastor, with a request that it be read to his congregation.

Resolved, 5. That should the sums contributed by the churches in any year, exceed the sum needed to meet the demands upon it, the Trustees be authorized to invest such surplus as a part of the Permanent Fund, in such way as that it shall be safe and productive.

Resolved, 6. That the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered, to those generous friends of the cause, by whose liberality a large proportion of the expenses of this important agency is provided for.

The Assembly then adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. A. B. Gilliland.

MONDAY Afternoon, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. R. A. De Laney.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., had presented his credentials as a delegate from the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, to this Assembly, which had been found in order.

The Rev. R. A. De Lancey moved that the meeting of the next General Assembly be held in the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Boston, Massachusetts. Carried.

The Rev. Dr. Beatty, Chairman, presented the report of the Special Committee appointed by the last Assembly to examine the affairs of the Board of Publication. The report was read by the Rev. J. M. Lowrie, D. D., and accepted, and, on motion, was referred to the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication.

On motion, the thanks of the Assembly were returned to the Special Committee, for their labour and diligence in the report just presented.

The unfinished business of the morning, being Judicial Case No. 1, was taken up, and the calling of the roll was again proceeded with.

After spending a half hour in devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

TUESDAY Morning, May 26.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions, reported that ruling elder John G.

Barrett, of the Presbytery of Louisville, had presented his commission, and that his name had been enrolled.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that Rev. H. B. Burr had received leave for the remaining sessions.

Dr. Beatty, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 6, being the resolution of Dr. Loyal Young respecting the churches in West Virginia, connected with the Presbyteries of Greenbrier and Lexington, and any other churches in similar circumstances; which had been referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, by the General Assembly. The Committee report thereon the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That it be recommended that all the ministers in West Virginia, south of the southern line of Pennsylvania extended directly to the Ohio river, be detached from their respective Presbyteries, and formed into a new Presbytery, to be called the "Presbytery of West Virginia," to meet at Parkersburg on the first Tuesday of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M.; to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. H. W. Beggs, or in case of his absence, by the oldest minister present, who shall preside until a new Moderator shall be chosen, and that the Presbytery be attached to the Synod of Wheeling.

Resolved, 2. That any churches or ministers now belonging to other Presbyteries in those States now in insurrection against the Government of the United States, who desire, from loyal feelings and motives, to be detached from said Presbyteries, may apply to the most convenient Presbyteries adhering to this General Assembly, and be received by them, in virtue of this action.

The first resolution was adopted.

Dr. Nevin moved to substitute the word "rebellion" for "insurrection," in the second resolution.

Upon this motion, a discussion having arisen, the previous question was called for; and the call having been duly sustained, was decided by the adoption of the amendment of Dr. Nevin.

The entire report and resolutions of the Committee, as thus amended, were then adopted.

Overture No. 8, from the church of McCutchensville, of the Presbytery of Western Reserve, and Synod of Sandusky, asking to be reannexed to the Presbytery of Marion, and Synod of Ohio.

It was recommended that the request be not granted, inasmuch as the Presbytery of Western Reserve had not been consulted in regard to the matter.

The recommendation was adopted.

Mr. M. Newkirk, from the Committee on Finance, presented its report, which was accepted, and placed on the docket.

The Rev. James Rowland, from the Committee on Correspondence, recommended that it be made the third order of the day for this forenoon, to hear the Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., delegate from the United Presbyterian Church of North America.

The recommendation was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Wines, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Education, presented its report.

The report was accepted, and put upon the docket.

The Rev. William V. V. Mabon, D. D., delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, addressed the body, in the interchange of fraternal salutations, and was responded to by the Moderator.

The Rev. D. A. Wallace, D. D., delegate of the United Presbyterian Church, likewise addressed the Assembly, and was responded to by the Moderator.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Knox, the resolution of the General Synod of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, found in its Minutes for 1862, on page 140, suggesting the propriety of having correspondence between that church and this, carried on by letter, was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Assembly adjourned with prayer by Rev. Joseph Cory.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. James I. Brownson, D. D.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That when the Assembly adjourns this afternoon, it be to meet at 7½ o'clock this evening.

A communication was received from the Rev. A. L. Lindsley, Chairman of a Special Committee of the last Assembly, on the Home and Foreign Record, which was read, and referred to the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication.

Dr. Beatty presented the Report of the Committee on the Revised Book of Discipline, which was accepted, viz.

The Committee on the Revision of the Book of Discipline report, that they assembled according to the appointment of the Assembly, in the first Presbyterian church at Pittsburgh, on the 22d day of July, 1863—nine ministers and three ruling elders being present, and another (Judge Sharswood) having sent a written communication. That they continued in session for four days, reviewing carefully every article, and finally agreeing upon that which has been printed by the Board of Publication, and sent, according to the directions of the last Assembly, to all our ministers and vacant churches.

This Book is now submitted to the Assembly as their report, together with the amended Rules of Order for Judicatories.

The Assembly proceeded to consider the Revised Book by chapters and sections.

Mr. H. K. Clarke moved the following resolutions for guidance in the discussion:

Resolved, 1. That upon any motion to amend the phraseology of the Revision, no member shall speak more than three minutes.

Resolved, 2. That upon amendments affecting the principles of discipline, presented in the Revision, no member shall speak more than fifteen minutes, unless permission be granted by the Assembly.

Resolved, 3. That if any question arise, whether an amendment proposed affects any principle of the Revision, or only the phraseology, it shall be determined by a vote of the Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That all questions arising under these rules shall be taken without debate.

The resolutions were adopted.

The first, second, and third chapters of the Revised Book were adopted without amendment.

Chapter IV. was amended, on motion of Mr. H. K. Clarke, by inserting, in Section 9, after the words "judgment of the court," the words "the notice of appeal, and the reasons thereof, if any shall have been filed." And further, on motion of Dr. Humphrey, by substituting, in Section 11, for the words "communicating member of the church, subject to the jurisdiction of," the words "minister or ruling elder belonging to."

The chapter thus amended was adopted.

The Assembly spent a half hour in devotional exercises, and then adjourned until 7½ P. M.

TUESDAY Evening, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Rev. Richard Lea.

The unfinished business of the afternoon was taken up.

Chapter V., Section 2, of the Revised Book of Discipline was amended, by striking out the words "complaint preferred," and inserting instead the words "charges brought."

The chapter, thus amended, was adopted.

Chapter VI. was adopted without amendment.

It was moved to amend Chapter VII. by striking out the entire third section.

Pending the discussion upon that motion, the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. James Rowland.

WEDNESDAY Morning, May 27.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The Rev. J. Wood, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that leave had been given to ruling elder James C. Jordan, of the Presbytery of Donegal, from the remaining sessions of the body.

On motion, it was made the second order of the day for to-morrow morning, to hear the report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries.

Dr. Beatty, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 7, and the report was placed on the docket.

Also Overture No. 9, being petitions from the churches of Evans' Creek and Linton, in the Presbytery of Zanesville, to be transferred to the Presbytery of Steubenville, in the Synod of Wheeling.

The Committee recommended that no further changes be made in the dividing line between the Synods of Ohio and Wheeling, except to declare that the township of Perry belongs to the Presbytery of Steubenville, and that the churches of Evans' Creek and Linton be considered under the care of the Presbytery of Steubenville until further order be given by the Assembly.

The recommendation was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Humphrey, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Case No. 7, being the complaint of George P. Strong and others against the Presbytery of St. Louis.

The Committee reported that the complaint was not put into the hands of the Clerk of the Assembly until the third day of its business. It is, therefore, barred by the rule, and the Committee recommend that it be dismissed.

The recommendation was adopted.

Also Case No. 10, being the complaint of Rev. D. Owen Davis against the Synod of Cincinnati.

The Committee report that there is no evidence, either in the record before them, or from any other accessible source of information, that the complainant has given any previous notice of his complaint, to the Synod.

Indeed the complaint itself bears date May 19, 1863, several months subsequent to the adjournment of the Synod. For this reason the Committee recommend that the complaint be dismissed.

The recommendation was adopted.

Also Case No. 12, being a complaint of Dr. Alfred Nevin against the Synod of Philadelphia.

The Committee report that the complaint did not come into the hands of the Moderator of this Assembly until Monday, the fourth day of its sessions. It is therefore barred by the rule, and the Committee recommend that it be dismissed.

The recommendation was adopted.

Also, Case No. 11, which, on motion, was placed on the docket, and made the third order of the day for Friday next.

A report, signed by E. B. Miller, was presented from the special Committee of a former Assembly, on Church Corporations, which was read and placed upon the docket.

The order of the day was taken up, and Rev. Dr. McFarren, Chairman of the Standing Committee on the Board of Domestic Missions, presented its report, which was accepted.

On motion, the Rev. T. L. Janeway, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Domestic Missions, addressed the body.

After discussion, the report was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee, to which was referred the Annual Report of the Board of Domestic Missions, present the following report.

A careful examination of the document put into our hands and an attempt to survey the field which this Board is called to cultivate, and the probabilities of a speedy enlargement of that field, have forced upon us the conviction, that the magnitude and importance of the domestic missionary work are not appreciated. The present destitutions of the West and Northwest alone, are more than sufficient to absorb all the means that have in past years been placed at the disposal of the Board. But from the tide of immigration from Europe, which seems now to be setting into our country, the call for missionary labour in those extended regions, is likely to be greatly increased. We ought not to forget, that among the foreigners who have settled, and are settling in the great West, there are many who know little of the gospel, and are, therefore, easily carried away with the bold infidelity and iniquity which prevails there; whilst on the other hand, there are many from northern Europe, Germans, Norwegians, Swedes, and Welsh, whose early training in the doctrines of the Reformation brings them into sympathy with the Presbyterian Church, and gives us a power to influence them which sister churches in this land do not possess. The vast agricultural and mineral resources of this great valley assure us that it will, at no distant day, contain a population which must exert a mighty influence over the destinies of this whole nation. In view of all these things, how important is it that the seed of the word should be sown broadcast over this whole region, and churches planted not only in the principal towns and cities, but in every village, and hamlet, and neighbourhood.

But if we turn our eyes to the south, we behold not only destitutions, as in former years, but desolations that are appalling. Hundreds of congregations there, which were once self-sustaining, have been weakened and scattered by the war, and are likely to need the fostering care of this Board for a season, to save them from utter extinction. If, as we hope and trust, it is the will of God to uphold our free government in its effort to defend the national life and unity, and restore peace, those weakened and scattered churches will have claims upon us from which we cannot turn away without incurring the displeasure of the great Head of the church.

In such a state of things, and with such prospects before us, what have we done for the cause of Domestic Missions during the past year? The whole church represented in this Assembly has contributed a little over $71,000. Many, very many churches, have contributed nothing to this cause, and others but a mere pittance, as appears from the Report now before us. Surely these things ought not so to be. Surely we are called to awake and enter upon this work in another spirit. God has mercifully preserved much the greater part of our country represented in this Assembly from all the horrors of this war, save only the drain of our self-sacrificing young men to the army, and the loss of life there. The pecuniary burdens of the war are little felt, and a good degree of prosperity enjoyed. And if it be his holy will to crown with success the efforts of our government to enforce obedience to the laws in every part of our widely extended country, liberal thank-offerings will certainly be required of us to repair the moral desolations occasioned by the rebellion.

With these convictions, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Report of the Board be approved and published.

Resolved, 2. That this Assembly feel themselves called upon to give thanks to God for having put it into the hearts of his people to furnish the Board with the means of liquidating the debt incurred in former years, which amounted, at the commencement of the year which has now closed, to something like five thousand dollars, retaining in the treasury a balance with which to commence the operations of the current year.

Resolved, 3. That it would have been still more satisfactory, if this result could have been achieved by increased contributions from the churches, instead of continuing the reduction of the scanty allowance to missionaries, and avoiding new fields. We regret to learn from this Report, that instead of an increase, there was a considerable falling off in the amount received from the churches, as compared with the year preceding. The Board acted wisely, we have no doubt, in making the liquidation of the debt an object of primary concern; but we can find no apology for the churches withholding, in a year of so much pecuniary prosperity, the means which were needed for the vigorous prosecution and extension of the work.

Resolved, 4. That it be enjoined on all our Presbyteries to take action on this subject, and labour to bring up all their churches to contribute liberally once every year to this work of faith and labour of love.

Resolved, 5. That it be, and hereby is enjoined on the Presbyteries, to investigate with great care the necessities of churches applying for aid, and to refuse to recommend to the Board any but the really necessitous. Let a careful watch be preserved also over those that are receiving aid, and every effort made to induce them to aim at self-sustentation. And we recommend to Presbyteries, in all cases where churches receiving aid appear to be making no progress in that direction, to send a committee to inquire into their circumstances, and ascertain, if possible, why they are not advancing.

Resolved, 6. That the Assembly once more urgently request the missionaries of the Board to be prompt in transmitting their annual reports to the Secretary, as required, that the Report of the Board to the Assembly may show the full results of the year's labour. Also, that they give a new and earnest attention to the duty of supplying full and particular statements and narratives as to the condition, wants, trials, and encouragements of their several missionary fields, for publication in the Home and Foreign Record.

This Committee further report, that the records of the Board, and those of the Executive Committee, have been put into our hands. From the very limited examination which our time would permit, we believe them to have been carefully kept, and find in them nothing objectionable.

All which is respectfully submitted.

The Assembly passed to the second order of the day, and nominations were received to fill vacancies in the several Boards.

Nominations for the Theological Seminaries were postponed until to-morrow.

The Assembly adjourned to 3 P. M., after prayer by the Rev. H. M. Giltner.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. R. C. Galbraith.

Ruling elder T. H. Nevin moved that a committee of three be appointed to cause the national flag to be raised over the church edifice in which the Assembly is met.

On a motion to lay this motion on the table, the ayes and noes were called, and the call was duly sustained. The following was the result:

AYES.—Ministers—R. A. De Lancey, J. H. Bates, J. Wood, J. Cleland, A. R. Macoubrey, J. Lillie, E. E. Rankin, J. P. Knox, S. S. Sheddan, R. S. Manning, D. Cook, L. C. Baker, F. Chandler, A. W. Non liquet—G. S. Plumley. 1.

So the motion to lay upon the table was lost.

The Rev. R. A. De Lancey moved to refer the motion of Mr. Nevin to the Trustees of the church, to do as they please.

Dr. J. M. Lowrie moved that this whole subject be referred to a committee of seven, to report thereon to the Assembly.

The previous question was called for, and the call having been duly sustained, was put, and the resolution of Dr. Lowrie was carried.

It was then moved and carried, that when the Assembly adjourn this afternoon, it be to half-past seven o'clock this evening.

The unfinished business of last evening, viz., the consideration of the Revised Book of Discipline, was then taken up. The motion before the body was to strike out the 3d section of Chapter VII.

Pending this motion, the Assembly adjourned, after spending a half hour in prayer, until half-past seven o'clock P. M.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. S. M. Bayless.

The Moderator announced as the Committee of Reference, raised by Dr. Lowrie's resolution of this afternoon, Drs. J. M. Lowrie, E. P. Humphrey, Loyal Young, and J. I. Brownson; and Messrs. H. H. Leavitt, H. K. Clarke, and R. Carter.

The Rev. Dr. Blackwood, from the Committee of Correspondence, reported as follows:

The Committee on Correspondence with Foreign Bodies, have examined and maturely considered the minute referred to them, on page 140 of the Records of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, on the mode of maintaining intercourse with other churches. They have heard the explanations made in this Assembly by the delegate, touching that minute; and they have had a frank and cordial interview with the delegate, who has satisfied the Committee that no desire exists in the General Synod to relax the bonds of amity which have so happily united these churches, or to suspend the fraternal and profitable fellowship which has subsisted between the General Synod and the Assembly for so many years; and that even in the mode of perpetuating that intercourse, no desire exists to introduce any change, so far as this Assembly is concerned. The Committee therefore recommend that this Assembly shall inaugurate no change, but leave the appointment of our delegate, already made, as it now stands. And should any desire be expressed to this Assembly, at a future time, by the General Synod, to alter the mode or extent of our correspondence, then such propositions as the Synod may submit, should receive the kind and deliberate attention of this Assembly.

The Committee further suggest, that our delegate be instructed to intimate to the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church the views of the Assembly on this subject.

The report was adopted.

The Assembly again took up the unfinished business of the afternoon, viz., the consideration of the Revised Book of Discipline. The motion being to strike out the 3d Section of Chapter VII.

Dr. J. I. Brownson moved the following as an amendment to the motion to strike out, viz. That Section 3d be amended as follows: 1. That after the word "may" the following clause be inserted, viz., "should his attendance upon the other means of grace be regular," and, 2d, that all after the word "abstain" be stricken out, and that the following be substituted, viz., "for such a length of time as may, in their discretion, be proper."

This amendment was carried.

The motion to strike out Section 3d was lost.

Mr. H. K. Clarke moved to strike out from Section 2d the word "communicating," the words "the church subject to the jurisdiction of," and also the words "with the appellant." Carried.

Chapter VII., as thus amended, was adopted.

Chapter VIII , Section 1, was adopted without amendment.

Mr. W. T. Wood moved a substitute for Section 2d of that chapter, pending which Ruling elder M. P. Rue, from the Presbytery of Monmouth, presented his commission, and was enrolled.

The Assembly, after prayer by Rev. Geo. P. Hays, adjourned to 9 A. M. to-morrow.

THURSDAY Morning, May 28.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read, corrected, and approved.

Dr. Goodale moved that the whole subject of our relation to the government and country be referred to the Committee of seven, of which Dr. J. M. Lowrie is Chairman. Carried.

On motion of Dr. Humphrey, it was made the first order of the day for the afternoon to receive reports from Committees.

On motion, members who were absent yesterday when the ayes and noes were called, had leave to record their votes.

The following were recorded: Rev. A. D. White, Aye. Rev. J. C. Thompson and ruling elders J. C. Walker, J. Stuart, and R. N. Brown, No.

Dr. Nevin, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, reported as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, submit the following:

The Committee have found, from the Report, that the past year has been one of more than ordinary solicitude. The interests of the missionary cause have seemed to be in much more than ordinary peril. The war waged by the country for its existence, has engrossed public attention to a large extent, absorbing means, in its progress, which in most years would have been devoted to missionary purposes, and turning the minds of men away from the case of those who are perishing for lack of vision. In no former year was the need of the help of God and the coöperation and sympathy of the church more deeply felt. On the whole, the progress of the work, at home and abroad, has been encouraging.

At home, the fact that the mission treasury is free from debt, at the end of such a year, is one which will call forth many warm thanksgivings. This result has, indeed, been partly reached by restricting the missionary work in certain respects, but not in its general outline, nor in its main force; so that the case, as it is reported, bears witness to the faith, self-denial, and liberal devising of very many members of our communion, alike of the rich and the poor. The receipts from all sources have been $188,000, the expenditures $187,000. After paying off a small balance from last year, there remains in the treasury the sum of $336. The grace of God granted to his people is signally shown by this gratifying statement,—it is a statement which will call forth their thanksgivings and praise.

The special embarrassment of the year, in these financial matters, was the unprecedented rise in the foreign exchange of the country. The Report dwells briefly on this subject. Should the present high rate continue, a large expense will still have to be incurred on this account, on bills already sent out. After looking at the subject in every light, the Executive Committee state that they have felt constrained to follow the usage of preceding years, as to the transmission of funds for the support of missions. And now it only remains for them to look to God in faith and prayer, and to his people in hope, that as in times past, so in the time to come, this cause shall receive needful pecuniary support. It is no new thing for the walls of Zion to be built in troublous times.

The Report mentions the appointment of eight approved men as missionaries, to be sent forth when the funds of the Board permit; and it gives the names of four ministers of the gospel—three of them married men—and of three teachers, who were sent out during the year to different missions.

As to the work abroad, the Report gives particular information concerning the missions among the Chippewa, Iowa, and Omaha Indians, the Chinese in California, in Japan, China, Siam, India, Western Africa, Brazil, New Granada, and some of the Roman Catholic countries of Europe, and to the Jews of New York city. It makes full and satisfactory statements relative to the labours in these widely extended fields of sixty-seven ministers of the gospel, without including the number aided in Europe, of sixteen male and seventy-one female assistant missionaries from this country, and of ninety-seven native assistant labourers, mostly connected with missions in Africa, India, and China. The churches connected with these missions are not large, but they have nearly all enjoyed encouraging proofs of the presence of the Holy Spirit. The number of scholars under instruction in the mission-schools is about five thousand. The issues of the printing presses in India and China were larger than usual. The translation of the New Testament into Pushto, the language of the Afghans, and the completion of the Chinese translation of the whole Bible, are among the noteworthy events of the year. The latter was the last work of the devoted and lamented Dr. Culbertson. Besides his removal by death, the church was called to mourn over the death of Dr. Campbell of India, Mr. Gayley of China, and Mr. Clemens of Africa—all faithful servants in the vineyard of the Lord.

The Report also shows many reasons of thanksgiving and encouragement.

So far as the work itself is concerned, there is seen little cause of discouragement, and many reasons of hope, especially in the faith that the Saviour is on his mediatorial throne, having all power in heaven and in earth, and wielding this power for the destruction of the great adversary, and of everything that exalteth itself against God, and for the establishment of his kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

These reasons of encouragement all point to greater progress. The report closes with an expression of conviction that the work of missions should be greatly enlarged. More men for Africa, more for South America, more for India, more for Siam, more for China, more for Japan, many more for such of these nations as are crowded with people, numbered by scores and even hundreds of millions, but which have only a few scores of ministers of the gospel, should be pleaded for at the throne of grace; and especially more labourers to be raised up in the different missionary fields. The means of supporting an increased number of labourers, it is believed, would be provided, if our Christian people could reach a higher standard of consecration, if all would send forward their gifts as do some of their brethren, if the claims of our perishing world were affectionately pressed on each follower of Christ—one by one.

Your committee are very happy to state that the Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, as far as it relates to the operations of the Board, has given them entire satisfaction, with the single exception, that the Board has not been able to enlarge these operations, by reason of embarrassments upon its financial interests, growing out of the distracted condition of the country and the high rates of exchange. Toward this exception the Committee feel that the prompt and liberal efforts of God's people should be directed. It has occurred to them as one of several methods which might, with great hope of success, be adopted for meeting the pecuniary needs of the Board, that the children of our Sabbath-schools be called upon to contribute each at least one cent every Sabbath for this purpose. The number of children in such schools, according to the report in the minutes of the Assembly of 1862, is 149,000, representing, say, 50,000 families. If all these would make the small contribution already mentioned, a very large amount would be realized for sustaining the Board in these times of special need. It is most earnestly hoped by your Committee that the churches under the care of the Assembly, will receive kindly, and carry out faithfully, this suggestion. The power of littles is much greater than is generally felt, and this power should, in the way designated, be brought to bear in favour of the great and glorious interest of Foreign Missions. One vast advantage of pursuing this method, will be the kindling of a missionary zeal in the rising generation of our church.

The Committee would recommend, that in view of the high rates of exchange, all our congregations will, if practicable, increase their contributions to the Board, to the extent of 25 to 40 per cent. above last years' contributions. They would also recommend that the Foreign Missionary, 29,000 copies of which last year reached 10,000 families, have a largely increased circulation. The prophet had his interest for the dry bones increased by moving among and looking at them, and the zeal of our people would be augmented for the salvation of the heathen, if they but made themselves more acquainted with their condition.

The Committee offer no resolutions approving of the Board, for the simple reason that it needs none, but they do most heartily commend it to the prayers and liberality of all who desire the world's conversion.

The report was accepted.

Rev. John C. Lowrie, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, on motion, addressed the body.

The report was then adopted.

On motion of Mr. A. B. Conger, it was Resolved, That, relying for support in this our solemn declaration, upon the Great Head of the Church, we hereby call upon our Board of Foreign Missions to go forward; and we hereby pledge ourselves to urge immediate action on this matter upon our respective Presbyteries, and to renew our efforts in bringing our churches to a more efficient coöperation in this noble work.

The resolution was adopted unanimously, by rising, and the vote was accompanied by prayer from Rev. John Fleming, at the request of the Moderator.

Dr. Goodale offered the following:

Resolved, That our pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents be urged to endeavour to secure from all our Sabbath-schools a contribution equal to at least one cent per week for each scholar, for this Board. Carried.

The Committee on Correspondence reported that the Rev. R. W. Patterson, D. D., and the Hon. Wm. H. Brown, ruling elder, delegates to this Assembly from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now holding its sessions in the city of Philadelphia, are present, and recommend that it be the third order of the day for this afternoon to hear them.

Dr. Humphrey moved as an amendment that it be the order to hear them at 4½ o'clock this afternoon. The amendment was adopted.

The report, as amended, was adopted.

It was moved that when the Assembly adjourns each afternoon, it be to 8½ o'clock the next morning. Carried.

Also, that when the Assembly adjourns each noon, it be to 2½ o'clock. Carried.

It was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Benevolence.

After prayer by Rev. Wm. Speer, the Assembly adjourned until 2½ o'clock, P. M.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. P. McMillan.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported—and the report was approved as follows:

They have given leave to the following named persons: Rev. C. McCain, ruling elders C. L. Rynearson, John C. Brown, William P. Williams, C. Shepherd, Johnson Harvey, and Matthew Newkirk, from and after Saturday morning; to Rev. T. M. Oviatt, after the sessions of this afternoon, and to ruling elder W. W. Pinneo until Saturday evening.

Dr. McFarren, by leave of the Assembly, nominated for the Board of Domestic Missions, the Rev. Thomas S. Childs, of Hartford, Conn., in place of Rev. A. G. Vermilye, D. D., of the class of 1864, he having gone to another denomination.

Dr. Condit, from the Committee on Theological Seminaries, reported as follows:

The Committee on Theological Seminaries had placed in their hands the Annual Reports of the Directors and Trustees of the Seminary at Princeton, New Jersey, of the Western Seminary at Allegheny, Pennsylvania, of the Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, and of the North-West Seminary at Chicago, Illinois. And having carefully examined them, submit the following as their report:

1. In relation to the Seminary at Princeton, it appears that since the date of the last annual report, there have been received 76 new students, and that the whole number connected with the Seminary have been 181. That the students, in the enjoyment of general good health, have been diligent in their studies—their devotional exercises, with few exceptions, attended with becoming interest—more than ordinary willingness to engage in Foreign Missions manifested, four, at least, of the Senior Class having offered themselves for this service, and a large number in the other classes. That at the close of the session the students were examined by a Committee of the Board for five successive days, who reported great satisfaction at the result, and to 38 of the Senior Class were given certificates of having finished their entire course of three years.

It further appears that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the session of this Assembly, viz.

Ministers—John McDowell, D. D., John Maclean, D. D., George Potts, D. D., John N. Campbell, D. D., John M. Dickey, D. D., G. W. McPhail, D. D., N. L. Riee, D. D. Ruling Elders—Thomas W. Smith, Ebenezer Platt, Ira C. Whitehead.

The Trustees of the Seminary report, as to its financial department, that the year closed with a balance in favour of the Seminary of about $10,000. And also, that since their last report two of their members had been removed by death—the Rev. Dr. McDowell, one of their original members, and for a long time their faithful Secretary, and James S. Green, Esq., their Treasurer, from the organization of the Board; and that at a special meeting in December they elected George T. Olmstead their Treasurer.

2. In reference to the Western Theological Seminary, it appears, from the annual reports submitted to the Committee, that 134 students have been enrolled during the year; that of these 20 have completed the regular course of study, and 11 have entered temporarily the army of the United States, in the expectation, if God permit, of resuming their studies at the expiration of their term of service; that 44 students have, during the year, been admitted to the Seminary, and the number in actual attendance 116. That a spirit of piety and Christian devotion has prevailed among the students, and numbers from the different classes contemplate entering the foreign field.

The Board of Directors also report that an arrangement has been made by which the services of the Rev. Charles C. Beatty, D. D., have been secured as Lecturer Extraordinary in Practical Theology. That at the opening of the term, the Rev. W. S. Plumer, D. D., resigned the chair of Didactic and Pastoral Theology; and that the studies of the department have been conducted under the direction of the other Professors. The Board ask the Assembly to fill the Professorship now vacant, and also the privilege that, in conference with the Faculty, they may make such an arrangement of the studies among the several Professorships as to them shall seem desirable.

It appears from the report that the term of office of the following members of the Board will expire during the sessions of the present Assembly:

Ministers—Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., Samuel McFarren, D. D., John Robinson, Joel Stoneroad, George Hill, James I. Brownson, Robert Hays. Ruling Elders—James Schoonmaker, Hon. Robert McKnight, Thomas McKennon, M. D.

The Trustees of this Seminary report that the sum of $22,435.00 has been raised, by which the endowment of four Professorships has been completed, and the entire indebtedness of the Seminary liquidated. That the library has been increased by donations, and particularly by the gift of three hundred volumes from the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., of a theological character, in addition to 464 volumes of valuable works previously donated.

3. In reference to the Seminary at Danville, the Directors report, that the war troubles had diminished the number of students, only eight being in attendance during the last session, of whom six had been received since the last report. That the application and deportment of the students had been highly satisfactory. That Dr. Stanton, elected to the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, entered upon his duties at the commencement of the recent session; but that, owing to the disturbed state of the country, he was not inaugurated until the 2d day of May, 1863, at Paris, in the presence of the Synod of Kentucky.

The Committee are happy to find that the arrangements of the Faculty as to Dr. Stanton's inauguration, and also as to the manner in which they arranged for the accommodation of the students, under the embarrassments felt, were approved by the Directors.

They are gratified also in the assurance given, that if a quiet state of things continues in that vicinity, the exercises of the Seminary will be attended with regularity, and the students furnished with all desirable accommodations and facilities for prosecuting their studies to advantage.

From the Report of the Trustees, it appears that the Professors have been paid their salaries in full, according to the fixed plan of the Seminary. That since the last Report, the library has been increased by the addition of quite a number of valuable works. The list of donations in the way of books, will be found in the Annual Report, as printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

It appears also from the Report, that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the sessions of this Assembly:

Ministers—J. S. Hays, R. C. Grundy, Lewis W. Green, B. M. Hobson, James H. Brooks, R. A. Lapsley, J. Montgomery, R. B McMullen, Thos. A. Hoyt. Ruling Elders—William Richardson, J. S. Hopkins, John Watson, Ormond Beatty, William Prather, Glass Marshall, James Barbour, W. P. Boyd, W. O. N. Perkins.

4. Seminary of the North-West, at Chicago, Illinois. As a brief summary of its Fourth Annual Report, the Committee present the following, viz.

Since the last Report, six new students have been received. Several connected with the Seminary have entered the army. Still there have been in its connection, during the entire term, twelve students. Of these, six have completed the prescribed course of study, and received their diplomas. To the proficiency of the students, in their several departments of study, the Examining Committee bear testimony, in their Report to the Board.

The Board of Directors bear testimony to the untiring labours of the two Professors, representing that they have been enabled to discharge the double duty devolving on them with greater care, and, if possible, with greater acceptance and advantage to the students, than during the preceding year.

The Trustees report the death of the Rev. J. C. Brown, their President, and for a time an Agent of the Seminary. They speak of him as having been an earnest Christian, a faithful and successful preacher, and of his exposure in the service of his country as regimental chaplain, as the immediate occasion of his death.

The Rev. F. N. Ewing, Agent of the Seminary, has succeeded, during the last three or four months, in securing fifteen thousand dollars and eighty acres of land, from friends, mostly in the city of New York, expressly for the purpose of providing a house for the use of the Seminary.

Twenty-five acres of land, in the city of Chicago, have been donated by different persons, named in the Report, on condition of improvements being put on it during the year, to the amount of fifteen thousand dollars. The Building Committee are preparing to comply with this condition of the donors, in putting up a building forty-two by seventy feet, which will accommodate about forty students.

One thousand acres of land in Iowa have been donated by the Rev. R. H. Lilly, of Illinois; and the understanding is, that the Trustees shall hold this land until it can be sold for a sum sufficient to found two scholarships, to bear the name of the generous donor.

To the Library of this Seminary, valuable accessions have been made—in all about three thousand five hundred volumes.

The Board of Directors ask the Assembly to fill the vacant chair of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

The term of office of the following members of the Board expires during the sessions of this Assembly, viz.

Ministers—Joshua Phelps, D. D., R. G. Thompson, W. W. Harsha, H. W. Robertson, R. C. Matthews. Ruling Elders—A. P. Waterman, T. H. Bebee, W. C. Thompson, W. G. Holmes, James M. Ray.

The Committee would present, for the consideration and adoption of the Assembly, the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Annual Reports of the several Seminaries be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly is gratified to learn that the endowment of the Western Seminary is completed, and the Institution relieved from all indebtedness.

Resolved, 3. That the Directors and Faculty of the Western Seminary have the privilege of making an arrangement of the studies in the several departments, which arrangement, if intended to be permanent, shall be submitted in their report to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 4. That the Assembly will proceed, at this meeting, to elect a Professor to fill the vacant chair of Didactic and Pastoral Theology in the Western Theological Seminary; and also a Professor to fill the chair of Biblical Literature and Exegesis in the Seminary of the North-West.

The report was accepted and adopted.

Dr. Beatty moved, that Monday next at 11 o'clock, A. M., be fixed upon as the time for electing Professors to fill the vacant Professorships in the Western and North-Western Seminaries. Carried.

Dr. Beatty moved that the Assembly now receive nominations for Professors in these Seminaries. Carried.

Dr. Beatty nominated Rev. Lyman H. Atwater, D. D., of Princeton, N. J., and Rev. E. P. Shields nominated Rev. E. D. MacMaster, D. D., for the vacant Professorship in the Western Seminary.

Judge Leavitt nominated Charles Elliott, D. D., of Oxford, Ohio, and Dr. Nevin nominated William Blackwood, D. D., of Philadelphia, for the vacant Professorship of Biblical Literature and Exegesis in the Seminary of the North-West.

At the request of the Moderator, the Rev. Dr. Brownson led the Assembly in prayer for divine guidance in these elections.

Nominations were called for and made, to fill vacancies in the Boards of Directors of the several Theological Seminaries.

Dr. Beatty moved the following:

Resolved, That the Assembly recommend the case of the Second Church of Nashville to the Board of Domestic Missions, for its favourable action to aid that church, for the present, to an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars a year. Carried.

Dr. Humphrey, from the Judicial Committee, reported

Judicial Case No. 5, being the complaint of Mr. William B. Guild against the Synod of New Jersey.

The case is in order, and ready for trial. The Committee, with the consent of the parties, recommend the following as the final judgment in the case:

The complaint is sustained pro forma; but under existing circumstances in the congregation, Mr. Guild shall cease to act as ruling elder in the Third Church at Newark, New Jersey.

The report was accepted and adopted.

Judicial Case No. 8. The Committee reported as follows:

Judicial Case No. 8 is the appeal of Mr. M. Hummer against the Presbytery of Highland.

The last General Assembly passed the following order:

"Overture No. 19, being a memorial of the Rev. George D. Stewart and others, that the General Assembly would take action, and give relief in the case of Rev. Michael Hummer, who, having been deposed by the Presbytery of Iowa, had been restored by the Presbytery of Highland, against the remonstrance of the Presbytery of Iowa, just as if he was an independent minister.

"It is recommended that this General Assembly declare that it is irregular and unconstitutional for any Presbytery to receive and restore a member of another Presbytery, who has been deposed; and therefore the action of the Presbytery of Highland, in restoring Mr. Hummer, was improper; and the Presbytery of Highland is directed to reconsider its action, and proceed according to the requirements of the constitution.

"The report was adopted."

The Presbytery of Highland adopted the following minute:

Whereas, We believe that our action in the reception of brother Hummer was unconstitutional; and whereas, we have no choice, in view of the direct injunction of the General Assembly; therefore

Resolved, That we now do proceed to reconsider the action of this Presbytery, by which Mr. Hummer was received into this body.

Resolved, That this action of Presbytery be understood as putting the case into the position it occupied previous to his reception.

Resolved, That Presbytery earnestly advise Mr. Hummer to appeal once more to the Presbytery of Iowa to take up his case, in order that, in the event of their refusal to do him justice, he may appeal to the Synod, and thence, if necessary, to the General Assembly—which resolution was adopted.

Against this proceeding Mr. Hummer appeals.

But it appears that the Presbytery of Highland did nothing more than they were required to do by the General Assembly; that is to say, they reconsidered and set aside the action which the Assembly had declared "irregular," "unconstitutional," and "improper." In the judgment of the Committee, an appeal does not lie in such a case, and they recommend that it be dismissed, and Mr. Hummer have leave to withdraw his papers.

The report was accepted and adopted, and the case dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 3, being the appeal and complaint of Smiley Shepherd against the Synod of Illinois. The report was as follows:

The following facts are stated in the records of the Presbytery of Bloomington, and are not denied by the complainant. The Second Church of Union Grove, in October 1859, had, for about twenty years, neither meeting-house, pastor, nor stated supply, nor had it submitted, through the whole of that period, until 1859, either statistical reports or sessional records. It had worshipped regularly with the First Church of Union Grove. In fact, in 1859 it consisted of the complainant and his family alone; but the complainant claimed and exercised the right, as ruling elder, to receive members to his church, and to sit and vote in Presbytery and Synod. For about fifteen years the Presbytery had considered the church as without even a nominal existence, having, in 1841, dropped it from the roll; and it was not restored to the roll till 1856, and then only with a view of having it regularly united with the First Church of Union Grove. On the 11th of October, 1859, Presbytery dissolved the said Second Church, and directed the Stated Clerk to furnish its members with the usual certificates to some other Presbyterian church.

Against this proceeding, Mr. Shepherd appealed, and complained to the Synod of Illinois; but his complaint was not sustained. He now appeals and complains to the General Assembly.

He does not deny the facts as stated by the Presbytery, but alleges that both Presbytery and Synod were guilty of certain gross irregularities, and an arbitrary use of power in the proceeding. But the papers do not contain evidence sustaining these allegations. There is no testimony of any kind filed with these papers. It is impossible for the Assembly to determine from the record whether the power of the Presbytery was discreetly exercised. The Committee therefore recommend that the appeal and complaint be dismissed.

The report was adopted, and the appeal and complaint dismissed.

Judicial Case No. 6, being an appeal of James W. Hamilton against the Synod of Sandusky. The report was accepted.

The hour of 4½ P. M. having arrived, the Rev. Robert W. Patterson, D. D., and ruling elder William H. Brown, delegates from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church now sitting in the city of Philadelphia, addressed the Assembly in the interchange of fraternal salutations, and were responded to by the Moderator.

Judicial Case No. 6 was again taken up.

Dr. F. T. Brown moved that the case be recommitted. The motion was lost.

The report of the Judicial Committee on the case was then adopted as follows:

The Committee in this case report the papers in order and ready for trial. But the Committee find certain serious irregularities in all the proceedings of the inferior courts subsequent to the twenty-fifth day of August, 1861, when the appellant was censured by a public admonition. Of this admonition he does not complain. The irregularity of the subsequent proceedings is set forth in a paper, prepared by the Judicial Committee, and made a part of this report. And on the ground of that irregularity, without prejudging the case on its merits, the Committee recommend that the appeal be sustained, and the proceedings of all the inferior courts, from the twenty-fifth of August, 1861, be set aside.

Judicial Case No. 9, being an appeal of the Rev. John Crozier against the Synod of Illinois. The Committee report that they find the case in order, and the papers all regularly filed, and ready for trial, and they recommend that the case be heard according to the order prescribed in the Book of Discipline, Section 3, Subsection 8.

The report was accepted and put upon the docket.

On motion, Mr. S. G. Malone was appointed, at the request of Mr. John B. Saye, to attend to his interests in this case.

Dr. Condit moved that the report from the Special Committee on the Memorial from the Presbytery of Chippewa, &c., be made the fourth order for to-morrow afternoon. Carried.

On motion, the report of the Finance Committee was taken from the docket. The first resolution was adopted.

Pending the second resolution,

The Rev. G. S. Mott moved, as a substitute, that the Treasurer of the Assembly make out the amount necessary to defray the contingent expenses of the Assembly and copies of the Minutes, and that the same be assessed upon the Presbyteries, pro rata, according to their number of communicants.

The Assembly spent a half hour in devotional exercises, and then adjourned to 8½ o'clock to-morrow morning.

FRIDAY Morning, May 29.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. Blackwood.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Committee on Commissions reported that the Rev. W. F. Baird had presented his credentials as a delegate from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and that his name had been enrolled.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to the following named persons, viz., ruling elders Aaron Hall, James Patterson, J. W. Page, Thomas Kiddoo, John M. Hood, and A. P. Waterman. After this evening—Rev. H. C. Reed. From and after Monday morning—Rev O. M. Todd, and ruling elder John Clark.

The report was approved.

The Rev. G. S. Plumley introduced a paper in reference to a week of prayer, which, on motion, was ordered to be introduced into the devotional exercises.

Dr. Beatty, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 11, being a request from several individuals to change the name of the Presbytery of Toledo to that of Vinton. The Committee recommended that this subject be referred to the Synod of Iowa.

The recommendation was adopted.

Overture No. 12, from the Central Presbytery of Philadelphia, asking the Assembly to decide whether, in no case of sickness or of conversion, however peculiar, the session of a church is not at liberty to administer the Lord's Supper in a private house.

The Committee recommend the following minute:

The standards of our church are clear in their teaching, that the Lord's Supper is not to be received by any one alone, yet, in cases of protracted sickness or approaching death, when the desire is very strongly urged by a member of the church, to enjoy the administration of the Lord's Supper, a pastor, having duly admonished the applicant that such ordinance, however a source of spiritual comfort, is not, in such cases, an imperative duty, or indispensable to salvation, may, with a member of his session, and such communicants as may appropriately be permitted to partake in such solemnity, proceed to administer this sacrament—a minute of every such act to be entered on the records of session.

The recommendation was adopted.

The Rev. J. F. Jennison moved the following:

Whereas, This Assembly has sustained the appeal of Mr. Hamilton against the Synod of Sandusky; and whereas, there is some doubt as to the condition in which the case now stands; therefore

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to bring in a minute expressive of the sense of the body as to the precise condition in which this case now remains.

The motion was laid upon the table.

Dr. Blackwood, from the Committee on Correspondence, moved that it be the order of the day for 9½ o'clock this morning, to hear the Rev. W. F. Baird, the delegate from the Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Carried.

Dr. Wines moved that it be the first order of the day for Saturday morning to take up the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education. Carried.

Rev. Geo. S. Mott asked and received leave to withdraw his motion of yesterday, relating to the contingent fund.

The second resolution of the Finance Committee was taken up and adopted.

The whole report, with the resolution, was adopted, as follows:

The Finance Committee, to whom was referred the accounts of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, makes the following report, to wit:

They have examined the report of the Treasurer, and compared the statements of the accounts therein presented, with the books kept by him, as also the items of interest received upon the several investments, and find them correct as stated.

The amount received by the Treasurer from all sources during the last financial year, viz. from May 1st, 1862, to May 1st, 1863, was $25,672 73, making, together with $7,893 56, the balance in the hands of the Treasurer from the last year, the sum of $33,566 29. The expenditures during the year have amounted to $18,517 32, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer, at the close of the fiscal year, of fifteen thousand and forty-eight dollars and ninety-seven cents ($15,048 97.)

Whole amount of the receipts . . .	$33,566 29
The whole amount of expenditures, . . .	18,517 32
Balance in hands of Treasurer . .	$15,048 97

The report of the Treasurer embraces the following statements:

No. 1—Abstract of receipts and expenditures.

No. 2—Balance sheet from ledger.

No. 3—The items which compose the cash balance on hand.

No. 4—Statement of income derived from bond and mortgages.

No. 5—Statement of permanent fund, showing a balance uninvested of $3,939 19.

No. 6—Tabular statement of investments held by the Assembly, amounting to $127,387 50. This amount is all invested in first mortgage bonds, except $2000 in a Camden and Amboy Railroad bond, all of which is believed to be perfectly safe, and worth the full amount above stated.

The Finance Committee being limited by the General Assembly to bonds and mortgages in making investments, have found great difficulty in obtaining such securities, in consequence of the large amount of capital now seeking first class investments.

The Committee would suggest that the General Assembly should allow investments to be made in such securities as trustees, executors, and guardians are by law in the State of Pennsylvania permitted to invest in, which are the public loans of the United States, the State of Pennsylvania, and of the city of Philadelphia, and in bonds and mortgages.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly are hereby fully authorized to make investments in the public loans of the United States, the State of Pennsylvania, of the city of Philadelphia, and in bonds and mortgages.

Whereas, The amount of matter now published in the Minutes of the Assembly has greatly increased the expense of the same, and the falling off in the collection for the contingent fund leaves this account deficient $400, which indebtedness it is desirable should be promptly cancelled, therefore,

Resolved, That the Assembly urge upon all of the Presbyteries the necessity of increasing the amount of their annual collections, for the purpose of discharging the said balance and meeting the current expenses.

Dr. Condit, from the Special Committee on the memorial from the Chippewa Presbytery, &c., reported as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the memorial from the Presbytery of Chippewa, and the Overture No. 1, respecting the union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, called the Old and New School, report, that they have endeavoured to consider the subject in that careful and serious manner which its importance demands, and would submit to the Assembly for their consideration and adoption, the following resolutions, viz.

Resolved, 1. That in the judgment of this General Assembly, it is not deemed expedient to take, at this time, any decided action with reference to a reunion of the New and Old School Presbyterian churches.

Resolved, 2. That in the fraternal correspondence, now happily inaugurated, the General Assembly would recognise an initiative in the matter of securing a better understanding of the relations which subsist between the two Assemblies, and the means of promoting that mutual charity, and that just apprehension of the true grounds of Christian union and fellowship, which may serve to prepare the way for a union that shall be harmonious and permanently promotive of the interests of truth and vital godliness.

Resolved, 3. That as a still further preparative to such a desirable union, the General Assembly deem it important, and this in reference to both these branches of the Presbyterian Church, that the ministers, the elders, and such as have the care and instruction of the young, be increasingly careful to exhibit clearly the distinctive principles of Christian doctrine and church polity as held by the Presbyterian Church; that the ministers of these two branches of the Church cultivate fraternal intercourse, a free interchange of views and feelings, and in all suitable ways encourage and aid one another in the appropriate work of the ministry; and that the members of the one or the other branch connect themselves with existing congregations of either, rather than cast in their influence and their aid with bodies whose principles and form of government are foreign to their own.

The report was accepted and adopted.

The Assembly then took up the order of the day, and heard the Rev. W. F. Baird, delegate from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in the interchange of fraternal salutations, to whom the Moderator responded.

The Rev. J. Osmond moved that it be the second order for Saturday morning, to receive reports on Synodical Records. Carried.

Mr. A. B. Conger moved that it be the third order of the day for Saturday morning, to take up Judicial Case No. 1. Carried.

Dr. Humphrey moved that Overture No. 7, with the report thereon, be taken up.

Dr. Hickok moved that the whole subject be referred to the next Assembly. Carried.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported

Overture No. 13, from the Synod of Baltimore, respecting the unequal distribution of chaplains.

The report was accepted, and put upon the docket.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, and

Dr. Hickok, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, reported. The report was accepted.

The Rev. W. E. Schenck, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Publication, on motion, addressed the Assembly.

The resolutions were taken up seriatim.

On Section 3, in Part I. of the above report, after considerable discussion, it was Resolved, That the Committee on Psalmody, &c., consist of fifteen members, and that the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication shall nominate said members.

On resolution 2d of Part II. of the report,

Mr. A. B. Conger moved to amend, by adding the words, "whenever a vacancy occurs."

The amendment was lost.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. J. Wood, until 2½ o'clock, P. M.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. G. S. Plumley.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported as follows:

That they have given leave to the following named persons: To the Rev. Dr. R. W. Condit; and to ruling elders, J. W. Robinson, James Boggs, W. T. Wood, after the session of this afternoon, and J. S. Helfenstein.

The report was approved.

Mr. A. V. Cortelyou, from the Committee on Mileage, reported as follows:

That there has been paid into the treasury ($212) two hundred and twelve dollars. That there have been 4429 miles travelled by the Commissioners, in coming to the Assembly, who claim mileage, which, at 4¾ cents per mile, amounts to $210.37, leaving a balance in the treasury of $1.63. The Committee recommend that the Trustees be directed to draw an order on their Treasurer for the sum of $210.37, and that he pay it out in sums as herein stated.

The report was accepted and adopted.

The unfinished business of the forenoon was taken up, viz, the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication.

Resolution 2d of Part II. being under consideration, it was moved to strike out the whole of that resolution.

After considerable discussion,

Mr T. H. Nevin moved the previous question. And the call having been duly sustained, the question was put, and the resolution of the report was carried.

On resolution 8th, in Part II., a motion to refer to the Board was lost.

Dr. McFarren moved to strike out all after the word "repealed." Lost.

The whole resolution was then carried.

The remaining resolutions were carried.

The whole report, with the resolutions, was then adopted, and is as follows:

PART I.—The Committee on the Annual Report of the Board of Publication, on the Report of the Special Committee, and on other papers, beg leave to submit the following:

I. They have examined the Minutes of the Board, and of the Executive Committee. They find them fully, fairly, and carefully kept, as records; and recommend that they be signed as approved.

II. With reference to the overture from the Presbytery of Albany, which has been put into their hands, and to which the Board has yielded a qualified assent subject to the decision of the Assembly, the Committee recommend, that inasmuch as uniformity in our Church Psalmody is highly desirable, any effort at improvement should be made by the whole Church, and not by any section, or single Presbytery. And, inasmuch as the tunes associated with our common devotional lyrics differ so widely, in different parts of the country, and musical education and tastes are so diversified, it seems impossible at present to compose a book of music, of moderate size, which shall satisfy the whole church. Therefore, the Assembly do not sanction the proposition of the Presbytery of Albany, to publish a Book of Hymns and Tunes, as requested by that Presbytery.

III. But, since this overture furnishes one of many indications that there is a growing desire, in all parts of the church, that our psalmody should be enriched, from the large stores of lyric poetry which have accumulated since our Hymn Book was compiled, we recommend that the Assembly appoint a committee to take this whole subject into consideration, and to report to the next Assembly what changes, if any, should be made in our present Book of Psalms and Hymns Also, to consider the expediency of arranging portions of the word of God in a form suitable for chanting in our congregations.

PART II.—Upon the Report of the Committee to investigate the affairs of the Board of Publication, the Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly approve of the principles expressed by the Committee, touching the character of the Board's publications, and commend the efforts of the Board to furnish reading, more and more attractive, acceptable, and useful to the Church.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly highly appreciate the faithful services of the Rev. Dr. W. M. Engles, as the Editor of the Board, from the beginning until now; but, as in our view the duties of Editor should belong to the Corresponding Secretary, for the sake of economy and propriety, the Board is hereby directed to assign these duties to the Secretary, and to discontinue the separate office of Editor.

Resolved, 3. That the salary of the Corresponding Secretary should constitute his sole emolument for services rendered to the Board; that, therefore, the amount deposited with the Presbyterian Annuity Company be withdrawn, and that the Board is hereby directed to withdraw it, and to establish this principle in regard to that officer.

Resolved, 4. That the Board is hereby directed to add the duties of Treasurer to those of the Superintendent of Colportage, without any increase of the present salary of the latter; that adequate security be still required for the proper fulfilment of his trust, and that the office of Treasurer, as a distinct one, is hereby dispensed with.

Resolved, 5. That the Board is hereby directed to assign the duties of Publishing Agent to the Superintendent of Depository, without any increase of his present salary.

Resolved, 6. That the Board is now directed to discontinue the office and salary of Solicitor, and to continue the office and salary of Book-keeper, as at present.

Resolved, 7. That the Board be directed to put the Periodical Department under the charge of one individual, making him responsible for that department—he furnishing clerks and assistants at his own expense; and that he be allowed a salary not exceeding thirteen hundred dollars ($1300) per annum.

Resolved, 8. That the first sentence of the resolution of the General Assembly of 1842 (Digest, p. 421,) is hereby repealed; and the Board is directed to proceed upon the principles recommended in the report of the Special Committee, with such changes as their wisdom may suggest—still keeping in view this one matter, that no further accumulations of capital from their business, except as set forth in that report, are expected by the Assembly.

Resolved, 9. That the Assembly now approves of the theory of colportage, as expressed in the report of the Special Committee; that the Board is hereby directed to consider carefully the matter of District Superintendents of colportage—the suggestions of the committee respecting the employment of colporteurs; and that this whole matter be renewedly commended to the confidence, liberality, and prayers of God's people.

Resolved, 10. That the Board be directed to discontinue payments for matter furnished to the Sabbath-School Visitor, until they can be made from the income of the paper; that communications be invited from the church at large, or selected from various sources: and that due efforts be made to make this paper less expensive to the church.

Resolved, 11. That the Executive Committee be directed to publish the whole report of the Special Committee in the Annual Report of the Board.

Part III.—In the report of the Rev. A. L. Lindsley upon the Home and Foreign Record, which has been committed to them, the Committee find no suggestions with respect to the contents and mode of conducting that publication, which they deem it necessary to bring before the Assembly. There are intrinsic difficulties in making this paper attractive to all classes of readers, without sacrificing the distinct aims and object of the publication itself. We believe the Boards are using due diligence to overcome these difficulties.

With respect to the form and style of the paper, the Committee recommend, that after the completion of the present volume, the whole edition be issued in a pamphlet form, with covers, (similar to the pamphlet edition already issued,) at the same price as the newspaper edition; and that advertisements of a suitable character, enough, at least, to pay the additional expense of the pamphlet form, be allowed to fill the spare pages of the cover, subject to the discretion of the different Secretaries, of whose Boards this pamphlet is the organ.

With respect to the expense to the Boards, of the Home and Foreign Record, the Committee recommend, that this be rather increased by enlarged gratuitous distribution, than diminished by a restricted circulation. This publication is to be regarded primarily as an advertising agency; and we think experience warrants a larger expenditure as a profitable business arrangement.

Dr. J. M. Lowrie offered the following:

Resolved, That because the last two Assemblies have, by mistake, elected more members than the Constitution allows for the Board of Church Extension, this Assembly will now elect but three ministers and three ruling elders for that Board, leaving the regular change of the Board to be better secured hereafter.

The resolution was adopted.

The Assembly took up the next order of the day, viz., to elect members to the several Boards and Theological Seminaries.

The Stated Clerk distributed the printed tickets prepared by him.

On motion, the Moderator appointed the Rev. Messrs. A. D. White and G. S. Plumley, and ruling elder James P. Tustin, to act as tellers.

The Assembly took up the third order of the day, viz., Judicial Case No. 11; but before fully entering upon the case,

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported arrangements for Sabbath services in various churches of the city and its vicinity.

The Assembly spent a half hour in devotional exercises, and then adjourned to 8½ o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

SATURDAY Morning, May 30.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The Committee on Leave of Absence reported that they had given leave to the Rev. H. P. S. Willis and ruling elder A. M. Travis, after the sessions of to-day; also to Dr. Ogden, Rev. J. L. Polk, and Rev. C. W. Stewart.

The report was approved.

Dr. Goodale, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 14, being a request from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, that the Assembly define the respective rights of the trustees and session in the control of the edifice used for public worship, and direct what steps be taken in case of disagreement or collision between them, with a report thereon as follows:

Where a church edifice is held by trustees, the legal title is vested in them; and having the title, the custody and care of the property pertains to them for the uses and purposes for which they hold the trust. These uses and purposes are the worship of God, and the employment of such other means of spiritual improvement as may be consistent with the Scriptures, and according to the order of the church: to which may be added, congregational meetings for business relating to the church or corporation. By the constitution of the church, the session is charged with the supervision of the spiritual interests of the congregation; and this includes the right to direct and control the use of the building for the purposes of worship, as required or established by the special usage of the particular church, or the Directory for Worship. This being the principal purpose of the trust, the trustees are bound to respect the wishes and action of the session, as to the use and occupation of the house of worship. The session is the organ or agent through whom the trustees are informed how and when the church building is to be occupied; and the trustees have no right to refuse compliance with the action of the session in this regard. These are general principles applicable to all cases, except, perhaps, in some localities where special statutory enactments by competent authority may confer other rights, or prescribe other duties.

But there are other purposes for which the use of the church edifice is sometimes desired, which, though they partake of a religious or intellectual character, do not fall within the class of objects which are properly described as belonging to the worship of that congregation. The house may not be used for such purposes without the consent of the trustees; and this consent they may properly, in their discretion, refuse. As the function to determine what is a proper use of the house is vested in the session, the trustees have no legal right to grant the use of it for purposes which the session disapprove. And as the strict rights of those who are represented by the session to the use of the house, are limited to the worship of that congregation, the trustees are under no obligation to grant it for any other purpose.

When the trustees grant the use of the house to others, contrary to the expressed wishes of the session, and, as they suppose, to the prejudice of the cause of religion and of that church, the proper appeal is, first, to the persons composing the congregation to whom the trustees are responsible; secondly, to the Presbytery, for their advice; and finally, if necessary, to the legal tribunals.

The report was accepted and adopted.

George Junkin, Jr., presented a dissent relative to the vote of the Assembly limiting the capital of the Board of Publication.

On motion, leave was given to enter the dissent on the minutes. It is as follows:

The undersigned hereby respectfully dissent from the action of the General Assembly, by which the Board of Publication are restrained from the further accumulation of active capital to be employed in their operations. Because

1. The capacity to serve the church efficiently by the operations of this Board, depends, in a great degree, upon the amount of capital employed; and therefore the increase of capital ought to be commensurate with the growth of the church. To stop accumulation of capital implies, either that no further growth of the church is expected, or else that such increase of membership is to be denied the advantages of this Board.

2. The questions determined by this act of the Assembly involve very complicated considerations, not only of a commercial character, but the relations of a publishing house to a system of colportage, which, we believe, may be more satisfactorily settled by such a Board of wise and prudent Christian men as compose the Board of Publication of this church, than they can be by this Assembly during the brief period which it can bestow upon the consideration of them.

On motion of Dr. Goodale,

Overture No. 13 was taken up, being an overture from the Synod of Baltimore, respecting the unequal distribution of government chaplaincies among the several Christian denominations.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported thereon as follows:

It appears that, at the time this overture was prepared, the number of chaplains appointed by the general government was thirty-eight; and of these, twenty-six were from one denomination. The Committee therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That such a decided partiality, on the part of the federal government, for one denomination of Christians above all others, tends to the introduction of an established religion, and is at variance with the religious liberty and equality guaranteed by the Constitution.

Resolved, 2. That it is an erroneous idea, wherever it exists, that in the public service, the officers and their families are the sole spiritual charge of the chaplains; but such spiritual charge embraces also equally the privates of the service.

The Assembly refused to adopt the report; so it was lost.

The tellers reported the result of the election of yesterday afternoon; but there appearing to be an irregularity in the vote for persons to fill vacancies in the Board of Foreign Missions, that part of the report was referred to the Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions.

The remainder of the report was adopted, and is as follows:

Directors in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, for three years:

MINISTERS.	RULING ELDERS.
John Maclean, D. D., LL.D.	Ebenezer Platt,
George Potts, D. D.	Thomas W. Smith,

Thomas S. Vail, in place of J. F. Cowan, deceased.

Dr. J. M. Lowrie, from the Special Committee on the State of the Country, offered a report, which was accepted and made the order of the day for 9 A. M. on Monday.

The second order of the day was taken up, viz., the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education.

On motion of Dr. Wines, the Committee had leave to withdraw a part of the report relating to appropriations for educational institutions.

Dr. Wines moved that that part of the report relating to the substitution of the names of certain persons for those of others, as members of the Board, be stricken out. Carried.

On motion of Mr. A. Stirling, Jr., the words, "between the government of the United States and those who are in armed rebellion against it," were inserted in place of the words, "between the northern and southern States."

The vote on striking out that part of the report relative to the substitution of the names of certain persons as members of the Board, was, on motion, reconsidered.

On motion of Judge Lawson, that portion of the report was recommitted to the standing Committee for further consideration.

Further action on the report was, on motion, postponed until the Standing Committee again reported.

The third order of the day was taken up, viz., to receive reports from the Committees on Synodical Records.

The records of the Synods of Albany, Buffalo, New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Wheeling, Indiana, Northern Indiana, Illinois, Chicago, Wisconsin, St. Paul, Southern Iowa, Missouri, and Kentucky, were approved.

The records of the Synods of Ohio, Cincinnati, Iowa, Upper Missouri, Virginia, North Carolina, Nashville, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Memphis, Arkansas, Texas, Northern India, and Pacific, were reported as not having been received.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Sandusky reported

That they had examined the same, and recommend their approval, with the following exception.

On page 49, on motion to approve records of Presbytery of Michigan, the following exception was made by members of Synod: "With the exception to so much of the record as excepts to the sessional records of the Westminster church, Detroit, and the church in Pontiac, for the failure to close meetings with prayer.

"While the Synod regards it as eminently proper to open and close the meetings of session with prayer, yet, as the matter is left by the Form of Government at the discretion of the session, and as such meetings are sometimes held under circumstances which render the formal opening and closing with prayer inconvenient, the exercise of the discretion of the session is not properly a matter of censure by Presbytery." "The exception was lost."

It is the opinion of your Committee that Synod erred in declining to sustain this exception, it being in harmony with the Form of Government of our Church.

The report was approved.

Dr. Wines, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Education, presented a modification of that part of the report this forenoon recommitted; which was adopted.

A motion was made to adopt the whole report, pending which the Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. Frank Chandler, to half-past 2 o'clock, P. M.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. R. Valentine.

On motion of the Rev. G. S. Plumley, it was Resolved, That the Assembly will this afternoon begin its devotional exercises at 4 o'clock, P. M.

The unfinished business of the morning was taken up, viz., the report of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education.

On motion of the Rev. S. S. Sheddan, that part of the report relating to the day of prayer for colleges, excepting the resolutions on that subject, was stricken out.

The whole report of the Standing Committee, as amended, was then adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Board of Education respectfully report:

The documents submitted to the consideration of the Committee were:

1. The Annual Report of the Board. 2. The Annual Report of the Treasurer of the Board. 3. An Abstract of payments on account of the Board from May 1st, 1862, to May 1st, 1863. 4. The Draft of a Constitution and By-Laws for the General Assembly's Board of Education, proposed by the Board for adoption by the Assembly at the annual meeting in 1861. 5. The Report of a Special Committee appointed by the Assembly of last year to examine the proposed draft of a Constitution, &c. 6. A paper adopted by the Board, at a meeting held on the 8th instant, relative to the aforementioned Report, and the whole subject of the amended Constitution and By-Laws for the Board. 7. The Minutes of the Board and of the Executive Committee.

The Committee have carefully considered the several papers and records above recited.

The Assembly will rejoice with the Committee that the Board of Education, through the gracious favour of the supreme Head of the Church, is enabled, even amid the calamities and desolations of civil war, to report so much that is cheering and hopeful, both in the department of ministerial education, and the department of schools, academies, and colleges. The debt of $451.67, on account of the Candidates' Fund, with which the treasury was burdened at the close of the last year, has been cancelled; all the necessary expenses have been met; and the current year begins with a balance to the credit of the Candidates' or Ministerial Education Fund, of $4436.84. There is also a balance of $3923.45 in the General Education Fund, and of $923.11 in the African Education Fund; making a total balance in the treasury, applicable to the various purposes of the Board, of $9283.40.

The joy naturally awakened by so prosperous a condition of the finances of the Board, is not a little checked and chilled by another item in the report, which is calculated to beget the most painful apprehension. Only thirty-eight new candidates have been received during the past year, which is but one more than half the number received during the preceding year, and considerably less than one-half the number received during any one of the nine years prior to the last.

A revived and encouraging progress is reported by the Board in the important department of parochial schools; a department of Christian culture, which, if wisely and diligently worked, is capable of yielding the most precious fruits. Academic and collegiate education also, so far as it is under the guidance and control of the church, is in a far more healthful and vigorous condition than would naturally be expected in the midst of the colossal and desolating struggle now going on between the Government of the United States and those who are in armed rebellion against it.

The most complicated, difficult, and laborious part of the Committee's work has been that which relates to the proposed new Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the Board. Three papers were before us on this subject, viz., the draft submitted to the Assembly by the Board in 1861; the draft of the Assembly's Committee, submitted at the present meeting, and the minute of the Board adopted on the 8th instant, in which, with a few immaterial changes, they still adhere to their own draft in preference to that of the Special Committee appointed by the Assembly last year. Your Committee have patiently and carefully considered these several documents, and are prepared to recommend to the Assembly, for its adoption, a Constitution and a code of By-Laws compiled from them all.

The Committee being of the opinion that it is competent to the General Assembly to declare vacancies in any of the Boards of the Church, propose that the places of the Rev. A. W. Leland, D. D., R. L. Dabney, D. D., and D. H. Hill, who have virtually resigned their offices as members of the Board, be declared vacant, and that their names be stricken from the roll of the Board.

The Committee propose for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly recognise as matter of fervent gratitude to God, the fact that, in the midst of civil war, and of the agitations, calamities and financial pressure consequent thereupon, the Board of Education should not only have been able to meet promptly all current expenses as they accrued, but also to liquidate a debt of more than $4,000, and to accumulate a balance, altogether, of $9,283.41; of which amount, nearly one-half is to the credit of the Ministerial Education Fund. And the Assembly hereby records its approval of the diligence, zeal, and wisdom with which the Board and the Executive Committee have discharged the duties of their position.

Resolved, 2. That the General Assembly have noticed, with a concern proportioned to its deep and far-reaching significance, the alarming decrease in the number of candidates offering for the gospel ministry, and exhort that earnest prayer be made of the church continually, that the Lord of the harvest will multiply and send forth labourers into his harvest.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly concur with the Board in urging upon all ecclesiastical bodies having academical institutions under their control, that they use the most strenuous endeavours to elevate the standard of academic culture, and to make such culture broad, thorough, and every way worthy both of the past history and of the present and future exigencies of the Presbyterian Church.

Resolved, 4. That the General Assembly is deeply impressed with the importance and value of the Ashmun Institute, as the only seminary in the country which has for its object the education of colored men for the gospel ministry; rejoices in the manifest tokens of the Divine favour enjoyed by it; approves the wisdom and efficiency with which it is managed; and cordially commends it to the confidence, the prayers, and the liberality of our churches, and of all benevolent and Christian people, who would promote, in the best manner and the highest degree, the welfare of the African race.

Resolved, 5. That the General Assembly record their sense of the loss sustained by the Board and the church in the death of the Rev. John McDowell, D. D., and the Rev. Francis D. Ladd; the former of whom was gathered to his fathers like a shock of corn fully ripe, at the close of a long, honoured, and most useful career of ministerial labour, and the latter was struck down in the prime of his years and the fulness of his powers; and the Assembly tender their heartfelt condolence to the families and friends of the deceased, in their bereavement, and invoke for them the blessings and consolations of Him who has styled himself the God of the widow and the fatherless.

Resolved, 6. That the last Thursday of February be designated as a day of special prayer for the children and youth of the church, and more especially those gathered in our various educational institutions; and that it be recommended to the churches to take up collections on that occasion for the fund devoted to the aid of parochial schools, academies, and colleges.

Resolved, 7. That a special committee of three be appointed to inquire whether it would not be expedient, hereafter, to substitute the Thursday after the first Sabbath of January, for the last Thursday of February, as the day of annual prayer for colleges, to correspond with other ecclesiastical bodies, with a view to a general union of the church in the proposed change; and to inquire further, whether it may not be also expedient and desirable to set apart a day at a suitable season of the year, (say early in the autumn,) for special prayer for the children and youth of the church, when they may be assembled with their parents, and appropriate addresses to both may be made a part of the exercises of the occasion. Said committee to report the result of their inquiries and deliberations to the next General Assembly.

Resolved, 8. That the following be adopted by this Assembly as a Constitution and code of By-Laws for the Board of Education:

CONSTITUTION.

Article I. Name and Style.—There shall be a General Board of Education under the corporate name and style of "The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America."—[References—Art. 1. Baird, p. 400.]

Article II. Functions.—The Board of Education shall have oversight of the subject of Christian education, with special reference to the increase of the gospel ministry; and they shall be a Board of Inquiry as to every matter having reference to this subject; and a Board of Agency for the founding of Scholarships, and for the aiding of Parochial Schools, Presbyterial Academies, Colleges, and Theological Seminaries; under such regulations as may hereinafter be contained, or such as may from time to time be prescribed by the General Assembly.—[Art. 6, 14, 15, 17. Baird, pp. 402, 403, 410, 411, 412.]

Article III. Members.—The Board shall consist of sixty-four members, (besides certain hereinafter specified, who shall be members ex-officio,) of whom thirty-two shall be ministers, and thirty-two other male communicating members of the Presbyterian Church. These members shall be divided into four equal classes, of eight ministers and eight laymen each, and one class shall be chosen annually to serve for a term of four years. At any meeting of the Board, regularly convened, five members shall constitute a quorum to transact business.—[Art. 2, 3. Baird, pp. 400, 401.]

Article IV. Election.—The election of the members of the Board shall be made, by nomination and ballot, by the General Assembly.—[Art. 4.]

Article V. Officers.—The officers of the Board, to be annually appointed by the Board, shall be a President, five Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, an Executive Committee, and three Trustees, according to the provisions of their charter. The Corresponding Secretary and the Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of the Board. All other officers must be members of the Board at the time of their election. The Board shall have power, at any of its regular meetings, to fill vacancies which may have occurred in any of their offices by death, resignation, or otherwise.—[Art. 5, 18, 21.]

Article VI. By-Laws.—The Board shall have power to make for themselves all necessary By-Laws, not inconsistent with this Constitution, subject to the approval of the General Assembly.—[Art. 11.]

Article VII. Operations.—Section 1. The Board shall inquire into the plans and operations of all similar institutions; the amount and nature of coöperation rendered by the whole church within the bounds of the Presbyteries respectively; the best schemes of Christian training and nurture; the most efficient methods for accomplishing the whole duty of the church herein,—of all which they shall, from year to year, give such information, and such suggestions to the General Assembly, as they may deem expedient.—[Art. 10, 12, 14. Baird, pp. 402, 410, 411.]

Section 2. The disbursing agency of this Board shall, in all cases, be managed according to the previous action of some Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly of the church, so that no candidate shall be admitted to a scholarship of the Board, who has not been duly examined by a Presbytery, or a committee of Presbytery, and approved and recommended by the same: and no institution of elementary or of classical learning shall receive aid, except upon recommendation of the Presbytery or Synod having ecclesiastical oversight of the same: and no Theological Seminary shall receive aid, except upon the order of the General Assembly; and of all their operations the Board shall make annual report to the General Assembly.—[Art. 7, 8, 9, 10.]

Article VIII. Amendments.—No addition or amendment to the provisions of this Constitution shall be made, unless by consent of two-thirds of the members of the General Assembly, present at any of their sessions, of which notice shall be given at least one day previous.—[Art. 13.]

BY-LAWS.

Chapter I. Of the Board.—Article 1. Stated meetings of the Board shall be held on the first Friday of each month, for the transaction of business. The stated meeting in June, which shall be held in Philadelphia, as soon after the meeting of the General Assembly as practicable, shall be the annual meeting, at which time officers shall be elected. Special meetings may be called at any time by the Executive Committee or by the President of the Board, of which meetings not less than seven days' notice shall be given.

Article 2. A majority shall be sufficient to decide ordinary questions, but two-thirds of the members present shall be necessary to alter any of these rules.

Chapter II. Executive Committee.—Article 1. At the first meeting of each year, the Board shall elect by ballot a committee of ten, to be called the Executive Committee, to whom, in an especial manner, shall be committed the management of the business of the Board. The Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer shall be, ex officio, members of the Committee.

Article 2. The Executive Committee shall have no other officers or rules than those of the Board.

Article 3. The Executive Committee shall keep a fair record of all its proceedings, and report monthly, or oftener if required, for the revision and approval of the Board.

Article 4. At any meeting of the Executive Committee, three members shall constitute a quorum.

Chapter III. Of the Corresponding Secretary.—Article 1. The Corresponding Secretary shall devote himself exclusively to the various educational interests under the care of the Board; and shall visit, on this behalf, churches and church-courts, from time to time, as may be deemed necessary.

Article 2. It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary to take charge of the office, conduct the correspondence, and superintend the publications of the Board. He shall prepare the regular business for the meetings of the Board, and of the Executive Committee, and shall always be considered as their official organ.

Article 3. He shall exercise a pastoral care over all the candidates of the Board; he shall frequently visit them, and shall correspond with them and their teachers, as often as circumstances may require.

Article 4. He shall keep a register of students admitted to scholarships under the Board, including their names, ages, residence, &c. &c., and open, and keep with each one, a regular account, and remit their respective appropriations.

Article 5 He shall report regularly to the Executive Committee, and to the Board, an account of his proceedings, and shall be subject to such constitutional instructions and suggestions as he may from time to time receive from them.

Article 6. Such assistance shall be afforded by the Board to the Corresponding Secretary, in his office and work, as may be deemed necessary. All assistants under the Corresponding Secretary shall be subject to the above rules, so far as they apply.

Chapter IV. Of the Treasurer.—Article 1. The Treasurer shall give bonds for the proper discharge of the duties of his office.

Article 2. He shall receive and faithfully keep, subject to order, all the moneys of the Board. He shall also keep a full account of all the sources from which such moneys have been received, and proper vouchers for all his receipts and disbursements.

Article 3. He shall pay all orders passed by the Executive Committee and signed by the Acting Secretary of the same.

Article 4. He shall also take charge of all other donations intended for the use of the candidates.

Article 5. He shall keep a register of the students, including their names, ages, residence, &c. &c., and open and keep with each one, a regular account, and remit to each their respective appropriations.

CHAPTER V. Of the Co-operation of Presbyteries.—ARTICLE 1. The Board attach great importance to the plan of Presbyterial co-operation, recommended by the General Assembly, for the reception and support of candidates. By this plan every candidate is required to put himself under the care of a Presbytery before he can be taken up by the Board. He is to be examined either in open Presbytery, or by a Committee on Education, appointed for the purpose, on his personal and experimental piety, on his motives for seeking the holy office of the ministry, on his attachment to the standards of the Presbyterian Church, on his general habits, his prudence, his studies, his talents, his gifts for public speaking, on his disposition to struggle to maintain himself, and his willingness to observe the rules of the Board.

ARTICLE 2. If the examination be sustained, a detailed report shall be made to the Board by the Stated Clerk, or the Chairman of the Education Committee of the Presbytery, of his name, age, residence, church-membership, place of education, progress in his studies, need of aid, piety, promise, and whatever else may seem proper.

ARTICLE 3. The Board would respectfully say, that the recommendation of a young man is so solemn an event to himself, and involves so deeply the character and success of the cause of Education, that it should demand the most serious and deliberate consideration; and if the application be of doubtful expediency, it should be postponed till a full and satisfactory trial can be made of the candidate.

ARTICLE 4. The Board of Education shall make no appropriation to a beneficiary for a second or subsequent year, without a report and renewed application from the Presbytery under whose care the beneficiary is placed—the renewed application to be based upon a re-examination of the candidate, if practicable.

CHAPTER VI. Of Candidates and Appropriations—ARTICLE 1. No written obligation shall be required of any candidate under the care of the Board, to refund the money which may be granted; yet, at the option of the person receiving aid, the appropriation may be considered a loan.

ARTICLE 2. Each candidate shall be considered as always on probation.

ARTICLE 3. No youth shall, in general, be received, who has not spent at least three months in the study of the classics, and given good evidence of his capacity for the acquisition of knowledge. He must also be not less than fourteen years of age, and have been a member in regular and good standing in some Presbyterian church at least six months.

ARTICLE 4. If any young man wishes to avail himself of the aid of the Board, he should apply to his pastor, or some member of the Presbytery to which he would naturally belong, to be introduced to the Education Committee of Presbytery, or to the Presbytery itself, to be examined, and if approved, to be taken under the care of the Presbytery as a candidate for the ministry, and by them to be duly recommended to the Board of Education. [See By-Laws on the coöperation of Presbyteries, Art. 1 and 2.]

ARTICLE 5. Every candidate shall forward, or cause to be forwarded, quarterly, a report from his teacher, showing his standing for piety, talents, diligence, progress, prudence, economy, &c., and no remittance shall be made to any, until such report be received.

ARTICLE 6. The maximum of annual appropriations shall not exceed one hundred and twenty dollars to theological students, and one hundred to students in colleges, and eighty to those in academies.

ARTICLE 7. Candidates will be received under the care of the Board at any time. All appropriations shall be made quarterly, on the first Thursdays of February, May, August and November. No payments shall be made in advance.

ARTICLE 8. The tuition and boarding fees of the candidate shall always be first paid out of the appropriations of the Board, and the Board will, in no case, be responsible for debts of candidates.

ARTICLE 9. As the appropriations of the Board necessarily fall short of the entire wants of the candidates, so each of them will be expected to make all proper exertions in assisting to defray the expenses of his education.

ARTICLE 10. When any candidate shall find it necessary to relinquish study for a time, to teach or otherwise increase the means of support, he shall first obtain the consent of the Executive Committee; and if he shall not be absent from study more than three or four months, his appropriations will be continued; but if longer, they will be discontinued, or continued in part, according to circumstances.

ARTICLE 11. As a universal principle, the Board will refuse no applicant merely for want of funds.

ARTICLE 12. If, at any time, there be discovered in any candidate such defect in capacity, temper, prudence, and especially in sincere piety, as would render his introduction into the ministry of doubtful propriety, it shall be the duty of the Board to withdraw his appropriations. Candidates shall also cease to receive the patronage of the Board when their health shall become so bad as to unfit them for study, and for the work of the ministry; when they are manifestly improvident, and contract debts without reasonable prospect of payment; when they marry; when they become indolent; when they receive the patronage of any other Education Board, or Society, not connected with this; when they fail to make regular returns, or cease, by a change of circumstances, to need our aid.

ARTICLE 13. The appropriations of the Board are designed only for such as absolutely need this aid to pursue their course of study, as prescribed by the church. When it is found that a student so aided has aid sufficient from other quarters, or is notably extravagant in his expenses, or uses more money from any, or all sources, than is fairly necessary for his course, he shall be dropped by the Board.

ARTICLE 14. If any candidate fail to enter on, or continue in, the work of the ministry, unless he can make it appear that he is providentially prevented, or shall cease to adhere to the Standards of the Presbyterian Church, or change his place of study, contrary to the directions of the Executive Committee, or continue to prosecute his studies at an institution not approved by them, or withdraw his connection from this Board, to put himself under the care of any other Education Board or Society, without furnishing a reason which shall be satisfactory to the Executive Committee, he shall refund, with interest, all the money he may have received of this Board.

ARTICLE 15. Candidates are not allowed to abridge their course of study but by consent first obtained from this Board.

ARTICLE 16. When a young man leaves his place of study, and is not reported, or does not report himself during the year, his name shall be stricken from our roll of candidates.

ARTICLE 17. The periodicals of the Board shall be sent, gratis, to each candidate under its care; and also a copy of the Confession of Faith. Periodicals of the Board shall also be sent to all persons who shall have contributed at one time the sum of $50.

ARTICLE 18. These rules shall be printed and placed in the hands of every candidate; and his approval of them, expressed in writing, at the time of his being received under the care of the Board, shall be recorded, or put on file in the office.

On motion of Dr. Goodale, it was Resolved, That after the sessions of to-day, the members of the Assembly be confined to five minutes in their discussions of all subjects, and shall speak only once, except in judicial cases, and with those who are appointed to prosecute or defend such cases, unless permission is granted to speak longer, and the vote on granting permission must be taken without debate.

Judicial Case No. 1 was taken up, and the calling of the roll was proceeded with.

Dr. Blackwood asked and received leave to withdraw his name from nomination for the professorship in the Seminary of the Northwest.

Dr. Nevin reported back the corrected list of members elected to fill vacancies in the Board of Foreign Missions.

The report was adopted, as follows:

The resolutions of the Rev. G. S. Plumley, having been introduced and read during the devotional exercises, were adopted, as follows:

Whereas, by the gift of his converting and sanctifying grace, God has signally blessed the appointment of the "week of prayer," originally suggested by the Presbytery of Lodiana, in the Synod of Northern India, therefore,

Resolved, That this Assembly recommend to the sessions of our churches to set apart, as a period of special prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Ghost, and the conversion of the world, the week commencing Sabbath, January 3d, 1864, and including Sabbath, January 10th.

Resolved, That the sessions be also recommended to promote, as far as they may deem practicable, the holding of Union Prayer Meetings, during that week.

On motion of Judge Leavitt, the following was adopted:

Resolved, That it be earnestly enjoined on the pastors and sessions of our churches in which the monthly concert of prayer for the success of missions and the conversion of the world has fallen into disuse, to revive such concert, and to use all proper efforts to increase the interest of the church in the missionary cause.

After the usual half hour of devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned to half-past eight o'clock on Monday morning.

MONDAY MORNING, June 1.

The Assembly was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of Saturday were read and approved.

Dr. Beatty, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported

Overture No. 16, being a request from the Presbytery of Saline that the General Assembly solemnly re-affirm the testimony of 1818, in regard to slavery; the Committee report,

The Assembly has, from the first, uttered its sentiments on the subject of slavery in substantially the same language. The action of 1818 was taken with more care, made more clear, full, and explicit, and was adopted unanimously. It has since remained that true and scriptural deliverance on this important subject, by which our church is determined to abide. It has never been repealed, amended, or modified, but has frequently been referred to, and reiterated in subsequent Assemblies. And when some persons fancied that the action of 1845 in some way interfered with it, the Assembly of 1846 declared, with much unanimity, that the action of 1845 was not intended to deny or rescind the testimony on the subject, previously uttered by General Assemblies; and by these deliverances we still abide.

Dr. Humphrey moved to insert the word "all" before the words "these deliverances we still abide." Lost.

Dr. Humphrey moved to lay the whole subject on the table. Lost.

The report was then adopted, without amendment.

Dr. Beatty moved, that the consideration of the Revised Book of Discipline be made the first order for this evening session, and of each succeeding evening session until finished. Carried.

Dr. Hickok, from the Standing Committee on the Board of Publication, reported the following names of persons to constitute the Committee on Psalmody, to report to the next Assembly, viz.

Ministers.—Drs. J. T. Backus, S. I. Prime, H. A. Boardman, William Blackwood, N. C. Burt, E. P. Humphrey, Willis Lord, George Potts, Charles W. Shields, William M. Paxton, and Cyrus Dickson.

Ruling Elders.—J. W. Kennicott, of Boston; David Keith, of St. Louis; Charles N. Todd, of Indianapolis; and Robert Carter of New York.

The report was adopted.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That it be the order of the day to take up the Narrative on the State of Religion, this afternoon, fifteen minutes before the usual devotional exercises.

The Moderator announced as the Committee raised under the seventh resolution of the Standing Committee on the Board of Education, the Rev. E. C. Wines, D. D., Rev. A. T. Rankin, and ruling elder W. C. Lawson.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, viz., the consideration of the Report of the Special Committee on the State of the Country.

Rev. R. A. De Lancey moved, as an amendment, the insertion of the following words in the last sentence of the report, viz., "That as the Trustees of this Church, concurring in the desire of many members of this Assembly, have displayed from this edifice the American flag, the symbol of national protection, unity, and liberty."

The amendment was adopted.

Dr. Humphrey moved to strike out from the report all after the first paragraph, and insert as an amendment a paper which he read.

Dr. Wines moved that the subject be postponed, and made the first order for the afternoon, and that the report of the Committee, and the proposed amendment of Dr. Humphrey be meanwhile printed.

Judge Leavitt moved that the two papers be referred to Drs. Humphrey and Lowrie, as a special committee.

The previous question was called for, and the call having been duly sustained, the ayes and noes were on motion called, with the following result:

So the report was adopted. It is as follows:

The Committee to whom was referred the resolution which proposed to raise the flag of the United States upon the building in which the Assembly is now convened, and to report in respect to the "State of the Country," respectfully present the following report:

Your Committee believe that the design of the mover of the original resolution, and of the large majority, who apparently are ready to vote for its adoption, is simply to call forth from the Assembly a significant token of our sympathy with this government, in its earnest efforts to suppress a rebellion, that now for over two years has wickedly stood in armed resistance to lawful and beneficent authority. But as there are many among us who are undoubtedly patriotic; who are willing to express any righteous principle to which this Assembly should give utterance, touching the subjection and attachment of an American citizen to the Union and its institutions; who love the flag of our country, and rejoice in its successes by sea and by land; and who yet do not esteem this particular act a testimonial of loyalty entirely becoming to a church court,—and as many of these brethren, by the pressing of this vote, would be placed in a false position, as if they did not love the Union, of which that flag is the beloved symbol, your Committee deem themselves authorized, by the subsequent direction of the Assembly, to propose a different action to be adopted by this venerable court.

It is well known, on the one hand, that the General Assembly has ever been reluctant to repeat its testimonies upon important matters of public interest; but, having given utterance to carefully considered words, is content to abide calmly by its recorded deliverances. Nothing that this Assembly can say can more fully express the wickedness of the rebellion that has cost so much blood and treasure; can declare in plainer terms the guilt before God and man, of those who have inaugurated, or maintained, or countenanced, for so little cause, this fratricidal strife; or can more impressively urge the solemn duty of the government to the lawful exercise of its authority, and of the people, each in his several place, to uphold the civil authorities, to the end that law and order may again reign throughout this entire nation—than these things have already been done by previous Assemblies. Nor need this body declare its solemn rebukes towards those ministers and members of the church of Christ, who have aided in bringing on and sustaining these immense calamities; or tender our kind sympathies to those who are overtaken by troubles they could not avoid, and who mourn and weep in secret places, not unseen by the Father's eye; or reprove all wilful disturbers of the public peace; or exhort those that are subject to our care, to the careful discharge of every duty tending to uphold the free and beneficent government under which we are, and this specially for conscience' sake, and as in the sight of God—more than, in regard to all these things, the General Assembly has made its solemn deliverances, since these troubles began.

But, on the other hand, it may be well for this General Assembly to reaffirm, as it now solemnly does, the great principles to which utterance has already been given. We do this the more readily, because our beloved church may thus be understood to take her deliberate and well-chosen stand, free from all imputations of haste or excitement; because we recognise an entire harmony between the duties of the citizen, (especially in a land where the people frame their own laws, and choose their own rulers,) and the duties of the Christian to the great Head of the Church; because, indeed, least of all persons, should Christian citizens even seem to stand back from their duty, when bad men press forward for mischief; and because a true love for our country, in her times of peril, should forbid us to withhold an expression of our attachment, for the insufficient reason that we are not accustomed to repeat our utterances.

And because there are those among us who have scruples touching the propriety of any deliverance of a church-court respecting civil matters, this Assembly would add, that all strifes of party politics should indeed be banished from our ecclesiastical assemblies, and from our pulpits; that Christian people should earnestly guard against promoting partizan divisions; and that the difficulty of accurately deciding, in some cases, what are general and what party principles, should make us careful in our judgments; but that our duty is none the less imperative to uphold the constituted authorities, because minor delicate questions may possibly be involved. Rather, the sphere of the church is wider and more searching, touching matters of great public interest, than the sphere of the civil magistrate, in this important respect—that the civil authorities can take cognizance only of overt acts; while the law of which the church of God is the interpreter, searches the heart, makes every man subject to the civil authority, for conscience' sake, and declares that man truly guilty, who allows himself to be alienated, in sympathy and feeling, from any lawful duty, or who does not conscientiously prefer the welfare, and especially the preservation of the government, to any party or partisan ends. Officers may not always command a citizen's confidence; measures may by him be deemed unwise; earnest, lawful efforts may be made for changes he may think desirable; but no causes now exist to vindicate the disloyalty of American citizens towards the United States government.

The General Assembly would not withhold from the government of the United States, that expression of cordial sympathy which a loyal people should offer. We believe that God has afforded us ample resources to suppress this rebellion, and that, with his blessing, it will ere long be accomplished. We would animate those who are discouraged by the continuance and fluctuations of these costly strifes, to remember and rejoice in the supreme government of our God, who often leads through perplexity and darkness. We would exhort to penitence for all our national sins, to sobriety and humbleness of mind before the Great Ruler of all, and to constant prayerfulness for the divine blessing; and we would entreat our people to beware of all schemes implying resistance to the lawfully constituted authorities, by any other means than are recognised as lawful to be openly prosecuted. And as this Assembly is ready to declare our unalterable attachment and adherence to the Union established by our fathers, and our unqualified condemnation of the rebellion; to proclaim to the world the United States, one and undivided, as our country; the lawfully chosen rulers of the land, our rulers; the government of the United States, our civil government; and its honoured flag, our flag; and to affirm that we are bound, in the truest and strictest fidelity, to the duties of Christian citizens under a government that has strown its blessings with a profuse hand, your Committee recommend that, as the trustees of this church, concurring in the desire of many members of this Assembly, have displayed from this edifice the American flag, the symbol of national protection, unity, and liberty, the particular action contemplated in the original resolution be no further urged upon the attention of this body.

Dr. Hickok moved now to adopt the paper of Dr. Humphrey.

On this question, the ayes and noes were called, with the following result:

The paper of Dr. Humphrey was therefore adopted. It is as follows:

The General Assembly of 1861 adopted a minute on the state of the church and the country. The Assembly of 1862 uttered a more formal and comprehensive deliverance. In the meantime, a certain number, perhaps the larger portion of the Presbyteries and Synods, have expressed their judgments on the same subject. This General Assembly is persuaded that the office-bearers and members of this church, within the Presbyteries represented here, are, in a remarkable degree, united in a strict and true allegiance to the Constitution and Government of the United States; and that they are, as a body, loyal both to the church and the civil government as ordinances of God.

This General Assembly contents itself, on that part of the subject, by enjoining upon all the people of God, who acknowledge this church as their church, to uphold, according as God shall give them strength, the authority of the Constitution and laws of the land, in this time of supreme national peril. But this Assembly would most distinctly and solemnly inculcate upon all its people the duty of humbly confessing before God the great unworthiness, and the many sins of the people of this land, and of acknowledging the holiness and justice of the Almighty in the present visitation. He is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works. We exhort our brethren to seek the gift of the Holy Ghost, by prayer and confession and repentance, so that the anger of the Lord may be turned away from us, and that the spirit of piety may become not less predominant and vital in the churches than the spirit of an awakened patriotism.

And this Assembly, connecting the experience of our present trials with the remembrance of those through which the church has passed, does now recall and adopt the sentiments of our fathers in the Church of Scotland, as these are expressed for substance in the Solemn League and Covenant of 1643. "And because the people of this land are guilty of many sins and provocations against God, and his Son Jesus Christ, as is manifest by our present distresses and dangers, the fruits thereof, we profess and declare before God and the world our unfeigned desire to be humbled for our own sins and the sins of the people, especially that we have not, as we ought, valued the inestimable benefit of the gospel, nor laboured for the purity and power thereof; and that we have not, as we ought, endeavoured to receive Christ in our hearts, nor to walk worthy of him in our lives, which are the cause of other sins and transgressions so much abounding among us; and our true and unfeigned purpose, desire, and endeavour for ourselves, and all others under our charge, both in public and private, in all duties we owe to God and man, to amend our lives, and each one to go before another in the example of a real reformation, that the Lord may turn away his wrath and heavy indignation, and establish the church and the land in truth and peace."

Members absent when the votes on these two papers were taken, were, on motion, allowed to record their votes hereafter.

The Rev. Dr. Wines, for himself and others, presented a dissent from the action of the Assembly on Friday last, respecting the office of editor in the Board of Publication.

On motion, leave was given to enter this dissent on the minutes. It is as follows:

The undersigned, ministers and ruling elders, dissent from the vote of the General Assembly, abolishing the office of Editor of the Board of Publication, and devolving the duties of editor upon the Corresponding Secretary, and respectfully ask that their dissent, with the reasons of it, may be recorded in the minutes.

1. We dissent from the vote of the Assembly on this subject, because, in our judgment, the special and appropriate duties of the Secretary are of such breadth and magnitude, that their effective discharge demands all the time and energies of that officer, whatever his ability may be; and we are certainly not insensible to the eminent fitness of the present incumbent for the position which he fills so honourably to himself, and usefully to the church.

2. We dissent from the action of the Assembly touching the matter in question, because of the manifest incongruity between the functions of Corresponding Secretary and general Editor of the Board; the former demanding activity, executive ability, a thorough mastery of the principles and details of business, and a talent for public speaking, and involving the necessity of frequent and sometimes distant journeys; the latter requiring studious repose, learning, taste, discrimination, theological acumen, and a comprehensive knowledge of the history of the church, and of theoretical and practical divinity. In saying this, we do not mean to imply that the present Secretary is deficient in the last-named qualifications, but simply that the appropriate and necessary duties of his office as Secretary, are, in their very nature, incompatible with a high development of the attributes required in an editor. Non omnes possunt omnia.

3. We dissent from the vote of the Assembly, because we conceive the position of editor to be, in some respects, the most important of all the offices in the Board, and certainly vital to its best efficiency, since, upon the judgment, diligence, and fidelity of the editor depends, in great measure, the character of our religious literature, and upon the character of that literature depends the entire usefulness of the Board.

4. Finally, we dissent from the action of the Assembly in this matter, because, even if the said action, viewed in the light of abstract principle, were right and proper, we think it unwise and bordering upon harshness, to dismiss an aged and venerable servant of the Lord, to whom the church and the cause of sacred learning are so deeply indebted. In the Rev. Dr. William M. Engles we recognise, as far as any one man can be entitled to that designation, the father of the Assembly's Board of Publication. To his wisdom, learning, zeal, and fidelity, are due, in a preëminent degree, the origination, the progress, the brilliant success, and the beneficent and far-reaching power of this important arm of the church. In this respect, Dr. Engles has been, during the last twenty-five years, rendering services to the Presbyterian Church, which no money could repay; while the numerous productions of his pen, among the most valuable and useful publications of the Board, for which he has neither asked nor accepted any pecuniary reward, have been equivalent to the contribution of thousands of dollars to its treasury. We, therefore, profoundly regret that the General Assembly has seen fit to strike from the roll of officers of the Board of Publication, the name of such a man, after a quarter of a century's service, and when, in the ordinary course of events, he must be approaching the close of his earthly career; a career which, it is no exaggeration, but the simple truth, to say, is every way worthy of comparison with that of any of the illustrious men, living or dead, in an age of illustrious men, of whom it has pleased Divine Providence that he should be a contemporary.

The Assembly took up the next order of the day, viz., the election of Professors to fill vacancies in the Theological Seminaries at Allegheny and Chicago.

The Rev. Drs. Wines and Nevins, and ruling elder J. Darrach, were appointed tellers, and the ballots were cast to fill the vacant professorship in the Western Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Dr. Hickok, Rev. T. M. Gray, and George Junkin, Jr., were appointed tellers, and the vote was cast for the professorship in the Seminary of the North-West.

The Rev. J. Wood, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they had given leave to the following named persons: Rev. John Vanderlas, ruling elders Robert Whitacre, B. M. Penick, James McKee, Abel Hoyt, and C. A. Phelps. After the sessions of this morning, ruling elder James P. Tustin. After to-day, Rev. J. H. Bates, Rev. Dr. Blackwood, and Rev. A. Caldwell, and ruling elders S. G. Malone, J. E. Rumsey, Robert Rodgers, and Joseph Hanna.

The report was approved.

Dr. Blackwood, from the Committee on Correspondence, reported, requesting the Assembly to confirm the appointment of Dr. E. P. Humphrey, principal, and Dr. N. C. Burt, alternate, with ruling elders A. E. Chamberlain, principal, and Samuel Hanna, alternate, as delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, to meet next year in Dayton, Ohio. Also that Dr. J. M. Lowrie, principal, and Dr. J. Edwards, alternate, with ruling elders Robert McKnight, principal, and George Junkin, Jr., alternate, be appointed delegates to the next Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. Also that the Rev. Robert Johnston, principal, and the Rev. H. V. D. Nevius, alternate, be confirmed as delegates to the next Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The report was adopted, and the nominations were confirmed.

The tellers appointed to count the votes for Professor in the Seminary of the Northwest reported, that one hundred and fifty-eight votes had been cast for the Rev. Charles Elliott, D.D., of Oxford, Ohio, and none for any other person. Whereupon Dr. Elliott was declared by the Moderator to be unanimously elected Professor of Biblical Literature and Exegesis in the Seminary of the Northwest.

Dr. Hickok, Rev. T. M. Gray, and George Junkin, Jr., were appointed to inform Dr. Elliott of his election.

The tellers appointed to count the votes for Professor in the Western Theological Seminary reported that one hundred and fifty-nine votes had been cast for the Rev. Lyman H. Atwater, D.D., of Princeton, New Jersey, thirty-one votes for Rev. E. D. MacMaster, D.D., of Indiana, and two blanks. Whereupon the Moderator declared Dr. Atwater to be duly elected Professor of Didactic and Pastoral Theology in the Western Theological Seminary.

Dr. J. I. Brownson, Rev. W. B. McIlvaine, and ruling elder T. H. Nevin, were appointed to inform Dr. Atwater of his election.

The Assembly again took up Judicial Case No. 1, and the calling of the roll was proceeded with until the hour of adjournment, when

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by the Rev. Lewis C. Baker, until 2½ o'clock, P. M.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by Dr. McFarren.

Several members, this forenoon absent, had leave to record their votes, which was done.

Dr. Loyal Young, from the Standing Committee on Systematic Benevolence, reported. The report was accepted and adopted, and is as follows:

The great object which the General Assembly has in view, in calling up from year to year the subject of Systematic Benevolence, is to secure from every church and individual in our connection annual contributions to all the enterprises of benevolence under their supervision.

Were all the churches to do their duty in this respect, to the extent of their means, instead of struggling with embarrassment, all the Boards would be armed with a mighty power for good. The wilderness and the solitary place would be glad for them, and the desert would rejoice and blossom as the rose. With God's blessing, our schools, colleges, and theological seminaries would rise to such a position of influence as their importance demands. More young men of talents and piety would be brought into the ministry, and a great company of labourers would be sent forth to reap the harvest, now ripe for the sickle, in our own broad wastes, or in heathen lands.

Our Board of Publication would send forth its invaluable works all over the land, to instruct our youth, to cheer and counsel our soldiers while absent from the influences of their homes and churches, and to afford to all classes the best of religious literature. Houses for public worship would rise up in new settlements and feeble congregations, inviting the people to their open doors.

And then, when the labourers in the gospel harvest should retire, worn down by disease or enfeebled by weight of years, from the work they loved so well, their homes would be the abodes of comfort and joy. On such a picture the eye rests with pleasure, and weeps to find it only a picture—to find that while the people of God might make it a reality, it is only a dream.

On the other hand, if all, or the most of the churches, should fail for a single year, (as many of them do continually,) to contribute to the required objects, then the sons of the church, looking to the ministry, and now assisted by the Board of Education, must be told to return to secular pursuits, or to seek the ministry only by a long and tedious process of self-sustaining labour. The home missionary must drop his sickle in the presence of an inviting harvest—a harvest to be hereafter trodden down by the feet of errorists and infidels. The foreign missionary, shut out from all the means of sustenance, must not only abandon his work, but not having the means of returning to his native land, must beg his bread from the heathen. Our Sabbath-school libraries must be depleted; and the orphan child, whose father had sacrificed all his means to serve a feeble or penurious church, till he sunk down with premature decay, might famish for want of bread.

But the work of benevolence must not cease for a single month. All the enterprises of the church having been founded in prayer, and having in view the glory of God and the salvation of men, must be sustained. The great desideratum is, such a consecration of heart, and life, and goods, by the people of God, as will lead them to seek not their own, but the things of Jesus Christ. Such consecration will lead them to give statedly, as the Lord has prospered them. Systematic giving to the Lord, is a fruit of piety, though not a certain evidence. While the empires and nations of a great world are groaning and travailing in pain through sin, are stretching out their hands to greet the Sun of Righteousness, let the constant streams of beneficence flow into the Lord's treasury, till the light of the gospel dispel the darkness of the earth. In the language of the Synod of St. Paul, "The adoption of the rule of systematic consecration to God's use, of the share he claims, is as practicable in America as it was in Judea." The great river of Scottish charities is said to be made up principally of little streams of weekly and monthly contributions, from nearly all the members of the churches of that land. All are trained from childhood to stated contributions.

If the work of Systematic Benevolence is gaining ground in our churches, it cannot be indicated by the reports received from the Presbyteries. The time has come for the General Assembly either to abandon the project of getting reports from the Presbyteries, or to employ stronger means for securing them. For the last four years these reports have become more and more meagre and unsatisfactory. In A. D. 1859, it was ordered by the General Assembly that blank forms be prepared and sent to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries, indicating how many contributions had been ordered by the Presbyteries from year to year, and how many were actually made by the churches during the year. These blank forms were accordingly prepared and distributed. The next year, (A. D. 1860,) upwards of eighty Presbyteries, or about one-half of the whole number, reported to the General Assembly. A. D. 1861, forty-one Presbyteries reported. A. D. 1862, twenty-three Presbyteries reported. And now, A. D. 1863, but fourteen reports have been received from the one hundred and twelve Presbyteries here represented. And of these fourteen reports, six only were made out after the plan directed by the General Assembly. Thus by a sliding scale, remarkably regular, the reports have been reduced by degrees in four years from eighty to fourteen. But with all this neglect on the part of Presbyteries and their Stated Clerks to order and forward reports, it is found that the churches are becoming somewhat more systematic in their contributions. This is ascertained by the Statistical Tables in the Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly, in which it is found that many churches contribute annually to all the objects required by the Assembly, and that the most of the churches contribute to some of those objects. But the exigencies of the Boards are such, that measures should be taken, if possible, to call out all the available resources of the church. How this is to be done, is a question of the utmost importance, and of most difficult solution. This subject lies at the very foundation of our growth and prosperity as a church. Two years ago the Assembly specified certain days for making contributions. And it is believed that more contributions have been made in consequence. But there is great room for further improvement. Even the Board of Foreign Missions, combining, as it does, the work accomplished in our own country by nearly all the other Boards, and having an immense field to cultivate, and therefore requiring the aid of every church, has received contributions during the last year from only twelve hundred and twenty-five churches, as appears from their report. As there were two thousand and five churches represented in the Assembly of last year, it would appear that seven hundred and eighty of them contributed nothing to Foreign Missions. To the Board of Church Extension not one-third of the churches contributed. It need not here be specified what has been the proportion of churches contributing to the other Boards. Perhaps it would be safe to say, that not one-half of the blanks in our statistical columns are filled, and of the churches contributing, many individuals give nothing.

The committee would recommend the following action:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reënact the action of A. D. 1861, viz., that the churches that have no fixed time for contributing to the Boards, be earnestly requested to take up annual collections as follows, viz., For the Board of Domestic Missions, on the first Sabbath of November; for the Board of Foreign Missions, on the first Sabbath of January; for the Board of Education, on the first Sabbath of March; for the Colportage Fund of the Board of Publication, on the first Sabbath of May; for the Board of Church Extension, on the first Sabbath of July; and for Disabled Ministers, on the first Sabbath of September.

Resolved, 2. That if it is inconvenient for any church to make the contributions on the days specified, they be requested to make them as soon thereafter as possible.

Resolved, 3. That the Secretaries of the several Boards be directed to transmit circulars to the pastors and churches, a short time previous to the days named for making these contributions to each object, calling their attention to the subject.

Resolved, 4. That no pastor does his full duty who fails to bring before his people annually, all these objects of benevolence.

Resolved, 5. That the ruling elders of vacant churches be instructed to endeavour to secure annual collections for all these objects.

Resolved, 6. That the Secretary of the Board of Publication be directed to send to the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries blank Forms of Reports on Systematic Benevolence, and that it be enjoined on the Stated Clerks to report annually to the General Assembly.

On motion of Rev. G. P. Hays,

Resolved, That we recommend our churches to observe January 8th, 1864, being Friday of the week of prayer, as a day of special prayer for an increased spirit of liberality. Carried.

The Assembly again took up Judicial Case No. 1, and the calling of the roll was proceeded with and finished.

On motion, the Narrative on the State of Religion was read in the course of the devotional exercises.

The Assembly spent half an hour in devotional exercises, and then adjourned to 7½ P. M.

MONDAY Evening, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. A. De Witt.

Rev. S. S. Sheddan moved that the Narrative on the State of Religion be adopted, and printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of Assembly.

Carried.

The Assembly took up the order of the day, viz., the consideration of the Revised Book of Discipline, the motion being to adopt Judge Wood's substitute for Section 2d, Chapter VIII.

The substitute was lost.

Judge Leavitt moved to amend that section by substituting the words "including parties admitted as witnesses by the judicatory," for the words "whether parties or otherwise."

Pending this amendment, the Assembly, on motion, took up Judicial Case No. 1. The vote was taken by calling the roll, and resulted as follows: To sustain the complaint, 77; to sustain in part, 49; not to sustain, 39.

The appointment of a committee was moved, to bring in a minute upon the case. Carried.

On motion the Assembly adjourned to 8½ A. M., to-morrow, after prayer by Rev. Joseph Worrell.

TUESDAY Morning, June 2.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

The Rev. J. Wood, from the Committee on Leave of Absence, reported that they have given leave to the following named persons:

Ministers, L. C. Baker, A. J. McMillan, R. McCachren, J. A. Quarles, E. P. Shields, G. Ainsley, J. Osmond, W. Phraner, J. A. Meeks, J. C. Thompson, J. M. Cross, A. B. Gilliland, and L G. Hay. Ruling elders, J. G. Barrett, S. Sharp, R. M. Jones, G. W. Lewis, T. McKennan, W. Risely, T. S. Milligan, J. S. Purdy, I. Tate, J. C. Walker, W. McCullough, J. A. McAfee, J. M. Lasher, J. A. Christie, W. L. Wood, W. Mixer, and S. Vannuys.

The report was approved.

The Moderator announced as the Committee to bring in a minute on Judicial Case No. 1, Drs. Lillie, Wines, and Nevin, and ruling elders H. H. Leavitt, and George Junkin, Jr.

Rev. R Beer moved the following:

Resolved, That a committee of three ministers and two elders be appointed to consider the expediency of a plan by which ministers without charge, and licentiates, and vacant churches, shall be brought to acquaintance with each other, and to report on the same to the next General Assembly.

The resolution was carried.

Rev. Dr. Humphrey moved the reference of Judicial Case No. 9 to the next General Assembly.

Rev. S. S. Sheddan moved to amend by postponing the case for the present, in order to take up Judicial Case No. 11. Carried.

It was moved that the recommendation of the Judicial Committee, in this case, be adopted.

Dr. Goodale moved, as an amendment, that the complaint be dismissed, there being no ground for appeal.

The previous question was called for, and being duly sustained, the vote was taken, and the recommendation of the Judicial Committee, in the case, was adopted as follows:

Judicial Case No. 11 is the appeal of Dr. Thomas F. Worrell against the Synod of Illinois, together with the complaint of the Rev. Isaac A. Cornelison against the same Synod.

The Committee report that the appeal and the complaint relate to the same matter, and they recommend that they be tried together as one cause.

The papers are in order, and the case is ready for trial.

The Committee find, further, that the Synod, in a minute expressing its judgment in a certain case then pending, to which Dr. Worrell was a party, adopted the following as a part of their judgment: "And, further, inasmuch as this trial grew out of a previous one with Dr. Worrell, in which the adjustment partook of the nature of a compromise, and certain irregularities which are not constitutional; and as the ends of discipline were not accomplished in the case of Dr. Worrell, the session of that church should review their proceedings in his case." This part of the minutes is the subject matter of the appeal and complaint. In the judgment of the Committee, it was not competent for the Synod, when judicially determining one case, to open another case already settled and determined; this last case having been adjusted two years before, and the record of the adjustment having already passed before Synod, by way of review and control. The Committee therefore recommend that the appeal of Dr. Worrell be sustained. The complaint of Mr. Cornelison being to the same effect, is determined by this judgment on the appeal.

On motion, the report of Mr. E. B. Miller, from the Committee of a former Assembly on Church Corporations, was taken from the docket, and the whole subject was laid upon the table.

Judicial Case No. 2 was taken from the docket, and the recommendation of the Judicial Committee, on the case, was adopted as follows:

This case is an appeal of Mr. C. J. Abbott against the Synod of Missouri. Mr. Abbott, in a letter addressed to a member of the General Assembly, states that he is prevented, by sickness, from attending and prosecuting his appeal; and he asks for the reference of his case to the Assembly of 1864.

The Committee recommend that his request be granted.

Judicial Case No. 9, was taken up, and the reading of the papers was begun.

The Assembly adjourned, after prayer by Rev. H. M. Scudder, until 2½ P. M.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON, 2½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. S. Wilson.

The Rev. Lewis C. Baker presented a protest against the action of the Assembly on the state of the country, which, on motion, was admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned begs leave to protest against the action of the General Assembly in adopting the report of the Committee on the state of the country, because, while on the one hand it rightly denounces rebellion, and enjoins the duty of reverence and obedience to the powers that be, on the other, it fails to recognise the fundamental antagonism there is between the kingdom of Christ, in its origin, progress, and destiny, and every form of the world-power not founded upon it. L. C. Baker.

Dr. Loyal Young, for himself and others, offered a dissent from the action of the Assembly in Judicial Case No. 11, which, on motion, was admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned would hereby respectfully dissent from the judgment of the General Assembly in Judicial Case No. 11, in sustaining the appeal of Dr. Worrell, on the ground that the merits of the cause were not regularly before the Assembly by the reading of the necessary papers, as prescribed by the constitution.

Loyal Young, W. B. Keeling,
Hovey K. Clarke, G. W. Mechlin.
M. S. Goodale, J. S. Elder,
George B. Johnston, George P. Hays.
J. W. Johnston.

Judicial Case No. 9 was again taken up, and the Clerk proceeded with the reading of the papers. After the completion of which, the parties in the case agreed to submit it to the decision of the Assembly without argument. The roll was called for the opinions of the members.

The Assembly then proceeded to vote in the case, with the following result: to sustain the appeal, 47; to sustain in part, 10; not to sustain, 58; non liquet, 10.

On motion, the remainder of the Revised Book of Discipline, from the beginning of Chapter VIII., was referred to the next General Assembly, and that Assembly was requested to make its consideration the order of the day for the second day of its sessions.

On motion of Judge Leavitt, the Special Committee appointed by the last Assembly to report to this Assembly on the Disabled Ministers' Fund, was discharged from the further consideration of that subject.

On motion of the Rev. S. S. Sheddan, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of the Assembly are hereby tendered to the pastor and trustees of this church, and also of the Second church, for the accommodations they have furnished the Assembly and their Committees.

Resolved, 2. That we thankfully acknowledge the indefatigable labour of the Committee of Arrangements, their extensive correspondence with railroad companies, and their cheerful completion of those arrangements with the members of the Assembly; and we also tender through them, our thanks to those railroad companies who have been so liberal to us.

Resolved, 3. That we recognise in this a special providence of God, that a faithful and devoted missionary, after twenty-five years in the foreign field, should be our impartial and revered Moderator. Our prayers go with him. May his spirit of missions animate us!

Resolved, 4. That we gratefully record the generous hospitality of the citizens of Peoria; and we tender our thanks to the families of our own and other denominations, and citizens generally, who have so cordially and delightfully homed us amongst them; and we further thank the press for their impartial reports of our proceedings.

On motion, it was resolved, that when the Assembly adjourn this afternoon, it be to 7½ o'clock this evening.

After spending a half hour in devotional exercises, the Assembly adjourned until 7½ P. M.

TUESDAY EVENING, 7½ o'clock.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. William Willson.

The minutes of the forenoon and afternoon were read and approved.

On motion of the Rev. J. F. Jennison, it was Resolved, That the papers containing the complaint and appeal in Judicial Case No. 11, be returned to the Synod of Illinois, it forming part of their records, and they having no copy.

The Moderator announced as the Special Committee, on the resolution of Rev. R. Beer, this forenoon adopted in reference to ministers without charge, licentiates, and vacant churches, the following persons, viz., Rev. John M. Krebs, D. D., Rev. Ashbel G. Fairchild, D. D., Rev. William C. Roberts, of Columbus, Ohio, and ruling elders Robert Carter, of New York, and Charles Crosby, of Dixon, Illinois.

On motion, the decision of the Assembly on Judicial Case No. 11, was reconsidered.

Mr. A. B. Conger moved that the decision of this forenoon be affirmed.

Dr. J. M. Lowrie moved the postponement of the case to the next Assembly. This motion was lost.

The motion of Mr. Conger was then carried, and the former decision was affirmed.

Against this decision, the Rev. J. W. Johnston, and others, offered a protest, which, on motion, was admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned respectfully protest against the action of this General Assembly, in their decision in Judicial Case No. 11, viz.—the appeal of F. F. Worrell, and complaint of J. A. Cornelison, from and against the decision of the Synod of Illinois.

The history of the case, as appears from the records, is briefly this:

On the 8th day of September, A. D. 1859, Dr. Worrell was found guilty, by the session of the first church of Bloomington, of the sins of falsehood and slander, and suspended from the communion of the church. After hearing the case upon an appeal regularly taken, the Presbytery of Bloomington, on the 11th of November, A. D. 1859, affirmed the decision of the session. Thereupon, Dr. Worrell, on the 12th of November, presented to the session a paper, which the session accepted as such a confession of guilt and profession of penitence as is required by the Directory for Worship, Chap. X., Sect. 5, and restored him to the communion of the church. This action of session was on the same day communicated to the Presbytery, and that communication was entered upon the records of Presbytery. On the 5th day of December following, Dr. Worrell issued a printed circular, in which he declared that he had never intended to confess his guilt of the charges of which he had been convicted; and, also, that the session had "conceded that he was not guilty of any one of the charges of which they themselves had convicted him."

For making the statements contained in that circular, charges of falsehood and insincerity were preferred against Dr. Worrell, upon which he was tried by the session, found guilty, and suspended the second time. From this decision of the session, Dr. Worrell appealed to the Presbytery, and the appeal was sustained. The session then appealed to the Synod of Illinois, and the Synod made the decision brought before this General Assembly, by the appeal and complaint in this case.

The question, therefore, presented by the charges in this case is, whether Dr. Worrell, in the paper presented by him to the session, made such a confession of guilt, and such a profession of penitence, as the session assumed him to have made in the former case. If he did, the session might justly have found him guilty of falsehood and insincerity, in the statements made in the circular. If he made no confession, then the session could not rightfully find him guilty of the charges in this case. The session did find him guilty. The Presbytery reversed the decision of the session. The Synod concurred with the Presbytery, and gave as the reasons for their decision in the minute appealed from and complained of, viz.—that the transaction between Dr. Worrell and the session, by which he was restored, was of the nature of a compromise, and was therefore irregular and unconstitutional, and they directed the session to review their procedings in that respect.

We protest against this action of the General Assembly, for the following reasons, viz.

1. Our first ground for protest is, that this Assembly has decided the appeal and complaint on the merits, by the adoption of a resolution proposed by the Judicial Committee, without hearing the case in the manner prescribed by the Book of Discipline, Chap. VII., Sec. 3, Sub. Sec. 8; and also without any opportunity for either party to be heard in the case. The very question presented by the appeal to the Assembly was, whether the Synod could rightfully make the decision appealed from. And this question has been decided by a resolution proposed by the Committee, and not by the judgment of the Assembly, pronounced after a regular hearing of the appeal.

2. We also protest against this decision, on the ground that the action of Synod was not only constitutional, but also eminently just and proper. If it be true—as in this case it must be assumed to be—that the session had restored Dr. Worrell without any profession of penitence, such as is contemplated by the Constitution of the Church, (see Directory for Worship, Chap. X., Sec. 5,) then clearly it was the duty of Synod to rebuke the irregular and unconstitutional proceedings of the session, and to direct them to review it. This it seems to us was clearly within the power of the Synod, either in giving a complete judgment upon the appeal case before them, or in the exercise of their power of review and control over inferior judicatories. (See Book of Discipline, Chap. VII., Sec. 1, Sub. Sec. 5.)

3. The suggestion of the Committee, that the fact that the Presbyterial records containing the action of the session in the first case of Dr. Worrell, had been approved by the Synod, without exception, from which we suppose the Committee designed it to be inferred that Synod could not afterward review the action of the session mentioned in that record, does not, as it seems to us, justify that inference. Such approval by Synod, of minutes, ought not to be held to have any effect whatever in their subsequent decision of a judicial case regularly presented. If this opinion be not correct, then is the decision of the Assembly against which we now protest, clearly wrong, since, no longer ago than last Saturday, this venerable body approved, without any exception, the minutes of the Synod of Illinois, including the record of their proceedings in this very case. And this approval was after the Judicial Committee had made their report, and the motion to adopt it had been under discussion.

4. We further protest, because this action of the General Assembly seems to us to decide an important judicial case upon mere technical grounds, and without a full investigation of its merits; and therefore tends, as we think, greatly to embarrass and discourage inferior judicatories, and especially church sessions, in the exercise of discipline.

This our solemn protest is respectfully submitted, and we ask that it be entered upon the minutes of the Assembly.

J. W. Johnston,
John Wiseman,
William McCulloch,
J. M. Cross,
W. R. Vincent.

The Committee appointed to bring in a minute in regard to Judicial Case No. 1, reported as follows:

1. A minute signed by Dr. Wines and Judge Leavitt, as follows:

The undersigned, who voted with the larger part of the Assembly, in the case of Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, D. D., and others, complainants against the Synod of Kentucky, in its action limiting the right of voting, in the election of a pastor, to communicating members of the church, recommend the adoption of the following resolution as the judgment of the Assembly in the said case:

Resolved, That the complaint be sustained; but the Assembly, in this judgment, does not intend to condemn a practice prevalent in some of our congregations, in which the right of voting for pastor is confined to communicants.

E. C. Wines,
H. H. Leavitt.

2. A minute signed by Rev. A. Nevin, D. D., and George Junkin, Jr., as follows:

The undersigned members of the Committee appointed to prepare a minute expressive of the sense of the Assembly on the complaint of R. J. Breckinridge and others, against the Synod of Kentucky,

Respectfully recommend the adoption of the following, viz.: the Assembly sustains the complaint in so far as the action of the Synod declares that our Form of Church Government restricts the right of voting for a pastor, to full communicants, to the exclusion of other baptized members of the church. But the latitude of suffrage which the complainants plead for, seems to the Assembly too vague, and tending too much to obliterate the scriptural and constitutional distinctions between professing and baptized members, and persons who have no other connection with the church than the contribution of funds to support her ordinances.

The Assembly is of opinion, that whilst no one is entitled to vote except professing Christians, and baptized persons not under censure, and who contribute their just proportion to the necessary expenses of the congregation, yet that it is competent for congregations to permit mere contributors to the expenses of the congregation, to vote in cases where this course, by reason of peculiar circumstances, may be deemed best for the prosperity of the church.

Alfred Nevin,
Geo. Junkin, Jr.

3. Another minute, signed by the Rev. John Lillie, D. D., as follows:

The undersigned member of the Committee appointed to prepare a minute expressive of the sense of the Assembly on the complaint of R. J.

Breckinridge and others, against the Synod of Kentucky, respectfully recommends the adoption of the following:

The Assembly sustains the complaint in so far as the action of the Synod restricts the right of voting for a pastor to full communicants, to the exclusion of baptized members of the church. But the latitude of suffrage which the complainants plead for, the Assembly does not sustain, because it tends to obliterate the scriptural and constitutional distinction between baptized members, and persons who have no other connection with the church than the contribution of funds to support her ordinances.

JOHN LILLIE.

The roll was ordered to be called, and the members had opportunity to vote for either of the three reports. The following was the result: for Dr. Wines's minute 72 votes were given; for Dr. Nevin's, 55; for Dr. Lillie's, 17.

On motion of Mr. H. K. Clarke, the minutes reported by Drs. Nevins and Lillie were then laid upon the table.

On a motion to adopt the minute reported by Dr. Wines, the ayes and noes were called, with the following result:

AYES.—Ministers.—J. Wood, M. S. Goodale, A. J. Rankin, T. M. Gray, Joseph Cory, E. E. Rankin, E. C. Wines, E. P. Benedict, J. P. Knox, A. D. White, R. S. Manning, W. H. Kirk, Joseph Beggs, D. H. Barron, Wm. Life, J. Thomas, R. C. Galbraith, George P. Hays, W. C. Cattell, F. T. Brown, R. F. Wilson, W. B. McIlvaine, R. Lea, S. McFarren, L. Young, J. W. Johnston, W. M. Blackburn, L. L. This minute was therefore adopted.

On motion of Dr. Beatty, it was Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to condense into a mere enumeration, the present form in the statistical tables of our printed Minutes for those Presbyteries in the Southern Synods that have not sent their annual reports.

On motion of Dr. Wines, the vote fixing the place of meeting for the next Assembly was reconsidered.

Newark, New Jersey, and Washington, District of Columbia, were named, and Newark was chosen.

It was

Resolved, That the next Assembly meet in the Third Presbyterian church in Newark, New Jersey.

Dr. Lillie offered, for himself and others, a protest against the decision of the Assembly sustaining the complaint against the Synod of Kentucky.

On motion, this protest was admitted to record, and is as follows:

The undersigned beg leave respectfully to offer their protest against the decision of the Assembly, sustaining the complaint of the Synod of Kentucky, in so far as that decision goes to allow unbaptized persons the privilege of voting for pastors of the church of God—such a rule being in their judgment irreconcilable with the Presbyterian and scriptural idea of the constitution, government, and discipline of the church. We ask, also, that this protest be entered on the Minutes of the Assembly.

John Wiseman,

The minutes were read and adopted.

The Moderator, Dr. J. H. Morrison, then delivered to the Assembly the following address, which, on motion, was ordered to be inserted in the minutes.

Fathers and Brothers—The hour for the dissolution of this body has arrived. To me it is a moment of most solemn and significant interest. Here we have met on life's pilgrimage, most of us for the first and the last time. We have assembled here from various and distant parts of the great field assigned to us by the Lord of the harvest. And now we part again to go to our respective spheres of labour, to gather in our sheaves from fields white and ready for the sickle. To me our intercourse during this brief period has been delightful. It has been undisturbed by any word or act towards me personally or officially, in private or public, that could leave a clouded spot upon the recollection of this brief season. For this I thank you. And if I have said or done anything that has been unjust or injurious to the feelings of any one, I ask your forgiveness, assuring you that it has been entirely an error of the head and not of the heart. I assure you that I am utterly unconscious of having intended or done anything of the kind. I came here deeply depressed and discouraged with the prospects of the work to which my life has been devoted, but you have greatly cheered and encouraged me. You have testified your interest in that work by calling me, from among many older and better qualified, to preside over your deliberations. You have done it as a testimony to your appreciation of that great work. You have borne with my inexperience and defects, and carried me through the difficult and delicate duties of this office. For this I thank you, both in my own name and in that of my brethren in the missionary work. You have still further cheered and encouraged me by the hearty response you have given to the appeal made to you in behalf of our broken down missions. Now, dear brethren, bear in mind all this, and reflect with what a crushing weight of disappointment will the news fall upon us, if we hear that you have gone home to forget all this, and do nothing more to help us than has been done heretofore. Allow me to beg that you will keep fresh in your memories the sweet hours we have spent together, the solemn pledges we have mutually given to do our respective parts in the great work of saving a lost world. Go, dear brethren, tell your Presbyteries and your flocks what you have pledged to God and his cause. Tell them of the nature of our work, and how we are struggling to bear the heat and burthen of the day. Endeavour to excite their interest on behalf of their missionaries, in behalf of a dying world and a bleeding Saviour. Endeavour to get them to inform themselves on all these subjects, that they too may work and pray with you and us.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you. This is no mere formal request or vain rhetorical flourish. We ask it as a drowning man cries for help. Nothing so distresses a missionary as to feel that he is neglected in the prayers of God's people; and nothing so cheers and encourages him as the assurance that the earnest fervent prayer of the church is being offered for him continually. Now, dear brethren, we part to meet again before the great white throne—may the Spirit of God ever guide you in all your ways—may the love of Jesus ever sustain and animate your hearts, and may the blessing of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, ever rest in rich abundance on you and your families, your flocks, and on the whole church of the living God.

On motion of Dr. E. P. Humphrey, it was

Resolved, That this General Assembly be dissolved; and that another General Assembly, chosen in like manner, be required to meet in the Third Presbyterian church in the city of Newark, and State of New Jersey, on the third Thursday of May, at 11 o'clock, A. M., in the year of our Lord 1864.

Closed with singing, prayer, and the apostolic benediction.

STATED CLERK.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA TO THE CHURCHES UNDER THEIR CARE:

Beloved Brethren—"Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ." Assembled in quietness for the transaction of the business pertaining to this highest court of our Zion, though turbulent war still rages in the land, we have turned, with deep interest, to inquire into your spiritual state, the steadfastness of your faith, and the progress of vital religion among you. And now, after a careful examination of the reports of the several Presbyteries, which have been laid before us, we gladly "rehearse all that God has done with you, and how he has opened the door of faith" to many of the people of the world; and thereby would we, if possible, "cause great joy unto all the brethren"—wherein fidelity may require us to lay before you evidences of barrenness in our spiritual heritage, or encroachments of the world's wickedness upon the kingdom of God's dear Son, we count it a privilege to mingle our tears of penitence with yours, and to join you in fervent supplications for the Lord's restoring hand. And most heartily also shall we joy and rejoice with you all, in so far as we may speak of mercies and blessings, giving all the glory to an ascended Redeemer, and a sanctifying Spirit.

The several reports, with marked uniformity, refer to the fiery civil strife through which our country is passing, upon no less an issue than the existence of our matchless government. They tell us, in grateful terms, of the spirit of unhesitating loyalty which pervades the masses of our ministry and membership. They speak of vacant places, alike in the family and the church, as well as of diminished working force in the Sabbath-school, and other instrumentalities of usefulness—nay, even of fresh graves and desolated hearts, by reason of the joint call of patriotism and piety, which has led forth our young men and strong, by thousands, to the deadly conflicts of battle. Many of them lament the prevalence of dull religious feeling, and a consequent neglect of divine ordinances, as a result of the intense concern of our people in behalf of their imperilled civil liberties; and, still more, of the increase of intemperance, profanity, Sabbath breaking, and lawlessness, under the pressure of the prevailing excitement of the public mind. Others tell us, with gratitude, how the surety of the better covenant has overruled this "great fight of affliction," using it for the humiliation of God's people—stirring, thereby, the hidden springs of Christian charity in behalf of the bodily and spiritual wants of the army and navy, and evoking a spirit of prayer, whose returns have been largely seen in the conversion of soldiers even amidst the temptations of the camp, as well as in the baptism of revival upon the churches at home. All unite in regarding the present crisis as one of eminent trial, in which the Lord is "answering by terrible things in righteousness." It is to be feared, alas, that not only does iniquity abound, but that the love of many is waxing cold. Yet we cannot doubt the pledge both of promise and of history, that "when the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." We counsel you, brethren, at such a time, to be "steadfast and unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord." Nor would we fail also—without assuming to control your political opinions—to inculcate, as a Christian obligation, that pure and enlarged patriotism which rises above partisanship, and "not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake," secures fidelity to "the powers that be," which "are ordained of God." In this we only obey the apostolic injunction, which says, "Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work." And so, may we hope that, in fidelity to all your relations, whether as loyal citizens of the state, or "heirs of the promise," you may be "blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world."

Passing in review, in the first place, the general condition of the churches, we are impressed with the intermingling of adversity and prosperity—now exciting apprehension, and now again kindling the eye of hope. From the Presbyteries embraced within the lines of the atrocious rebellion now desolating the southern portion of our country, we have received no reports. We only know, from general sources of information, that the terrible retribution which has followed this relentless effort to destroy, without cause, a good government, has fallen nowhere with greater disaster than upon the church and its institutions. When, as we hope, in the good providence of God, the dark cloud shall be scattered, the call will, doubtless, be louder than ever before for zeal and prayer, for the supply of the gospel in the track of these sad desolations. Our brethren located near the border of the rebel States, and peculiarly exposed to the trials of these times, tell us of political and social affinities ruptured in bitterness, and of strife and alienation in the church; and yet speak, with gratitude, of the sovereign grace which has, to so large an extent, held the sway of forbearance in the fellowship of the gospel. They have our warmest sympathy and prayers for their preservation. In many other portions of the church, there has been more or less of excitement and irritation—loosening somewhat the bonds of union between pastors and people, as well as among the people themselves; though here, too, in view of the turbulence of the times, there is no record plainer to the vision of faith, than that of the gentle care of the "great Shepherd of the sheep."

For the most part, harmony prevails throughout our communion. The word of life has been preached in our congregations with more than accustomed fidelity and power. With comparatively few exceptions, the people have waited upon the messages of salvation in greatly increased numbers. The prayer-meeting, pastoral visitation, and catechetical instruction continue to be employed, along with the worship of the Lord's house, with the most encouraging results. Sabbath-schools and Bible classes, those efficient auxiliaries to parental labours for the religious instruction of the young, and operating properly within the church, and under its control, and not in rivalry with it, are taking a still firmer hold upon the affections of God's people, and gradually enlisting more and more of their activities. The commendable practice, also, adopted by some pastors, and worthy to be adopted by all, of preaching sermons to the children and youth, at suitable intervals, and in a style adapted to their capacities, is hailed by the Assembly as one of the most hopeful signs of wholesome progress. Neither should we fail to notice with satisfaction, the manifest improvement in the amount, and in the prompt payment of pastors' salaries, especially in view of the increased expense of living, as well as the successful efforts, in many quarters, to liquidate church debts, which have so often bedimmed the lustre of Christian morality, and hindered the cause of Christ. For all that is bright in these tokens, it becomes us to be duly grateful. Yet it must not be forgotten, that as ever before, and now more than ever, the church is in conflict with the world. We must meet it as an armed foe, in the heresies of its multiform unbelief, in its untold violations of the divine law, in its hostility to the cross and crown of the Redeemer, in its insidious attempts to corrupt sound doctrine and order, in its arts to seduce the disciples into evil paths, and in the malignant zeal with which it obstructs the channels of access to the hearts of the impenitent. Our warfare must be unceasing. Our vigilance must never tire. Our work for the Master must not end while the day lasts.

Turning now from this general sketch, to a more particular inquiry, concerning the progress of the church in spiritual life, we are met with still more precious manifestations. Many Presbyteries do indeed lament, in strong terms, the prevalence of coldness in divine things. Formality in worship, a spirit of worldliness among professing Christians, outbursts of vice and crime in the community, indifference to spiritual interests on the part of the unconverted, and the consequent reduction of admissions to the communion of the church, are the burden of these complaints. We need not remind you how much they imply of unfaithfulness, on the part of ministers, ruling elders, and private members, or how naturally they answer to declension in faith, zeal, and prayer. Yet lamentation itself is profitable, both as the evidence and means of return to a forsaken Father. Not until we are brought to cry, "Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more? is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore? hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he, in anger, shut up his tender mercies?" will we be led truly to see our "infirmity," and then "remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."

But in far larger proportion than for several years past, are the reports of an opposite character. The proof is unmistakable, that He whose coming is noiseless as the wind, has descended, according to the promise, into the hearts of many, who have brought the tithes into the storehouse. The Hearer of prayer has never "said to the seed of Jacob, seek ye me in vain." Perhaps the God of all grace has been, all the while, by means of the clouds and darkness of his displeasure, humbling his own dear children, that, in their extremity, they might find a refuge in "the hidings of his power." It is at least certain that his covenant has he not broken, nor altered the thing that is gone out of his lips, nor has he suffered his faithfulness to fail.

From all that we can gather, it is clear that God's work has been greatly revived during the past winter. Symptoms of incipient revival are wide-spread over the land, alike in the older churches, and in those supplied by the toiling missionaries of our Domestic Board. The people seem to have been moved to more fervent and united prayer for the outpouring of the Spirit. Ministers of the word have received fresh "unction from the Holy One." The ordinary means of grace have been used with unusual humility and earnestness. The extremities and gloom of war have shut up the faithful, who have sighed and cried over the prevalent abominations, to the sole resort of the mercy-seat, and God has not only set a mark upon their foreheads for preservation, but for their sakes, has also opened the windows of heaven, and poured out blessings upon his desolate heritage. Many of the reports lead us to infer, and not a few expressly declare, that the observance of the first week of January, in special prayer for the conversion of the whole world, in accordance with the recommendation of the last Assembly, and in concert with evangelical Christians of our own and other lands, has been largely blessed to this end. Whilst the hearts of God's people were thus enlarged to plead his covenant, in behalf of all nations, it has graciously pleased him to return an answer of salvation to themselves, their children, and their neighbours. The day of prayer for the youth of colleges, seminaries, and schools, so largely attended in past years with divine favour, was observed as usual, and more than one Presbytery associate it with these gracious visitations, thus showing again how the Lord delights to meet the faith of his chosen with the fulfilment of the promise, "I will pour my Spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring." Besides the numerous Presbyteries, which speak of undeveloped revivals, and of unusual accessions to their membership, others record special and powerful awakenings, and large ingatherings into some of their churches. We mention particularly, as sharing more or less in these blessed fruits, the Presbyteries of Schuyler, New Brunswick, Steubenville, Washington, Long Island, West Jersey, Allegheny, Luzerne, Passaic, Elizabethtown, Huntingdon, Carlisle, Newton, Hudson, Mohawk, Richland, Saline, Rochester City, and New York. Special mention is made of the converting power of the Spirit, as manifested in the Synodical Academy at Geneseo and Westminster Synodical College, as well as the Steubenville Female Seminary. Other institutions have been blessed to some extent in like manner.

Whilst such have been the dealings of divine grace at home, you will be more than gratified to learn that similar tokens have been given in the foreign field. The Board of Foreign Missions informs us that the churches under their care, (included in the widely extended fields of sixty-seven ministers of the gospel, assisted by sixteen male and seventy-one female labourers from this country, and ninety-seven native helpers,) have nearly all enjoyed encouraging proofs of the Holy Spirit. The Presbyteries of Lodiana and Siam report diligence and success in their work, though amidst great discouragements. The brethren of the Presbytery of Ningpo, in China, whose labours have been so largely blessed for the last three years, tell us of great impediments and dangers, growing out of the great rebellion, though their faith is steadfast, that present trials will prove ultimate blessings. They speak with gratitude, also, of the fidelity of the native converts, who, with a few exceptions, have nobly withstood their persecutions, and remain true to the name by which they are called. The Presbytery of West Africa, embracing within its limits the Republic of Liberia, and a vast heathen territory besides, furnish a gratifying account of the day and boarding-schools under their supervision—the progress of civilization and Christian knowledge among the recaptured Africans, mainly through the influence of Sabbath-schools—the salutary effect of Christian and civilized settlements upon the contiguous native Africans —and especially the success of the gospel at the stations of Mount Coffee, Careysburg, Clay-Ashland, and Monrovia. They say that "God has blessed them with glorious results in each of these stations, and quite a number have been added to the churches, while the new members seem to live up to their privileges, and to verify to all that God has power to forgive sinners through the atoning blood of Christ." And thus we see, that whilst the work of the church is the same at home and abroad, the same seal of the Holy Spirit of promise is never withheld, in the way of his own covenant.

It is proper, now, to conclude this narrative with a brief reference to the power, obligation, and prospects of the church in relation to the great work before her. Progress is a fundamental law of her very life. It is, therefore, an infallible test of her prosperity. A child without growth must needs be sickly. A mind, stationary in knowledge and thought, is doomed to imbecility. So it is in spirituality—we must "forget the things that are behind," and "go on unto perfection." So also it is, in the great enterprise committed to God's people, of spreading evangelical religion throughout the world. The Saviour's words are a rule for all ages, with only the modification of times, places, and circumstances. "But ye shall receive power after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." We counsel you, brethren, in view of these things, to remember your high vocation. Besides the surpassing interests at stake in your own behalf, the example of your actions, words, and spirit, are a great power for good or evil, especially in these distressing times. As "the light of the world," to shine in the lustre of the Master's glory; as "the salt of the earth," for its moral preservation; as "living epistles, known and read of all men," your attainments in godliness are a sacred trust for yourselves, for others, and for Christ. We beseech you, therefore, to be sober and vigilant amidst manifold temptations; to be diligent in cultivating piety in your own hearts, and ever to remember that "ye are not your own; for ye are bought with a price."

With like earnestness we remind you of your relative duties. Union in feeling, co-operation in effort, and mutual prayer for each other, well become "the household of God," one of whose primary obligations is that of "striving together for the faith of the gospel." "Let the ministers of the Lord weep between the porch and the altar," that the people may be spared, and the heritage of the sanctuary be not given to reproach; and to "win souls," let them not fail with all diligence to teach the way of salvation, "publicly, and from house to house." Let the elders "rule well," not forgetting to "study the peace, unity, and purity of the church," as they have promised, and ever ready to sustain the hands of their pastors in every good work. Let the deacons "be found blameless" in their mission of love, that they may "purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. Let the people remember the admonition which says, "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves; for they watch for your souls as they that must give account; that they may do it with joy, and not with grief." In such "charity, which is the bond of perfectness," not only may the unity of the body of Christ be preserved, but "the Lord," as in pentecostal times, will "add to the church, daily, such as should be saved." Instead of alternate revival and declension, we might then hope, by the continual effusion of the Spirit, to see Zion "arise and shine, her light being come, and the glory of the Lord risen upon her."

Nor, finally, would we fail, in this connection, to urge upon you a more hearty, vigorous, and united support of those approved schemes of beneficence, through whose channels our love for Christ may so effectually flow. Our Form of Government puts "making collections for the poor, and other pious uses," among the "ordinances established by Christ," and the Directory for Worship prescribes "a collection for the poor, or other purposes of the church," as one of the several acts of worship in the house of God, upon the Lord's day. Even more direct is the inspired command—"Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." It is upon this basis that the General Assembly, after many years of preparation, adopted the scheme of "Systematic Benevolence" now in operation among us, which founds the duty of giving upon the principle of devotion to Christ, and substitutes the free action of the disciples, under direct and sole responsibility to the Master, for the pressure of outside human agency. We urge self-denying fidelity to this obligation upon your consciences, not more that the streams of beneficence may flow freely, making the cause of the Lord to prosper, than as one of the divinely appointed means of your own growth in grace, and of the spiritual power and progress of the church. It is only "he that watereth others," who may expect to "be watered also himself." "God loveth a cheerful giver."

The Assembly regards with unfeigned pleasure the liberal benefactions of our churches and people, through the "Christian Commission," and other agencies for the temporal relief of the defenders of our government, whether by sea or land, and particularly for their spiritual welfare; and does not hesitate to commend such efforts, as there may be necessity in time to come, with fervent prayer for a blessing upon them. We would not have you relax your interest in the cause of the Bible, and others which we have recommended in times past. But we feel that the several Boards of the church make a peculiar appeal to your interest and support, in the present emergency. The Board of Church Extension, pressed with more than one hundred applications for aid in the erection of houses of worship, by new or weak churches—the Board of Publication, which has already reached more than half a million of soldiers and sailors, with its evangelical publications—the Board of Education, with a diminished number of candidates, owing to the demands of the war, but rejoicing in the increased missionary zeal of those under their care—the Board of Domestic Missions, with an ever-widening work, and yet without any thing like a commensurate supply of means—and, most of all, the Board of Foreign Missions, hindered by the cost of exchange with other countries, owing to the state of the currency, and yet called, as never before, to occupy new fields, not to speak of the imminent danger of surrendering ground, already under cultivation—all these appeal to the church for renewed and enlarged support, and, in their earnest pleading, we hear the voice of the Lord. Brethren, we must awake to our high responsibilities. We must not slumber whilst the countless millions of our fellow-men are passing into an unblessed eternity, without the gospel, which has brought the joy of salvation to our hearts and homes.

In the absence of other agency to give information to the people, and thereby advance these great interests, we respectfully urge upon pastors and sessions such methods as their judgments may approve, in order to supply each family, if possible, with a copy of the Home and Foreign Record, in which the operations of each of these Boards are represented. Let the people know the work to which they are summoned, with its trials and successes, and then meet the condemnation of loiterers in the Lord's vineyard, or rejoice in the reward which awaits "good and faithful servants."

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work, to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

March 2d, "	Mrs. Jane Lyle's Legacy received,	117 80

The Committee would respectfully submit the above statement of the Permanent Funds, as showing the amount that has been received from May 1st, 1862, to May 1st, 1863, and the amount now waiting for investment.

The Committee further report, that the balance of $15,048.97 consists of $9462.31, belonging to the Disabled Ministers' Fund; and of the residue of $5586.66, only the above sum of $3939.19 ought to be invested. The whole of this amount is in Bank, drawing four per cent. interest. The Disabled Ministers' Fund cannot be permanently invested. It must be held to answer the drafts of the Committee, for the reasons stated in the report of that Committee.

The Committee being limited by the General Assembly, to bonds and mortgages, in making investments, have found great difficulty in getting such securities, in consequence of the troubled state of the country. The Committee would suggest that the General Assembly should allow investments to be made in such securities as trustees, executors, and guardians are by law, in this State, allowed to invest trust funds in, which are the public loans of the United States, the State of Pennsylvania, and of the city of Philadelphia, and in bonds and mortgages.

The whole number connected with the Seminary has been one hundred and eighty-one, of whom ten have been absent the whole term.

Of the above, Wm. W. Annan, John C. Bienhauer, Hunter Corbett, D. Hull Laverty, John Woods, Joseph C. Kelley, and B. H. Witherow, came with regular testimonials from the Western Theological Seminary; John Rule from the Seminary at Danville; George A. Hutchison, from the Theological Seminary at Monmouth; H. M. McCracken, from the United Presbyterian Seminary at Xenia, Ohio; Israel Carlton, Edward C. Ewing, and John C. Houghton, from the Seminary at Bangor; Henry E. Butler, and Arthur Little, from the Seminary at Andover; Clarence Eddy, from the Theological Department of Yale College; Gulich Vanaken, from the Union Theological Seminary, New York; William M. Van Wagener, from the Reformed Dutch Seminary at New Brunswick; and J. H. Appleton, from the Rochester Theological Seminary.

The students have enjoyed general good health, and have been attentive to their studies. Devotional exercises have, with few exceptions, been attended with interest and life. More than ordinary willingness to engage in foreign missions, has been manifested. Four, at least, of the Senior class have offered themselves for this service, and a large number in the other classes.

At the close of the session the students were examined by a committee of the Board for five successive days, who report great pleasure at the result. Certificates of having finished the whole course of three years, were conferred on the following thirty-eight of the Senior Class, viz., John J. Abernathy, George D. Baker, John C. Bienhauer, J. C. Boyd, Theron Brittain, Walter S. Brown, Nathan P. Campfield, Robert A. Condit, Hunter Corbett, William H. Dean, S. J. Donnelly, Edward C. Ewing, J. Selby Frame, Benjamin Y. George, William H. Jeffries, James B. Kennedy, F. L. Kenyon, D. H. Laverty, Alexander McBean, Edmund McKinney, J. Lynn Mulligan, J. Thompson Osler, William J. Parrott, B. F. Patterson, J. H. Schofield, George Sluter, Alexander Strain, and H. H. White, J. Lynn Withrow, and W. O. Wright.

The Board have further to report, that the term of office of the following Directors expires during the session of the General Assembly:

WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary present to the General Assembly their Thirty-sixth Annual Report, as follows, viz.

Since the last annual report, there have been admitted to the Seminary the following forty-four students:

Daniel J. Bridge,	graduate of	Indiana University.
David Brown,	"	Washington College, Pa.
Edward W. Brown,	"	Denison University.
Albert J. Caldwell,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.
William Davis,	"	Washington College, Pa.

John S. Lutz,	"	" "
John C. McClintock,	"	" "
Samuel T. McClure,	"	Hanover College, Indiana.
Thomas A. McCurdy,	"	Washington College, Pa.
James D. Moorhead,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.
Henry V. Noyes,	"	Western Reserve, Ohio.
William J. Parke,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.

James T. Patterson,	graduate of	Hanover College, Indiana.
Henry N. Potter,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.
William L. Rabe.
Carson Reed,	"	" "
James Stuart Reed,	"	" "
James Marion Reid,	"	Vermillion Institute.
Henry W. Roth,	"	Pennsylvania College.
Levi M. Schofield,	"	Hanover College, Indiana.
George W. Smyth,	"	New York University.
Benj'n F. Woodburn,	"	Jefferson College, Pa.
Cornelius W. Wycoff,	"	Washington College, Pa.
Benj'n C. Youngman,	"	Lafayette College, Pa.
Faris Brown,	"	Washington College, Pa.
Thomas Roberts,	"	Williams College.
Jeremiah H. Turpin.
Francis Laird.
John C. Caldwell,	"	Washington College, Pa.
Elgy V. Campbell,	"	" "
Eben Muse,	"	Centre College, Ky.
Francis P. Woodbury,	"	Williams College, Mass.

Of these, Thomas Roberts was received from the Theological Institute of Connecticut, and Francis P. Woodbury from the Andover Theological Seminary; and Faris Brown and Eben Muse, from the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky.

Eleven of these have entered temporarily the army of the United States, in the expectation, if God will, to resume their studies at the expiration of their term of service.

The whole number on the roll is one hundred and thirty-four; and the number in actual attendance during the whole, or a portion of the time, was one hundred and sixteen.

The following twenty students have completed the regular course of study, and passed the requisite examinations, and have been awarded the diploma of the Institution: Matthew L. Anderson, John J. Beacom, J. McCluskey Blayney, Albert Dilworth, Andrew A. Dinsmore, James H. Donaldson, William S. Eagleson, N. H. Gillett Fife, Calvin C. Gould, Samuel M. Henderson, Henry Martyn Hervey, George M. Miller, William Wall Moorhead, Thomas X. Orr, John B. Reed, Martin L. Todd, James Wallace Wightman, John Wilson, Thomas M. Wilson, W. Swift Wright.

It is ground of sincere gratitude to God, that the studies of the Seminary have been pursued so successfully in a time of public excitement, and that the health of professors and students has been so uniformly good.

One of the middle class, an exemplary and pious young man of great promise, died at his home during the term.

The classes were examined at the close of the term, in the presence of a Committee of the Board, who report, that the examinations were thorough and satisfactory, evincing the fidelity and efficiency of the professors, and the application of the students.

A spirit of piety and Christian activity has prevailed amongst the students; and some of the most faithful and earnest men of the different classes have devoted themselves to the work of foreign missions.

The Board are happy to report, that an arrangement has been made, by which the services of the Rev. Charles C. Beatty, D. D., have been secured, as "Lecturer Extraordinary" in the department of Practical Theology.

The Board respectfully ask the General Assembly to authorize them, in conference with the Faculty, to make such an arrangement of the studies among the several departments, as shall seem desirable.

The Board report the resignation, at the opening of the term, of the Professor of Didactic and Pastoral Theology, William S. Plumer, D. D.

The studies of this department have been conducted under the direction of the other Professors, at the request of the Board.

The Board respectfully ask the General Assembly to fill the professorship now vacant in the Seminary.

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire during the sessions of the present General Assembly:

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
Charles C. Beatty, D. D.	James Schoonmaker,

The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, in submitting to the General Assembly, this, their eighteenth annual report, with devout thankfulness congratulate the church at large, upon the completion of the endowment of the four professorships, and the liquidation of the entire indebtedness of the institution. This result has been accomplished, by the blessing of Almighty God, through a vigorous effort on the part of the Faculty and the Board, in securing the following liberal contributions from the friends of the Seminary, viz.

Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D.,	$5000 00
James Laughlin, Esq.,	5000 00
James Park, Jr., Esq.,	5000 00
Joseph Patterson, Esq.,	1000 00
Rev. D. McKinney, D. D.,	500 00
William M. Lyon, Esq.,	250 00
John T. Logan, Esq.,	250 00
First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburg,	2775 00
Second " " "	440 00
Central " " "	1000 00
Fourth " " "	500 00
First " " Allegheny,	225 00
East Liberty "	320 00
Lawrenceville "	50 00
Sharpsburg "	125 00

The permanent funds of the Seminary are now as follows:

Endowment Fund,	$100,000 00
Scholarship Fund,	28,679 50
Library Fund,	4,748 63
Sustentation Fund,	1,190 00

The Treasurer's accounts, as audited, of receipts and disbursements for the past year, show a balance on hand, from all sources, of $924 89

This balance is mainly due to the Library Fund, so that for any future contingent expenses or improvements, we must still rely upon the contributions of the churches.

The Librarian reports having received during the year—

From Rev. William Speer—One volume, Statistics of Minnesota.

From Hon. George Chambers, of Chambersburg, Pa., (its author)—A volume relating to the Scotch-Irish settlers of Pennsylvania.

From Hon. Robert McKnight—One quarto volume, entitled "Censura Temporum."

From Rev. William Annan—Two copies of Sermons, doctrinal and practical, by the late Rev. John E. Annan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Petersburg, Virginia.

And from the Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D., of Steubenville (additional)—Three hundred volumes on Theology, &c.

Submitted on behalf of the Trustees.

DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, respectfully submit to the General Assembly their Tenth Annual Report, as follows:

During the session now terminated, the whole number of students in attendance has been eight. Of these, the following new students have been admitted since our last report:

S. F. Allen, graduate of Centre College, Ky.
W. R. Brown, " " "
J. M. Evans, " " "
M. B. Messick, graduate of Transylvania University, Ky.
F. J. Reichert, graduate of Centre College, Ky.
W. C. Young, " " "

The Assembly will observe that there has been a still further reduction in the number of students since last year. About three weeks before the regular time for opening the Seminary, the State of Kentucky was invaded by large Confederate forces—the time for opening the Institution being the 20th of September, 1862. The State was occupied and held to a great extent by these forces, until about the middle of October. A large district of country surrounding the town of Danville, was, during this time, the theatre of war. After the rebels were driven from the State, the members of the Faculty, including the Professor elect, assembled at Danville in the beginning of the month of November. Under the peculiar circumstances of the case, it being impossible to obtain the advice of either the General Assembly or the Board of Directors, the Faculty were obliged to act upon their own judgment in the matter. It was found there were about six new students waiting to see if the Seminary would open, with the view of prosecuting their studies therein. There was also a probability that some of the students, who had previously been connected with the Institution, would return. Under these circumstances, the Faculty determined to re-open the Seminary on the 17th of November, and gave notice accordingly. The regular exercises of the Institution were prosecuted from that time without interruption until the latter part of March, when Danville was occupied for four or five days by a Confederate force under General Pegram. This led to a dispersion of the students, and an interruption of the exercises of the Seminary for nearly two weeks. After that time, the Professors and students resumed and continued their duties until the close of the session, which the Faculty judged it expedient to terminate about eight days earlier than usual. This proceeding of the Faculty is explained and approved in the following paper adopted by the Board of Directors: "The installation of Dr. Stanton could not take place without the previous action of the Board of Directors; the adjourned meeting of the Synod of Kentucky rendered it apparently impossible to obtain a quorum of the Directors at the time and place appointed last year; the necessities of the case seemed to require this meeting at this time and place, (April 30th, at Paris); therefore this Board approves the action of the Secretary, in using his power, with the consent of the Seminary Faculty, in calling this meeting; and the order of the previous Board, appointing Danville as the place, and May 5th, 1863, as the time of this annual meeting, is hereby so far changed as to appoint April 30th as the time, and Paris, Kentucky, as the place of our annual meeting for 1863."

At the time of the invasion of the State last fall, the enlarged and improved main seminary building, and all the other buildings of the institution, except the new edifice erected for the Library, of which we spoke in our last report, were seized and occupied by the Confederate forces as a hospital; and were continued as such by the national military authorities, after the expulsion of the rebels, up to within a few days of the close of the session. At the request of the Faculty, when the exercises of the Seminary were resumed about the middle of November, a small outbuilding, containing a single room about twenty feet square, was vacated and turned over to the use of the Professors and students. In that room all the exercises of the Seminary have necessarily been held. Should the peace of the State be preserved, we shall be able to proceed next session with sufficient accommodations for students, and for the business of instruction.

It gives us pleasure to state that the Faculty report the application to study, and the general deportment of the students in attendance during the past session, have been highly satisfactory and commendable. It will be seen from what is stated above, that they have all been in their first year's course of study, except two. These have been in their second year's course. Hence the Board, contrary to what has been their constant custom, have no students to report as having completed their course of study with the session just ended.

The Rev. R. L. Stanton, D. D., elected by the Assembly of 1862 to the chair of Church Government and Pastoral Theology, accepted and entered upon the duties of his office at the commencement of the recent session; but owing to the disturbed state of the country his inauguration was deferred longer than we would have desired. However, the Board, on the first day of its present meeting, made the necessary arrangements for his inauguration at this place on the second day of May, 1863, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. He was accordingly inaugurated in Paris at that time, in the presence of the Synod of Kentucky, who accepted our invitation to witness the ceremony.

Notwithstanding the troubles in the country, and particularly in the State of Kentucky, and notwithstanding the depressed condition of financial interests generally in the states where war has actually raged, it is with peculiar pleasure, and with gratitude to God, that we can report to the Assembly that the Trustees have been able to pay the Professors their full salaries, as fixed in the Plan of the Seminary.

The Library has been augmented considerably since our last annual meeting. Mrs. Priscilla Cromie, of Lexington, Kentucky, has presented, at the request of her deceased husband, a box of books to the Library. The box has been received, but has not been opened. It is supposed to contain from two hundred to three hundred volumes. Dr. W. W. Hall, of New York City, has contributed ten volumes of his own writings. And the Board of Trustees received, a few days before our present meeting, about four hundred volumes, as it is supposed, from the personal representatives of the late Rev. Dr. Edgar, in lieu of a liberal subscription which he had made to the funds of the Seminary; and have ordered them to be added to the Library.

The Board report further that the term of office of the following Directors expires with the sessions of the General Assembly of this year:

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.
J. S. Hays,	William Richardson,
Robert C. Grundy,	James S. Hopkins,
Lewis W. Green,	John Watson,
B. M. Hobson,	Ormond Beatty,
James H. Brooks,	William Prather,
R. A. Lapsley,	Glass Marshall,
J. Montgomery,	James Barbour,
R. B. McMullin,	Wilson P. Boyd,
Thomas A. Hoyt.	W. O. N. Perkins.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. A. Hodge, President pro tem.

The Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Danville, Kentucky, present the following as their Tenth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

1. According to the Annual Report of the Financial Agent and Treasurer, received and approved by this Board,

The total cash receipts during the year are,		$10,481 64
Which, added to amount of cash on hand at the beginning of the year,		2307 70
	Makes a total of	$12,789 34

The total expenditures of the year have been,
For salaries of Professors,	$5250 00
For balance of house-rent due to Professors, on last year's account,	375 00
For general and contingent expenses,	769 55
For students on scholarships,	400 00
For the erection of the new buildings,	505 08
For increase of the Library,	353 05
		$7652 68

Cash Balance.

Cash on hand April 20th, 1862,	$2307 70
Receipts during the year,	10,481 64
		$12,789 34
Cash expenditures during the year,	$7652 68
Cash on hand April 20th, 1863,	5136 66
		$12,789 34

2. The fund set apart for the support of the Professors yielded during the year an income of $5570.60. The expenditures chargeable on this fund were $5625—showing a deficit of $55.40. The salaries of the Professors are fully paid up to March 1, 1863. The allowance which has been made to the Professors, of $250 each per annum, by way of house-rent, has been withdrawn by the Board of Trustees. Their whole compensation now stands at $1500 per annum, as fixed by the General Assembly in the act of 1853, founding the Seminary. The salaries of the four Professors for the year to come will therefore amount to $6000. Supposing the income of the "Professors' Fund" to be the same as the year just now closed, the deficit will amount to $430.40. It is not believed that the deficit will exceed that sum, and it may be met by using a portion of the surplus of income already accumulated in years of greater prosperity; or by drawing upon the income of the "General Fund" of the Seminary; or, finally, by reducing still further the salaries of the Professors, with their consent. The Board do not anticipate any serious embarrassment in sustaining the institution during the coming year.

3. No changes have been made in the permanent investments of the Funds since the last report. The character of those investments may be seen in the Seventh Annual Report of this Board to the General Assembly of 1860, which will be found in its printed Minutes, pp. 84—86. The Board holds twenty bonds, of $1000 each, of the State of Missouri; the coupons of only five of these bonds have been paid. The Board holds thirteen Tennessee bonds of like amount; the coupons have not been paid since January, 1861. All the other investments are productive. A large portion of the cash balance reported above, arises from the collection of notes and subscriptions, and is subject to permanent investment.

4. Upon the whole, the Board finds the funds of the Seminary in a far better condition than they could have ventured to hope, in view of the unsettled state of the country. They devoutly recognise the favour of God upon the institution, and confidently commit it anew, in all its interests, to his holy keeping.

In behalf of the Board of Trustees,

SAMUEL MESSICK, Vice-President.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTH-WEST.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the North-west present their Fourth Annual Report to the General Assembly, as follows, viz.

Since last report, the following six new students have been received:

1. David C. Marquis, graduate of Jefferson College, Pennsylvania.
2. James M. Maxwell, " Washington " "
3. John W. Allen, " " " "
4. Patrick Carden, " Williams College, Mass.
5. John Miller, " Garrett Institute, Illinois.
6. Augustus S. Kemper, " Woodward High School, Ohio.

Though several of the young brethren in attendance last year entered the army of the government, and though the times have been unpropitious, there were in connection with the Seminary during the entire term, twelve students. Of these, six have completed the prescribed course of study, and have received each, the diploma of the institution, viz., David Marquis, John W. Allen, James M. Maxwell, Samuel P. Dillon, Samuel Vance, and Augustus S. Kemper.

The report of the Faculty indicates that the attention of the young brethren to study, and their entire deportment have been highly satisfactory. And from our committee to attend the examinations, we are pleased to learn that they have made most commendable progress in their sacred studies.

It affords the Board great satisfaction to find that the two excellent Professors have been enabled to discharge the double duty still devolved on them, with greater ease, and, if possible, with greater acceptance and advantage to the students, than during the preceding year. They are entitled to the gratitude of the whole church, for their untiring and successful labours.

It is with deep regret that the Board report the death of their President, elected a year ago, the Rev. J. C. Brown, D. D. He was also Agent for the Seminary; but by arrangement with the Executive Committee, had intermitted the work of that office, soon after commencing it, viz., in the early winter of 1860–61, owing to the disturbed state of the country. Dr. Brown was an earnest Christian, an unusually popular and successful missionary and pastor. His was a consuming zeal in the Master's work. Few missionary and pastoral records, if any, will compare with his, of more than twenty years in one field in Northern Indiana. And no doubt his excessive zeal for the spiritual and the physical welfare of our country's soldiers, to whose service, as a regimental Chaplain, he was appointed, wholly without solicitation, was the immediate occasion of his death. We sorrow that we shall see the face of this valued brother no more in our annual convocations, or in our more frequent committee interviews, on all which he faithfully attended. But our grief is allayed by the thought that our loss is his gain.

In November last, the Executive Committee appointed the Rev. F. W. Ewing, Agent, and the Board have ratified the appointment. By God's blessing on his well-directed efforts for three or four months, $15,070 have been secured, and eighty acres of land, from generous friends in New York, expressly to provide a house for the occupation of the Seminary. This desirable object the Board are quite hopeful that the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee will be able to effect before the opening of the next term.

Negotiations have been completed by which Joseph E. Sheffield of New Haven, William B. Ogden, Esq., and Mrs. McCaig of Chicago, donate the Seminary twenty acres of land in the city of Chicago; and Messrs. Zill and Devenzey give five acres; all on condition of our putting improvements on any part of it worth $15,000, during the year 1863. The Building Committee are preparing to put up a building immediately, about forty-two by seventy feet; which will accomodate about forty students. This land is worth about one thousand dollars per acre.

The Library has received valuable accessions.

1. In the addition of the Library from New Albany, in consequence of an amicable arrangement, by which all the assets of the late Seminary at that place, after old debts were discharged, were equally divided between this Seminary and Hanover College. The number of volumes, though not yet counted, is said to be about three thousand. 2. By a legacy of from three hundred to four hundred volumes, left by the late Rev. J. C. Brown, D. D. 3. By the donation of the Rev. S. D. Alexander, of New York, of two copies each of most of the very valuable published works of his honored father and brothers. It is due to add, that Mr. Alexander also generously gave about twenty additional copies of each of these works, about one hundred and fifty volumes in all, for distribution among the professors and students. 4. From Thomas H. Beebe, Esq., Presbyterian Critic, two volumes, Presbyterian Magazine, nine volumes. 5. From Professor Henry, Smithsonian Collections, four volumes, Smithsonian Reports, nine volumes. 6. From A. Chester, Esq., the Eighth United States Census, one volume.

With gratitude the Board report the absolute donation of one thousand acres of valuable but unimproved land in Iowa, by the Rev. R. H. Lilly, of the Bloomington Presbytery, for the founding of a scholarship or scholarships in the Seminary. The Board have directed the Trustees to hold this land until it can be sold for not less than four dollars per acre, and then to use the avails to found two scholarships, to bear the name of the generous donor.

The Board—though not without hesitation, lest, in consequence of the present depreciated value of money, they may be unable to furnish an adequate support—respectfully request the Assembly to fill one of the vacant chairs in the Seminary, viz., that of Biblical Literature and Exegesis.

STATEMENT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, Eliphalet Wood, Esq., has submitted a very full and satisfactory exhibit of moneys received and disbursed by him and his predecessor, during the year. An inspection of this exhibit shows the following transactions:

FUNDS FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

THE EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON THE FUND FOR DISABLED MINISTERS IN NEED, AND THE NEEDY WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS.

The first effective legislation of the Assembly in behalf of Disabled Ministers in need, was at their meeting in 1849. The subject was brought to their notice by an Overture from the Presbytery of Steubenville, "asking the Assembly to take immediate measures for providing the means of relief and support to disabled ministers, and their widows and children in indigent circumstances." The Committee of Bills and Overtures, to whom it was referred, recommended, through their chairman, the Rev. Dr. McGill, the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted, and which the Trustees would bring to the notice of the Assembly by giving them a place in their present Report.

"Whereas, There are many disabled and superannuated ministers in connection with the Presbyterian Church, and widows and families of Presbyterian ministers who are in indigent circumstances, and as the church increases, their number is likely to increase; and whereas, it is the duty of the church to provide for those who have devoted their time and spent their energies in her service, and also for their families; and whereas, no local provision can effectually meet this object, and no efficient general provision has ever yet been made, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That in order to constitute a fund for the support of the widows and families of deceased ministers, and for the relief of superannuated and disabled living ministers, it is hereby enjoined upon all our Synods and Presbyteries to take such action as may secure a contribution annually.

Resolved, 2. That a column be added to the Table of Statistical Reports for these contributions.

Resolved, 3. That the funds thus contributed be placed in the hands of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, to be disbursed by the Board of Publication, upon the recommendation of Presbyteries, as the fund for Domestic Missions, Education, and Church Extension are now appropriated.

Resolved, 4. That in order to the founding of a permanent fund for this same object, special contributions and legacies be invited from all parts of the church; the principal of which shall be safely invested by the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, and the interest be added to the General Fund provided for in the foregoing resolution."

Three years after, in 1852, the third resolution was so far modified that the distributing of this fund was transferred from the Board of Publication to the Trustees of the Assembly. But these resolutions of 1849, being published only in their minutes, and no special efforts made to have them diffused among the churches, as a matter of course, were imperfectly known, and very little heeded. No one person was charged officially, as in the case of the Boards, with the duty of superintending this department, and of seeing that the benevolent purpose of the Assembly was carried out. Hence few collections were made, and a very small number of the sufferers were reported to the Trustees of the Assembly, or were even apprized of any measures for their relief. In the sixth year after the passing of these excellent resolutions, only twenty applications were made for assistance from the two thousand five hundred living ministers and candidates reported in the Minutes, and the numerous widows and orphans of the deceased. Less than two thousand five hundred dollars were given, or not an average contribution of seventy-five cents from each of the churches. Without inquiring into the true or obvious cause of the failure of the judicious plan of 1849, (which was not in the plan itself, but in the delinquency of the churches,) the subject was resumed by the Assembly at New York in 1856. After a prolonged debate, in which many methods of meeting the exigency were discussed, it was finally resolved to refer the subject to a committee, who should "digest and report to the next General Assembly a scheme of future operations."

The investigations of this Committee during the year 1856, with their conclusions, were embodied in a report to the Assembly of 1857, made through their chairman, Judge Leavitt, of Cincinnati. It was elaborate, clear, and so conclusive, that without debate, it was adopted unanimously by the Assembly, who ordered that it should be published in the Appendix to their Minutes. This report, after a brief notice of the several plans propounded by prior Assemblies, selected and commended the original one of 1849, the main features of which are an annual contribution of the churches to meet the current wants of disabled ministers, and the solicitation of large gifts and bequests to be invested by the Trustees, so as to form gradually a permanent fund, the interest of which only shall be used, and which ultimately may supersede the necessity for annual collections.

In their report, the Committee say, that the argument relied on in the Assembly of 1856, against the continuance of the plan of 1849, was "its insufficiency to raise the sum needed to supply the wants of those having just demands on the church." To this objection they reply, that the greater liberality of the churches during the year since their appointment as a Committee, had destroyed its force. That from the increase of contributions in aid of this fund during the year 1856, there is just ground for the expectation that the churches will hereafter, from year to year, furnish a sum adequate to meet all demands on a just and liberal scale. "It is confidently believed," they say, "that if the Assembly will at its present session, and hereafter, as circumstances may require, repeat the injunction to the lower judicatories, and to the ministers and members of the church, the efficiency of the present plan (viz., of 1849) will be fully indicated. At all events, it would seem inexpedient, at this time, and without a more full experiment, to abandon a system of measures which promise so well for the future, substituting for these any one that is untried, and of doubtful expediency."

At the suggestion of the Committee, this Assembly did reaffirm the action of 1849, on this subject, and earnestly recommended that an annual collection for this object be made by our churches, and forwarded to the Treasurer of the General Assembly.

The anticipations of that Committee of 1856 have been realized. The plan of 1849, thus commended in their report, has been received without modification or complaint for the last eleven years, and has been regarded by the churches generally as an established policy. It has been recognised and approved by every Assembly since, either tacitly or by resolutions. It has been received with growing favour by our Presbyteries and Synods, very many of which have endorsed the action of that Assembly by resolutions of their own.

The change in the Statistical Table proposed in one of the resolutions of 1849 having been neglected, the omission was supplied at the Assembly in 1860, by repeating the injunction that a column be added for contributions to this object. This important step, in connection with some others, has been followed by encouraging results.

In 1861, means were proffered, from private sources, to sustain the Chairman and Secretary of the Committee on the Fund, in giving his whole time to the cause, which has been followed by marked results. Thus, at the meeting of this Assembly in 1861, composed of delegates from the South as well as the North, the expenditures of the preceding year had exceeded the receipts from all the churches, one thousand five hundred dollars. In 1862, when not a penny had been obtained from forty-six Presbyteries in the South and South-west, more money was contributed by the North alone, than had been given by the whole of our churches united, in the year preceding. More applications were received, larger sums disbursed, and yet a balance of more than six thousand dollars was left in the treasury, to answer applications which are always made in the spring and summer, before the usual time for our largest collections.

During the past year, appropriations have been made to eighteen families of disabled ministers and widows more than in the year 1862, or than we have ever had before, all of whom have been greatly relieved. Many of these cases and others, will doubtless be presented before we receive our annual contributions of the churches. But the money in the treasury, it is believed, will enable us to meet them all promptly, without occasioning any disappointment or suffering, by delay.

Thus, although we have had no reports since 1860, from more than fourteen Synods, with all their Presbyteries, our receipts during the years 1862 and 1863, from a part of the church, are double what had been contributed by the whole in any year preceding. And yet, while there has been this great increase in our contributions, the Trustees are yet to be informed of the first Presbytery or Synod that has been opposed, either to the object itself, or to the present manner of carrying it forward. On the other hand, numerous letters of approbation have been received, which express the liveliest sympathy in the cause, and a pledge of earnest and continued co-operation. The afflicted recipients of this aid, moreover, relieved of inexpressible anxiety, send us the outpourings of their thankful hearts, in letters full of tenderness and grateful joy.

"Every drop of my blood thanks you," writes an aged lady to the Committee, in the gush of excited feeling, in view of a bounty which seemed to her as if sent by a special providence. "Between forty and fifty years have I lived an orphan, more than twenty a widow; and while I had health, by the blessing of God, I supported myself. But now my strength, both of body and mind, are gone; and at my advanced age, I cannot hope to recover them. But unworthy as I am of even the 'cup of cold water,' my Christian brethren have not forgotten me. I leave my case in their hands, offering strong petitions, through the great Mediator, for blessings on all, both the givers and recipients of this benevolence."

The appeal in the fourth resolution of 1849, for liberal donations and bequests, to form a Permanent Fund gradually, the interest of which only shall be used, is attracting more notice and greater favour every year. The late Dr. Neill, for several years a member of the Disbursing Committee, as a token of his love for the cause, and his approbation of this mode of conducting it, left (in his circumstances) a liberal bequest of one hundred and fifty dollars. Within the past year, the Trustees have received in cash, two legacies, amounting to five hundred dollars, to be invested according to the plan of 1849. A third, of one thousand dollars, will come into their hands as soon as the regular steps of the law can be taken to transfer it. A donation of real estate, of uncertain value, (supposed to be worth from five hundred to a thousand dollars,) has been secured to the Fund, by the proper legal documents. It will be sold as soon as a favourable opportunity shall occur, when the money will be given to the Trustees for investment. A fourth and fifth are promised, on the death of the testators. Such bequests, even though not large in the amount of each, will gradually increase the Fund, so that in a few years it may supersede the necessity of annual collections.

A knowledge of the existence and workings of this plan of 1849, which was so slow in reaching the churches, is becoming general. The sickly and superannuated, who had been suffering without hope of adequate relief, are becoming acquainted with the way of obtaining it. Still there are numbers, we have reason to believe, who are the legitimate objects for which this provision of the Assembly is made, who are not yet relieved. The reason is, they are not reported to the Trustees, either from their own extreme backwardness to make their condition known, or through the neglect of their Presbyteries to look after them. In several instances, it is known to the Committee, that congregations withhold their contributions from the General Fund, to bestow them in a private way, for the support of some one in whom they have a local and personal interest. This is done to such an extent, as to materially reduce the number of our receivers, as well as the amount of our pecuniary receipts.

Since the meeting of the Assembly in May, 1862, we have had on our list for relief, thirty-six widows, thirty clergymen, most of whom have wives, and two families of children bereaved of both parents. In addition to these, there are probably twice the number of half-orphans (infants or imbecile adults,) making in all not less than two hundred persons. Some of these widows are very aged, and a portion of those who are less advanced in life, are incurable invalids.

A majority of the ministers have reached the age of sixty-five years, and some are more than fourscore. One of them writes: "Your kind and liberal grant was a Godsend to me, without which I must have suffered." Another, too old and infirm to labour, and with a dependent family of six, tells us that "it was a most seasonable blessing to him." A third, whose mind has become too feeble for continuous and collected thought, sends us a short and touching letter of thanks. Some of them are superannuated missionaries, who, after a long and useful itinerary life, have become too old and infirm to retain their commission any longer. Other aged men, still in the field, must soon ask a release from the Board, without any private property on which they can depend for their bread. And who has a stronger claim on the church for maintenance than they?

Three deaths have occurred during the year, among those aided through the Committee—one of them, a young widow, who leaves three helpless and dependent orphans. Several have survived, contrary to their own expectations and those of their friends. One minister, having recovered his health, no longer requires or asks assistance. An appropriation of two hundred dollars for the support of himself and family, while confined to his bed, about two years ago, by what appeared to be an incurable disease, was one of the means of restoring him to health. A letter from the Stated Clerk of his Presbytery, giving the reason for not renewing the application for help, informs the Trustees not only of his recovery, but that one of the chief remedial means was the appropriation from our fund. His mind was so depressed by the needy and suffering condition of his family, till relief came, that all endeavours of the physician to reach and remove his bodily disease, were ineffectual.

A generous contribution of twenty dollars to our fund, is from two aged ministers, whom, while invalids for several years, it was our privilege to aid. Both are now in better health, and one has been called to a field of labour where he receives a small salary. In token of their gratitude and high appreciation of this excellent cause, they have sent us each, his gift of ten dollars.

The Trustees would again call the attention of the Assembly to the fact of there being a balance in the treasury, which they deem of great importance. As our disbursements are made in advance, had we not a liberal surplus at our disposal in the Spring, our funds would be exhausted before the month of September, the time designated by the Assembly for making the collections, from which our treasury is replenished. Since the close of our fiscal year, on the last day of April, the Committee have appropriated more than $1700 of the balance reported by the Treasurer.

Hitherto the amount given to each applicant, by the Committee, though gradually increasing from year to year, has been less than the average sum disbursed in similar cases by several of our sister churches. Until the last year, the fund at the disposal of the Trustees was too small to admit of our following their example. This has been generally understood by the Presbyteries, and for this reason, less has been asked, in many cases, than was needed to give adequate relief. The money divided among the sixty-eight families that we have aided during the past year, gives an average of about one hundred and thirty dollars to each. The lowest sum asked was twenty-five dollars, and the highest, three hundred. Had our appropriations been as large as those of the denominations to which we allude, our whole receipts would have been absorbed, and we should have come to the Assembly with a drained treasury, and been obliged to withhold relief from many applicants for months, till the means should be furnished by our autumnal and winter collections. The Disbursing Committee have deemed it prudent to keep the amount of their appropriations within their probable means. Should there be an increase in the number of applications, within the coming year, as great as during the last, there will doubtless be occasion for all the funds at our disposal.

In connection with the yearly collections, as has been remarked before, we are receiving occasional legacies, from one hundred to a thousand dollars, which it is confidently believed will be more numerous and larger hereafter. More has been intimated to the Trustees than they are at liberty to disclose, concerning the benevolent purposes of some, at whose death will be divulged what it would be injudicious and indelicate to speak of at present. But such bequests as are already received, constitute an increasing nucleus of the permanent fund recommended by the Assembly of 1849, to be formed by this gradual process.

The experiment of another year has greatly deepened the conviction that this mode is the best. It not only provides for the immediate relief of our suffering brethren, by yearly collections, but is intended to meet the wishes of those who think that a fund would be a more stable dependence. In due time, the present plan, if not interrupted in its progress, will fulfil the desires of all. It is therefore the honest and earnest conviction of the Trustees, that no other method can be proposed to which there are so few objections; none by which the providing for such a number of persons, and so widely scattered, could be accomplished with so little trouble, noise, and cost. Such scrupulous delicacy moreover, has been observed in making our disbursements, that in no instance have we heard of wounding the sensibilities of the receivers, some of whom are from high social positions, and among the most refined in society. Nor can it be conceived that relief could be dispensed in any form less likely to mortify or give pain to any who are in a condition to require it.

An excellent brother, in declining health, was relieved by the Committee, on the application of the Presbytery in his behalf, without his knowledge. In his letter, acknowledging the remittance, he says, that when it came to hand, "I was so bewildered I did not know what to say. This unexpected relief made me feel almost well. How could I help praying that God would bless, and reward, and prosper you. And He will, and is doing it. My own interest in this cause must soon cease. But I am sure there can be nothing nearer and dearer to the blessed Master's heart, than thus to care for his feeble and crippled ones, who have become disabled in his service. Accept my sincere thanks for the delicacy and kind consideration with which these favours are always rendered."

The method we pursue, is that which works so successfully among our sister denominations—the Moravians, Episcopalians, and the Methodists—who all rely on annual collections. For some years the Methodists derived a small part of their means for this object, from the sale of their books. Their main reliance, however, has always been upon annual collections.

During the past year, something has been realized from their books, which has been divided among their Conferences. But how inadequate the sum received from this source may be inferred from the case of the Philadelphia Conference, which requires not less than seven thousand dollars for the support of their own disabled ministry. Of this amount only four hundred dollars are derived from their Book concern, leaving six thousand six hundred dollars to be raised by collections among the churches. An increasing sum is received also from the interest of a permanent fund, which is gradually forming in their church in the way recommended in the resolutions of 1849. This plan, moreover, as was asserted in the last annual report of the Trustees, is simple, calling for no cumbrous machinery of multitudinous officers, committees, and instrumentalities. Its executive agents are sustained with comparatively little expense to the cause, nor is anything required to make the most ample provision for all—for the orphans and widows in need; for our sick and superannuated ministers, whether without pastoral charges, or feebly labouring in them, but a general cordial and continued co-operation of our churches in carrying into effect a method that is so rapidly attaining the object at which the Assembly has aimed for so many years. The relief applied for by our several Presbyteries is afforded promptly, and will probably soon be equal in amount to what is given by the denominations just referred to, in similar cases.

The Trustees believe that the means of continuing this aid will not only be furnished hereafter, but with an increase proportioned to the enlarging number of applicants. That the contributions of the churches will be as constant and as cheerfully given as they are to our respective Boards, and they no more anticipate an abatement of interest or of liberality in relation to this cause than to either of them. All that the Assembly need do in the form of legislation has been done already; and any change at present would be injurious. There is no occasion for the forming of another Board, with Executive Committee, Treasurer, &c. Every instrumentality for collecting, receiving, and disbursing this money is furnished by the Trustees, who make an annual report to the Assembly. Since a column has been given it in the Statistical Table of their Minutes, no complaint has been heard from a single church on account of this addition to the number of their stated collections. On the other hand, so strong and tender is their affection for this cause, that they contribute to none with more alacrity. Where the collections are deemed too numerous, the objection is obviated by the "Systematic Scheme" of annual subscription. Indeed, it is a cheering token for good, in view of "the present distress, that all the institutions of the church are so highly appreciated and so well supported. They are regarded not as rivals or competitors, but as a sisterhood, sustaining the same relation to a common parent, and each moving in her respective province. One takes the indigent youth of piety and provides for the cultivation of his mind and the storing it with useful secular knowledge and theology. Another furnishes the apparatus of books. A third sends him forth to labour in a domestic or foreign field. A fourth helps him to build a house of worship for the people whom he has gathered; and when laid aside prematurely by disease, or disabled by the infirmities of age, this youngest of the household procures him a comfortable home. They all work in perfect harmony, promoting each other's prosperity, while they carry forward the common cause. The Trustees, in conclusion, would only reiterate the opinion already expressed, that if the mind of the Assembly, as published in the resolutions of 1849, be developed hereafter in a continuous yearly obedience of the churches, as is confidently expected, their benevolent purpose will be fully realized. The duty to our afflicted brethren, so long acknowledged, yet neglected, will be effectually and speedily accomplished.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1862-3.

During the year, death has removed four of the members of the Board—Rev. Dr. Thornwell, Rev. Dr. Steel, William Richardson, of Louisville, Kentucky, and lastly Rev. Dr. McDowell, for twenty years the Chairman of their Executive Committee, and since the death of Dr. Janeway, President of the Board. God thus calls upon us to work ere the shadows of the evening admonish us that our working days are passing.

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR.

The whole number of missionaries in commission since March 1, 1862, is 409.

The number of churches and missionary stations in whole or in part supplied (so far as reported) by those holding commission, is 676.

Twenty churches are reported as having been organized during the missionary year.

The number of admissions on examination is 1242, and on certificate 777; a total of 2019.

The whole membership in churches connected with the Board, is 17,755.

Sabbath-schools number 279, with 2453 teachers, and 16,680 scholars.

The number of baptisms reported is 2105.

As almost one-fourth in commission have not reported, the returns are manifestly inadequate, and do not express the facts.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The amount promised to the missionaries from March 1, 1862, to March 1, 1863, has been $53,663.48. This shows a material decrease on last year, and more so, in comparison with former years, caused by the former embarrassments of the Board, and the disturbed state of large portions of our country. An inspection of our resources will manifest we have done what we could, and according to the ability which the church has accorded us.

RECEIPTS.

The amount of money received from all sources during the fiscal year was $71,210.78. The amount paid by the Treasurer, including the Presbyteries of West Jersey and Transylvania, was $59,072.70, leaving a balance in the treasury of $12.738.21. The aggregate receipts in the field of our cultivation, have been sadly less, as compared with the former year. In legacies received, there has been an increase of $3872.41, and a decrease in miscellaneous and individual donations of $4239.48. We are pained to add that the returns from the churches have been less by $13,754.78. This is the saddest feature of all—variation in the amounts yielded by payment of legacies, and from wide-hearted individuals, is to be expected in the mutations of human affairs. The main and surest reliance of the cause, in a wise and prudent administration of missions, must be upon the inflow from churches annually contributing.

OUR MISSIONS.

The Board are compelled to say, that in very few instances have they felt able to establish new missions. Before entering on new obligations, justice required that those already assumed and maturing should be met, and the missionaries in service be sustained. No renewals, which Presbyteries requested, were denied, except in cases and for reasons which did not depend upon the condition of our finances. Our known embarrassments kept some Presbyteries from urging on our attention fields of new and utmost promise. Fewer applications have been made, because, among other reasons, the war has absorbed the surplus in chaplain service, and some of the missionaries have left their stations at the urgent request of regiments which were formed in their neighbourhoods, and among their own flocks; some have been driven from their fields; the border States have thus suffered, and fields once cultivated, must await the halcyon days of peace, ere man can predict their future. Reconstruction must take place, and arrangements be made, of which we cannot now speak, for want of information; and, therefore, in submission to God's will, must we quietly await the evolution of that Providence who can bring light out of darkness, and order from manifold confusion. So far, we fear that years of missionary labour have been destroyed, and the foundations swept away by the upheavals of internecine war. When peace comes, a responsibility will devolve upon the Board and God's church, involving labour of no ordinary kind, and likely to task the wisdom and skill of those to whom the missions to the destitute have been committed.

Our foreign population has not been overlooked. We have two missionaries among the French; one among the Belgians of Wisconsin; and twenty-four among the Germans. The results are not so cheering in all cases as we could wish, nor can we feel that the future is so bright as many might desire; there are difficulties of which it is hard to speak, and which, perhaps, we do not understand.

Itinerant labour, to a certain extent, has been employed, not according to our wishes, or the urgency of the case. Want of means has been the main reason, and the peculiar difficulties which gather round the subject.

CLOTHING.

Clothing valued at $14,127.32 has been received and distributed to the missionaries, over and above the salaries paid them, thus in many cases affording most grateful relief.

NEED OF FUNDS.

Though in the face of diminished receipts, as compared with last year, we report a respectable balance, we must not lose sight of an actual decline.

Our miscellaneous contributions are less, and receipts from the churches lamentably in arrear, and in the face of apparent repetition, we cannot too earnestly remind the Assembly, that the only reliance of safe calculation, is the steady influx of the contributions of our numerous congregations. They may be small individually, and come in restricted sums, but, like the order of nature, in the aggregate, they count. The rills, the modest rivulets in mountain solitudes, are the secret source of power to the Mississippi or the Amazon. Our only hope of success is, that which schools the heart and conscience of the church to the duty of giving—each disciple as the Lord has prospered him; and whether some scheme of systematic benevolence be adopted, or the pastor make the appeal for each object in its order, the precious privilege of giving for Christ's sake, must be presented fully, fairly, till each member realize his duty, and casts into the treasury of our Lord. It was so in the beginning—it was the admitted duty and choice privilege of the believer, and with the regularity of his attendance on Sabbath ordinances, came the offering of his love to the Redeemer whose blood had saved him.

The reported balance is essential to our comfort and necessity. It will be all absorbed before the winter months arrive. For two summers past, the present officers have mourned over their inability to meet the appropriations with commercial promptitude. Light receipts in the summer months have been the rule —not half enough to pay the accruing salaries. No man in the service of the church should be subjected to the discomfort and pain of being unable to answer the appeals of his missionary brethren. Our present balance, on our present scale, will avail for this purpose, and will carry us, in comfort, till the usual enlarged collections in the autumn of the year will fill the treasury. No man should overlook this necessity, or draw wrong inferences from the fact of an existing balance.

ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1863.

Part I.—Ministerial Education.

Candidates.—The following table exhibits the operations of the Board of Education in the department of candidates for the ministry:

The number of new candidates received during the year has been		38
The number received from the beginning (in 1819,) . . .		3202
The whole number on the roll during the past year has been .		313
Of these latter there have been,
In their Theological course, ...	155
" Collegiate "	125
" Academical "	33

The aggregate number of candidates during the year now closed is sixty-two below that of last year, but is almost up to the average aggregate of the past eleven years. For that period the average aggregate has been three hundred and ninety-eight, whilst for the year covered by the present report, the average has been three hundred and ninety and five-sixths. This is a result for which the Board feel that great gratitude is due to the Head of the church. Is it not wondrous, that in a time of civil war, with one-third of the field once occupied by our beloved Zion cut off from communication with us, that the Board are enabled to announce to the Assembly such a result?

There is one item in the statistics given, which is well fitted to awaken serious apprehension in the minds of the brethren. It will be seen that the number of new candidates, that is, of candidates received during the year, has been unusually small. For the past ten years, the lowest number received has been seventy-four. During the past year the Board have received only thirty-eight. This fact is all the more significant, as it is a link of a descending series, and is consequently indicative of the existence and operation of a law. This descending series stretches back over three years. In 1860, the Board reported to the Assembly one hundred and eighty-one new students; in 1861, they reported one hundred and fifty-six; in 1862, they reported seventy-four; whilst they are able to report, for the year now closed, only thirty-eight. Here then is certainly a foreshadowing of an approaching dearth. If this law continues to operate, or if the annual accessions to the number of our candidates should remain at the present stinted measure, the consequences must very soon be felt in all the departments of our church's operations, whether domestic or foreign.

This aspect of our prospects as a church, gathers around it a still deeper darkness, when it is considered that the demand for labourers is very soon to be great beyond all parallel in our past history. Thus providentially is the church pointed to the whitening fields, and urged to beseech Him, who alone can give the call, or the grace to obey it, to send forth the labourers. Here, then, in the audience of the voice of his providence, is the true posture of the church. In the exercise of prayer, and in the use of the means placed at her disposal, let her arise and gird herself for the conflict of the latter days. Let the family, the school, and the church, be animated by the prospect of an opening harvest field. Let every agency within the compass of our ecclesiastical organism be laid under contribution to this one great all-absorbing interest. From the Parochial School to the University, let our youth be trained under the inspiration of the motto, "The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few."

State of the Treasury.—The following is a general view of the pecuniary affairs of the Board, during the ecclesiastical year ending May 1, 1863:

	I. CANDIDATES' FUND.	II. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.
Receipts, . .	$44,343 17	$3,794 32
Balance, 1862, ...		1,727 58
	$44,343 17	5,521 90
Payments, . .	39,906 33	1,598 45
	$4,436 84	$3,923 45

III. AFRICAN FUND.

Receipts, . .	$1,549 85
Balance, 1862, .	353 69
	$1,903 54
Payments, . .	980 43
Balance, . .	$923 11

The total receipts of the year from all sources are $49,687.34. Total receipts of the Candidates' Fund are $44,343.17, an increase on the receipts of last year of $4,994.14.

Part II.—General Education.

1. Parochial Schools.—In this department the Board are glad that it is their privilege to report progress.

The Board are persuaded that in times of war there is a peculiar obligation resting upon the church to put forth great efforts in her educational department. We have no warrant for presuming that our youth shall escape the hardening influences of the present fearful struggle. What war has done in Europe, it may be expected, with some modifications, to do in America. When this conflict is ended, there will be moral, as well as physical desolations, to be regenerated and restored, of a magnitude hitherto unparalleled in the history of our country. Christianity has mitigated the horrors of war wherever her ministering hand has reached, and in no instance have the meliorating influences of her gentle spirit been more extensively felt than during our own sad struggle. Yet, notwithstanding the alleviations traceable, directly or indirectly, to her varied agencies on the battle-field and in the hospital, it is manifest that our youth are, to an alarming extent, catching the contagion and imbibing the wild spirit incident to war. For this contagion no system of secular education, however elevated, supplies a remedy, and this spirit of lawlessness no secular system can subdue. Our hope, under God, is very closely linked with the primary schools of the church—her Sabbath and her Parochial schools. Over the latter of these two classes, it is one of the functions of the Board of Education to watch. From her long vigil she turns to the Assembly to report, and her report is, that the morning watches of a long, dark night, have scarcely yet broken upon this department of her charge. Her schools have increased, but not in proportion to the increase of the still gathering blackness which thickens around the rising generation. She would ask the Assembly, with all respect, but with all earnestness, are Parochial schools all the primary educational agencies that our church is called upon to furnish toward the mitigation of this impending gloom?

2. Academies.—On the subject of academic education, the Board would reiterate, and beg leave to urge upon the attention of the Assembly, the views advanced in their previous Annual Reports. Their experience, in the conduct of this department of their operations, has confirmed them in their estimate of the importance of the academy in the great chain of educational agencies. They are persuaded that, notwithstanding the progress made in the elevation of the academic standard, there yet remains much need of reformation. There is sad evidence of great defects in the curriculum of many of our academies. If the systems of training prosecuted in these institutions are to be judged of by the attainments of youth who have had all the advantages such systems can afford, an intelligent verdict must pronounce many of them defective. Any system of academic culture, which does not qualify a youth to express himself correctly in his mother tongue, certainly fails in one of the great objects of an academic course. In a country like ours, especially in the present stage of our progress, where there must, of necessity be many academies of an inferior grade, where the only alternative, in many cases, is a partially qualified teacher, or no teacher at all, it behooves Presbyteries to exercise a very strict supervision over their candidates during this stage of their course. The Board would not venture to suggest any method by which defective academic instruction may be remedied, but they are so thoroughly persuaded of the necessity of a higher standard of academic culture, that they are constrained to ask the Assembly to impress upon the church, with all the weight of their sanction, the importance of an academic reform.

Colleges.—The report which the Board would submit to the Assembly on the state of the colleges of the Presbyterian Church, for the year now closed, is but the echo of the report for last year. The causes which operated during the previous year, to the detriment of many of these institutions, and to the total suspension of some others, have continued to operate with like results during the past year.

The following is a list of Presbyterian Colleges which are under the supervision of our Synods, except the last four, which are controlled by ministers and members of the Presbyterian Church.

21. Jefferson "	Canonsburg, Pennsylvania.
22. College of New Jersey,	Princeton, New Jersey.
23. Washington College,	Lexington, Virginia.
24. Hampden Sidney College,	Prince Edward, Virginia.

Conclusion.—The Board look back on the past year with gratitude to God. The mercies wherewith its outgoings have been made to rejoice, have been far above all thought. With feelings of sadness, and with trembling footsteps, they ventured across its shadowy threshold; but a Father's voice has cheered them, and a Father's hand has sustained them, and a Father's countenance, with smiles of approval, has dispelled the shadows from their pathway, and lighted them safely through the gloom. They would cherish the deliverances of the past year as tokens of the Divine favour, and treasure them up as pledges of blessings yet in store. They feel assured that the educational vine, planted by hands now relaxed in death, and watered by tears shed by eyes that shall weep no more—a vine whose fruit has gladdened the heritage of Zion in our own beloved land, and sent forth its branches with Eshcol clusters to the remotest realm of heathen darkness—will, even in these wintry days of our nation's history, continue to spread, and flourish, and shake like Lebanon. As watchers from the tower, erected by the Assembly in the midst of this vineyard, the Board have been looking for the dawning of a brighter day. From the point of outlook they turn to report to those who have appointed them, and their report must wear the hues of a scene over which, in perpetual succession, "lights and shades alternate rise." Unable to read the signs of the times, they have to report, in the language of a watcher of the olden time, "The morning cometh, and also the night."

ABSTRACT OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT, 1863.

I. DEPARTMENT OF PRODUCTION.

The Board does not report so large an issue of books and tracts as in preceding years. The reason is threefold. 1. The Board began the year with an ample stock already on hand. 2. The unsettled and depressed condition of the book trade made it inexpedient to incur large expenditures and risks. 3. The enormous price of paper, and the increased prices of labour, of stereotype metal, and of binding materials, made every publication cost much more than in ordinary times.

The Board having, in common with other publishers throughout the country, been compelled, about the first of January, to raise its catalogue prices, in order to avoid positive loss, the third reason no longer operates to the same extent. Nor do the other two. Hence the Board has again begun to enlarge its work of publishing books and tracts, and a considerable number of both are now passing through the press.

The Board has issued, during the year,

5 new books, of which have been printed	10,000	copies.
3 new tracts,	24,000	"
1 package of 21 soldiers' tracts,	3,000	"
1 hospital card,	20,000	"
2 packages of leaflets,	6,000	"
2 German books,	700	"
Total copies of new publications,	63,700	"

The reprints of former publications, during the year, have been,

Of books,	226,000
Of tracts,	253,000
Of packages of tracts,	17,000	496,000	"
Total number of publications during the year,		559,700	"

Total number of copies of books and tracts issued by the Board, since its organization, 10,790,488.

In addition to the above, there have been printed, during the year,

Of Sabbath-School Visitor,	676,000	copies.
Of the Home and Foreign Record,	126,000	"
Of the Annual Report of the Board,	4,000	"

And by order of the General Assembly,

Of the Revised Book of Discipline,	3,000	"
Of the Report on the Disabled Ministers' Fund,	2,000	"
Of the Report on Systematic Benevolence,	3,000	"

In obedience to a direction of the last General Assembly, the Board has issued, under an arrangement with the Board of Publication of the Reformed Dutch Church, a Hymn Book in the German language.

It has also issued a cheap Library for Sabbath-schools, comprising 100 volumes, for $12.

Of the Home and Foreign Record, 10,400 copies monthly are now issued; and of the Sabbath-School Visitor, 55,000 copies monthly.

II. Department of Distribution.

1. Sales in the Depository.—During the earlier part of the year the sales were comparatively small; towards the end of the year they greatly improved. The sales of the year in the Depository have been 175,019 volumes, and 570,461 pages of tracts. The net value of these sales was $25,889.15. This is an increase of 64,043 volumes, and of $8909.98, over the sales of the preceding year. This is, of course, exclusive of the sales and distributions made by colporteurs, which may be found elsewhere in this report. The net value of books sent to Theological Seminaries, authors, editors, and to the Ohio State Library, by order of the General Assembly, has been $338.87. The catalogue value of these Depository issues has been $34,970.69.

2. Distributions by the Executive Committee.—The Board has a special fund, entitled its Distribution Fund. This is replenished by donations from individuals, usually made in response to special appeals, and for special objects. The appeals made for grants from this fund have, last year, been unusually numerous and touching. The Committee have met every deserving solicitation with a grant proportioned to its real claims, and the resources at their disposal. These grants have been as follows:

1. To Mission and other needy Sabbath-schools,	1,782	volumes.
2. " Ships and naval and military stations,	13,881	"
3. " Humane institutions,	5,771	"
4. " Ministers,	85	"
5. " Feeble churches,	776	"
6. " Individuals, for gratuitous distribution,	4,655	"
Total volumes granted,	26,950
Pages of tracts granted,	683,968

Distribution by Colportage.—Of the 102 colporteurs who have been in commission during the year, full reports have been received from only 55.

They have performed within the year 5503 days, or (allowing 313 working days to a year) 17 years and 182 days of labour.

They have sold 43,947 volumes, and have given away 72,299 volumes. They have also distributed gratuitously 2,399,030 pages of tracts. The number of persons visited and conversed with was 337,314.

These figures show that while the sales made by colporteurs have been much smaller, the number of volumes gratuitously distributed is larger by 29,088 than during the year immediately preceding, and more than thrice as large as in any other former year, even when the Board had over two hundred colporteurs in the field. This result is owing to the peculiar nature of the work, as it is largely carried on among the soldiers and sailors, to whom distributions must be almost wholly gratuitous.

The Board has earnestly striven to reach these two classes as far as it was possible. Large quantities of books and tracts have been sent, from time to time, to the regiments in all parts of the great field of war. Packages have been forwarded to Fortress Monroe, Newport News, Port Royal S. C., Fort Pickens, Ship Island, and New Orleans; also to Harper's Ferry, Cumberland, Md., Frederick City, Western Virginia, Cumberland Gap, Ky., Nashville, Tenn., Paducah, Mound City, Cairo, Columbus, Ky., Memphis, Helena, Ark., and the neighbourhood of Vicksburg. In the army of the Potomac, besides the chaplains, several officers have been earnest and active in distributing our books and tracts. The same has been true in the army at Murfreesboro', Tennessee. They have been placed, as far as its opportunities and means extended, on board our national ships, and in the hands of the sailors and workmen about our navy yards.

Special attention has been bestowed upon the military hospitals, wherein are found the sick and wounded of our armies. These have presented a wide and inviting field for the distribution of books and tracts.

Nor has the Board overlooked the prisoners in the hands of our Government. Wherever access could be had to them in the east and the west, they have been carefully and to a large extent supplied. We think it is entirely within bounds to say that over half a million of soldiers and sailors have received from our Depository in one way or another, a message of saving truth—an invitation to accept of Jesus Christ and eternal life. The Board feels that it is a blessed privilege to be allowed to take part with other similar institutions in this great work.

Total of Distribution.

Volumes sold at the Depository,	175,019
Volumes sold by Colporteurs,	43,947
Volumes given by Colporteurs,	72,299
Volumes granted by Executive Committee,	26,950
Total of volumes distributed,	318,215
Increase over last year,	78,281
The pages of tracts distributed are as follows;
By sale at the Depository,	570,461
Gratuitously by Colporteurs,	2,399,030
Granted by Executive Committee,	683,968
Total,	3,653,459
Less than last year,	731,679
In addition to these, the Board has issued,
Copies of the Sunday-school Visitor,	676,000
" " Home and Foreign Record,	126,000
" of various Reports,	12,000

Besides Sessional Minutes and Registers, Forms for Systematic Benevolence, Sabbath school class-books, Sabbath-school tickets, Sheet music, Sheet hymns, Hospital cards, &c., &c., in great numbers.

The net value of these issues of the year is as follows:

Sales in the Depository,	$25,889.15
Sent to Seminaries, Authors, Editors, &c.,	338.87
Sales by Colporteurs,	20,493.02
Home and Foreign Record,	3,864.19
Sabbath-school Visitor,	5,502.51
Total of net value,	$56,087.74

III. Department of Sustentation.

The receipts of the Treasury have been $81,670.93, or $13,634.93 greater than the year preceding. The aggregate expenditures have been $71,849.59. The amount of cash received from sales of books, tracts, and periodicals, has been $50,887.82, an increase of $10,515.86 over that of last year. The balance in the Treasury at the end of the year is $15,907.70.

The Colportage Fund.—The amount received for Colportage from all sources amounts to $25,078,35, which exceeds the receipts of last year by $1,906 54. This amount is the largest ever received in any year from those States which are now co-operating with the Board.

The number of contributing churches has this year been 673, which is larger by 166 than the number reported last year. The contributions of churches, apart from legacies and miscellaneous contributions, have exceeded those of last year by $5,349.39.

The expenditures for Colportage during the year have been $18,928.98, besides which the sum of $6,149.37 has been paid upon the balance due from the Colportage Fund at the close of the previous year. That balance, as reported to the last General Assembly, was $8,499.66. It is now reduced to $2,350.29.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

President—Rev. W. H. Parks.
Corresponding Secretary—Rev. H. I. Coe.
Treasurer—David Keith, Esq.

ROOMS OF THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION, CORNER OF FIFTH AND OLIVE STREETS, ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

ABSTRACT OF THE EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

In presenting our Eighth Annual Report to the General Assembly, we are compelled to record the death of one of the most efficient and valued members of the Board, the Rev. John F. Cowan, of Carondelet, Missouri. He died on the 29th of September, 1862, in the peaceful triumphs of the gospel he had preached for more than a third of a century. He was a man of remarkable purity of character; of unwearied diligence in the work of the ministry; and his labours had been blessed to the conversion of many souls. We greatly miss his cheerful face and trustful spirit from our councils. His death leaves a vacancy to be filled in the class of members whose term of service expires May, 1865.

APPLICATIONS.

The number of applications for aid put on file from April 1, 1862, to April 1, 1863, was seventy. These applications were from churches in the bounds of twenty-one Synods, thirty-seven Presbyteries, and fifteen States and Territories. These seventy churches ask for aid amounting in the aggregate to $24,954.40, averaging $356.49 each.

Besides these new applications filed during the year, there were sixty-one previous applications, calling for $24,991.75, undisposed of April 1, 1862. The Board, therefore, had before it, during the twelve months under review, one hundred and thirty-one applications, calling for nearly $50,000.

During the year, six applications, asking for $8625, were declined, chiefly for want of funds; and thirty-seven applications, requesting aid to the amount of $13,691.75, were stricken from the file, because they had not furnished the requisite information in the two years allowed for that purpose.

There remained on file and undisposed of for want of the usual information, April 1, 1863, applications from thirty-two churches, calling for $12,750.

APPROPRIATIONS.

During the year under review, appropriations amounting to $10,308.40 were made to forty-six churches, in the bounds of seventeen Synods, thirty-one Presbyteries, and sixteen States and Territories. The average amount appropriated to each of these forty-six churches was $224.09.

Appropriations amounting to $625 were, during the year, withdrawn from five churches. To one of these, however, a new appropriation was soon after made. The names and localities of all these churches will be found in the appendix to the Report.

The unusually small number, and consequently diminished amount of appropriations, is almost entirely owing to the uncertainty of the times, which delayed the execution of the plans of churches about to build, and prevented their furnishing the necessary information as promptly as they expected. We should, however, add, that the Board found it necessary, during the year, to make an unusual number of informal pledges of aid on special conditions, which ought fairly to be counted in its liabilities, yet cannot appear among the formal appropriations we report in the appendix, until further action is taken in reference to them.

From April 1, 1862, to April 1, 1863, thirty-seven churches drew their appropriations. The amount credited the Treasurer on account of payments to churches during the year is $7631.65.

In view of the state of public affairs, the Board continued to refrain from anticipating its income, and made no appropriations until the funds were in the treasury to meet them.

RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES.

The appropriated balance in the treasury, April 1, 1862, was $10,756.29. The receipts from all sources during the year were $19,225.22, of which sum $14,240.27 was from churches. The available means therefore of the year were $29,981.51.

The expenditures of the year, as shown by the Treasurer's statement in the appendix, were $9474.93. The balance in the treasury April 1, 1863, was, consequently, $20,506.58. There were, however, unpaid at that time, liabilities amounting to $14,172.66, leaving as the unpledged balance, April 1, 1863, $6333.92. Thus, for the first time in our history, we close a fiscal year with a considerable unpledged balance in the treasury. This state of things arises from the fact that the Board does not now make appropriations until the means are in hand to meet them; from the further fact that nearly two-thirds of this balance was received at the treasury within thirty days of the close of the fiscal year; and from the additional fact that the condition of public affairs prevented churches seeking aid from responding to our usual inquiries as promptly as heretofore.

Moreover, cases of desperate necessity occur so frequently, that we feel that we would be wanting in ordinary wisdom as stewards of the General Assembly, if we did not aim to keep, in these uncertain times, a small sum to meet such cases.

In view of the statements of this Report, that the fiscal year closed with applications on file (which may be perfected in a single week) amounting to $12,750; that applications calling for $8650 were declined during the year, chiefly for want of funds; and that the applications filed were $6528.07 in excess of the donations received, no reasonable man can infer from our temporary balance, that the contributions for church extension have outrun the wants of our houseless churches. So far would such an inference be from the truth, that the Board could, with advantage to our Zion, appropriate the entire balance at a single sitting, if it were deemed wise and just to do so.

COST OF CHURCH EDIFICES.

Since the organization of the Board, July, 1855, appropriations have been made to four hundred and eighty-six different churches. Of these, sixty-six were aided by special appropriations, for which the Board took no responsibility. As nearly as we can ascertain, the remaining four hundred and twenty churches cost $817,252, or $1946 each.

The reported average cost of the church edifices aided by the Board during the year under review is $1687.01. This is an advance of $559.11, or nearly fifty per cent., over the reported cost of those aided during the previous year, and was to be expected, from the general advance in the price of labour and materials.

CONCLUDING SUMMARY.

A comparison of some of the items presented in this Report with the corresponding statements of the previous year, may not be uninstructive. It shows that notwithstanding the continuance of our tremendous civil war, the necessity for houses of worship, and for aid in their erection, is so urgent that the number and amount of applications has increased, rather than diminished; the number of applications being seventy against sixty-nine, and the amount $24,954.40 against $24,572.45, while the average of aid sought is $356.49 against $356.12.

It has recently come to our knowledge, that the strangely erroneous impression that the Board was bankrupt, and unable to give aid to needy churches, has been somewhat widely prevalent. We have, therefore, reason to believe, that if the truth had been known, the number of applications for assistance would have been still larger during the year.

Such a comparison shows further, that the number of contributing churches this year is five hundred and sixty six against four hundred and eight, and the amount of church contributions $14,240.27 against $11,177.40 last year. This is an advance of one hundred and fifty-eight, or nearly forty per cent. in the number, and of $3062.87, or more than twenty-seven per cent. in the amount of church gifts.

The most important fact, however, developed by such a comparison, is the necessity for increased aid to our feeble churches. As we have already seen, the cost of church building has risen fifty per cent. within a year, when to this is added the further fact, that nearly all of our houseless churches have sent forth some of their best members and supporters to the war, and that not a few of these have fallen in battle or by disease, it will appear evident that the protecting establishing influences of the sanctuary can be secured for our weakened flocks only by enlarged aid from their wealthier and more favoured brethren. We are persuaded that if the real value of sanctuaries for our feeble churches could be felt, and the real poverty of most of those who ask aid could be known, the Board would speedily be enabled, with the hearty consent of contributors, to cheer their fainting brethren with more liberal appropriations.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly. If they have no printed blanks, after the form on the page opposite. Blanks can always be obtained gratis, on application to the Stated Clerk.

2. To make their Reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of figures.

3. To make them as accurate and full as possible. If, in any instance, churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that their number of communicants should be inserted from their last report.

4. To report no cents. The Assembly has so ordered. If therefore they are reported, the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is obliged to throw them out altogether, or to incorporate them with the dollars. This costs him a serious amount of labour, to which he ought not to be subjected.

5. To add up each column of figures with care. Many still neglect this, and thus oblige the Clerk of the Assembly to do what they should do themselves.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organization of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased.

7. To transmit their reports to the Stated Clerk, either at the meeting of the Assembly, or to Princeton, New Jersey, not later than the first day of June, fully post-paid.

N. B.—The General Assembly, in its sessions at Nashville, Tennessee, directed that the Presbyterial Reports should be made out at or before the Spring meetings of Presbyteries, and read in Presbytery for ratification and sanction.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but are kept for sale by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, 821 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods to send up to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly an annual report, stating, in brief, the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates, and candidates, within their bounds, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the arrangement of Presbyteries. By the Assembly of 1841, (see p. 425,) it has been made their duty also to transmit to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly the time and place of meetings of their respective Synods.

FORM OF PRESBYTERIAL REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Presbytery of ——— report to the General Assembly, that they consist of ——— Ministers, and have under their care ——— Churches, Licentiates, and ——— Candidates, viz.

MINISTERS, LICENTIATES, AND CANDIDATES.	POST-OFFICE	CHURCHES.	Communicants.					Baptized.		No. of Children in Sabbath Schools and Bible Classes.	Funds Collected.
			Added on examination.	Added on certificate.	Coloured communicants.	Total of communicants.		Adults.	Infants.		Domestic Missions.	Foreign Missions.	Education.	Publication.	Church Extension.	Disabled Ministers.	Congregational.	Miscellaneous
Licentiates—3.
D——— E———, &c.		☞ Add up,
Candidates—5.		omitting cents.

☞ Follow the above with a statement of licensures, ordinations, installations, pastoral relations dissolved, churches organized or dissolved, or received or dismissed to other denominations, and ministers received or dismissed to other denominations, or removed by death, since last Report.

Dated, ——— Signed, ——— ———, Stated Clerk.

Give the names of licentiates, but only the number of candidates, without name. It is earnestly requested that the above order of columns may be strictly followed, and that the columns may all be carefully added up. To ministers who are pastors, annex P.; to stated supplies, S. S.; to Domestic Missionaries, D. M.; to Foreign Missionaries, F. M.; to Presidents of Colleges, Pres.; to Professors in Colleges or Theological Seminaries, Prof.; to Agents, Ag.; to Chaplains, Chap.; and to Editors, Edt.; to congregations which have pastors, annex P.; to those which have stated supplies, S. S.; and to those which are vacant, V.

☞ The Assembly, in order to simplify its statistical tables, and to render them more full and accurate as to the contributions of the churches for religious purposes, Resolved:

That the form of reports as to collections be hereafter as follows:—1. For Domestic Missions; to include all moneys collected for the purpose, whether for the Boards, or any of the judicatories of the Church. 2. Foreign Missions; including all moneys for that purpose. 3. Education; including all that is given for the education of candidates for the ministry; for Theological Seminaries, Presbyterian Colleges, Academies, Parochial and Sabbath-schools. 4. Publication; all moneys for the Board of Publication, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories, and Colportage. 5. Church Extension; to include all moneys given for church erection outside of the congregation, whether through the Board of Church Extension or otherwise. 6. Disabled Ministers' Fund; to include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled ministers, and to aid the families of deceased ministers. 7. Congregational; all moneys contributed for the congregation, as pastors' salaries, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses; also to include Commissioners' and Contingent Funds. 8. Miscellaneous; including all other collections.

THE CONTINGENT FUND.

There is a necessity for calling the particular attention of the churches and Presbyteries to the Contingent Fund. The expenses for which it provides are indispensable to the maintenance of our ecclesiastical organism; and it is now in debt several hundred dollars. Delegates to Corresponding Bodies cannot have their expenses paid without an increase of this Fund.

REGULATION RESPECTING THE MINUTES.

Adopted by the Assemblies of 1836 and 1837. Directed to be republished in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Each Presbytery shall forward to the Treasurer, for the Contingent Fund of the Assembly, at or before the meeting of the Assembly in each year, a sum equal to fifty cents for each member of the Presbytery, and for any licentiate or other person who shall desire the Minutes, and whose post-office address shall be given. And the Stated Clerk shall not forward the Minutes to the members of any Presbytery from which no such remittance shall be made, but only to the Stated Clerk of such Presbytery, and to such members as shall forward the sum above stated.

In addition to the above, where copies are sent by mail, six cents additional must be forwarded to prepay postage, according to the present demand of the Post Office.

CORRECTIONS.
